ASSIGNMENT.

WHEREAS, I, Thomas Foley, being the holder of a certain liquor license granted by the Board of Excise of the City of New York on the 21st day of October 1895, No. 132, upon premises No. West side of Jerome Ave - 100 ft N. 169th and in the City of New York, which said license was granted under and by virtue of Chapter 401 of the Laws of 1892, known as the Excise Law and the Acts amendatory thereof.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of One Dollar and other good and valuable considerations paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, I do hereby sell, assign and transfer unto Edward Johnson of City of New York said license and all claims or demands for the recovery of any part of the license fee paid therefor pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 112 of the Laws of 1896, known as the Liquor Tax Law, and hereby nominate and appoint the abovenamed assignee, attorney irrevocably to demand, sue for, collect and receive in the name of said assignor or otherwise, but at the said assignee's own proper cost and expense, any and all sums which may be or become due or owing upon the said license, or by reason of the termination or surrender thereof, and to execute and deliver any acquittance, receipt or other document which may be requisite or proper for that purpose.

And the undersigned, as an inducement for the payment of the consideration hereinbefore referred to, hereby states, represents and warrants that He is the sole and exclusive owner of the said license and all rights and claims accruing thereunder, and that neither the said license nor the claim hereby assigned has been previously assigned, hypothecated, or in anywise encumbered.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set My hand and seal this 31st day of July 1896.

WITNESS, George Woodsin Thomas Foley
