Ferdinand Weyman, cross examined. September 5th 1883.

I am acquainted with Mr Martin & know him about 3 or 4 years I stabled next door to him at 46 Willet street; previous to this trouble we were on friendly terms; my business is a milk dealer and Martin is the same; he owed me a bill and he would not pay it and he told me to sue him and he owed me the bill for freight and cartage; I expressed the milk from Orange county for him the bill was either 24 or 34 dollars. I am not certain which he paid me the bill after I put the milk in pawn; I held it myself I was paid all but 3.49 dollars and immediately I got all my money from him Mrs Martin paid me; I took a wagon sent from Martin and gave it back to him when he asked for it; I never used it Martin stable was next to mine and I was in my stable 0025 on the 18th of June <sup>1894</sup> Morton jumped off his wagon and called me a son of a bitch <sup>which</sup> he was a chief I went outside of the stable <sup>and</sup> I says to Morton who is a son of a bitch you or I and Morton went back to his store and I went to the stable; Morton came ten feet from the stable and struck me with a butcher cleaver on the forehead.

Reminisc

When Morton came to my store he had a butcher cleaver in his hand and I was working away down my dinner. Morton was with me. after Morton came in the first thing he said was I will kill the son of a bitch (meaning me) Garbat and the driver tell you when he saw Morton

A He says I saw here is Morton with a butcher cleaver and as soon as I bent up he struck me on the forehead with the cleaver he struck me three times

0026 and.

How many times were you struck by him?

As he hit me once; Leonard the driver when he struck at me the 3<sup>d</sup> time knocked the cleaver out of his hand. the driver ~~did~~ knocked it out of his hand with a hay stick; the second time he struck at me he hit me when the cleaver was knocked out of his hand by the driver it fell on my foot. No time then went out of the stable after I was struck I fell down on the floor in the stable. and was after I got up I saw the butcher cleaver on the floor beside me I picked it up and also my hat. we went outside, on the street, the next time I saw him he was in the custody of the officer; I had a clot in my hand. I did not go into Mortens store that day. I am sure sworn to before me this 20th day of September 1883 J. Weymann

J. M. Patterson
Police Justice

Leonard Milbest of 51 East Stanton Street being duly sworn deposes and says;

I am a driver for Mr Weyman I was in the stable on the 18 of June at the time of this occurrence Morton came out of his store and said I will kill the son of a bitch (meaning Weyman) Weyman was bending down working in the stable but Morton came in, and struck at him <sup>with a cleaver</sup> the second <sup>time</sup> the cleaver at him he hit him on the forehead and the third time he knocked the butcher cleaver out of his hand; Mr Weyman fell down on the ground and after he got up Weyman took the butcher cleaver and went out of the stable & looked for an officer Morton went two or three blocks up the street.

Cross Examined

I am still employed by Mr Weyman, the trouble occurred about a quarter of seven in the morning Weyman never said anything to me about the case since it happened. He 0028 never asked me what I was going to swear to; Weyman had a plot in his hand that morning I know must be 20 or 30 years. ~~and~~ I did not see Weyman go into Mortimer's stone with a stick I saw him Weyman go out of the stable with a stick but he didn't go into Mortimer's stone I am sure he didn't go into his stone, the stable is next door to Mortimer's stone.

Edward J. Morton defendant being only sworn deposer Ed says.

I reside at 46 Willett street I am in the milk business I came home from my route in the morning and I says there is the damn butcher that stole the seat of my wagon (meaning my man) I asked Weymans driver if they had my seat and they said no! I then saw the seat in Weymans stable two weeks after wards. after ~~I~~ called him a thief and some other names; he picked up a stick came from the stable up to me and says who are you calling a thief and I says you are one and he fellamed me into my stone and hit me with the stick, it was a piece or some other thing he struck me on the back of the neck twice and the cleaver was laying on my counter and I picked up the cleaver and I went out on the street, and had the cleaver with me and I says to him now you come

0030 for me again <sup>and</sup> he had a hammer in his hand <sup>and</sup> he made an attempt to come for me and wanted to strike me with the hammer <sup>and</sup> as he did so I followed him <sup>and</sup> struck at him with the flat of the cleaver. he was going to strike me when I defended myself and struck him what I did so I done in self defense;

Prof Examiners

I drove up to my own door <sup>and</sup> jumped off of the wagon when I jumped off I saw Weyman <sup>and</sup> said there is that damn thief that stole the seat of my wagon <sup>and</sup> Weyman says to me who are you calling a thief <sup>and</sup> I said you; he then went into the stable <sup>and</sup> I called him a thief again and he came out with a stick in his hand which he had before he went in and followed me into my stone, he went to the end of the counter, near the kitchen after we were in the stone he says if you call me a thief I will knock your brains out and I said you won't do any thing of the kind, there was no other conversation he had struck me at this time, he struck me followed me into the stone and struck me then with the <sup>step</sup> I went outside with the butcher cleaver, he went out first after he struck me he had this conversation and he went into the stable, I followed him right off I went to his stable; and I says if you hit me again I will knock the head off you - the reason I went into his stable was because he came into my stone, I was in front of his stable when I told him that; and he was in the stable he had a hammer in his hand ~~and was <sup>going to work.</sup> nailing some boards.~~ and when I was in front of the stable I says you come for me again and I will knock the head off of you and he 0032 came for me with the hammer in his hand & attempted to strike me with the hammer & then I made an attempt to strike him, I could not say if I hit him I suppose I must have hit <sup>him</sup> this occurred about 4 feet from the door of the stable; I believe his dinner was there I did not see any body else I seen no man there, Reinist

at the time I struck at him he attempted to strike me with a hammer.
Recross.

I don't know any thing about the dinner knocking the cleaver out of my hand.
I could not say if he was there or not. I could not tell if I threw the cleaver down or how it happened I was too

Examination resumed!

Adam Smith of 236 Rivington Street being only sworn deposed and says I am fifty four years of age and am in the liquor business, I had a conversation with Mr Weyman after the affair happened.

Of what conversation did Mr Weyman have with you with reference to this affair? objected to.

By the Court

Advised Weyman how this happened he told me Martin called him a thief and he was fixing up the stable and he had a piece of wood in his hand, he went into Martin's store and asked Martin what he called him a thief for; Martin followed him out of the store, and that's all, he did not say he struck Martin but he said he had a piece of wood in his hand. Cross Examined

I don't know the day but

It was a day or two after the affair that I had the conversation with him; I know of nothing of the occurrence except what Weyman told me in the conversation, I am not the surety on the bond of the prisoner; I went on a bail bond for the prisoner in another matter, but not in this case.

Respect

I don't see Mr Weyman before I saw him in his store on the morning of the conversation.
I have no particular friendship between either the complainant or the defendant.

The conversation was in his store in Sheriff street; there were 3 or 4 other people there the wife of the complainant was watching in and out. She talked in the matter while I was talking to Weyman.

State Martin of 30 Corbett Street being only seven days I am the wife of the defendant I don't know of anything of the trouble until I see Mr Weyman run after him into our store I was then in the store; Mr Weyman came into the store and had a stick I am certain it was a piece of a fence and struck <sup>him</sup> right in the back between the two shoulder blades with it and then Weyman ran out and my husband ran after him after that I didn't see any thing more; I am sure it was not that he struck him with it was a heavy piece of wood and this occurred in the store Ayo Examined

I was standing between the kitchen and the store and my husband handed me the whip and the blanket when this happened. he came in and gave me these things before and then Mr Weyman came in after wards. I could not tell 0036 what happened before that I heard no conversation I was not outside I was scrubbing at the time, I didn't hear anything said between the prisoner and my man while they were in the store. a couple of minutes after he gave me the blanket and he went out and I saw the two of them come in together my husband after he gave me the whip and blanket went out of the store. I didn't see him go out my back was turned to him; I did not follow him to the door I was in the same position when they came back as I was when he came in and handed me the blanket and the whip, my husband came in first my man back of him and I didn't hear either of them say anything, I was in the kitchen scrubbing I did not hear anything said by either of them after they came in the store together when the blow was struck I was about two feet from them

If anything moved have been said I moved have heard it <sup>cannot say.</sup> ~~but I did not~~ ~~hear~~ <sup>John</sup> any thing was said by other people I stood there, the force or price of mood that Weyman struck my husband with was still in his hand after he was struck and when he went out. after the blow struck Weyman went out first and Martin went out a couple of minutes after him; I could not tell what my husband took when he went out I suppose he took some thing I could not tell what it was; I don't know what he took, there were customers in the store I could not leave them standing there to see what he took. I did not follow my husband out I did not go out after him and put my arms round him and try to bring him back again, there might have been some people in the store, there might have been and there might not have been.

Reverent

0038

The coming in of Mr Weyman and hitting my husband and Weyman going out was done in a very few minutes I was excited at the time; my husbands wagon was in front of our store;

Samuel Shale. of 68 1/2 Bowdoin Street, being duly sworn deposes and says

I am a practicing physician practicing in the city of New York on or about the month of June 1883 I attended Mr Weyman at his house for a wound on left side of his forehead;

It was a wound made by a sharp instrument and it was about  $2\frac{1}{2}$  inches long; the borders of the wound were standing apart about a quarter of an inch the bone was not touched at all the hemorrhage was very much profuse; I sutured the wound up, and continued to treat him for about 10 days afterwards and made my last visit on the 26th of June. when he was well again he was confined to his bed. for 4 days then he was able to get up but not to leave the house. the wound was about ~~2~~ $2\frac{1}{2}$  inches above the eye; the surroundings of the eye were much swollen. but were more

0040 so after the 3rd or 4th day..he complained very much about pain in the head. such pains are naturally the result of such an injury and are not liable to recur again after the wound is healed;

Prof. Examinations

I graduated in Berlin I have a diploma to practice in this city I have been practicing here for 7 years and a half.
I visited him about 6 times the first time I saw him he was unconscious <sup>for a time</sup> that was at his house, It was only a flesh wound 2 1/2 inches long the wound itself would not render a man unconscious but the instrument that made the wound would and the excitement and the hemorrhage I don't know how long afterwards he recovered the wound I assessed but I went there at a 1/4 past 2. I could not exactly tell the length of time the wound was made before I called it may have been an hour may be longer it was at least an how that it was made; <sup>before leaving</sup> the wound was not bleeding so freely as it was before. he must have lost a great deal of blood, from the nature of the wound. It may have been made by a blunt instrument <sup>but</sup> yet the manner with which it was struck might not have been so strong as if it was struck by a sharp instrument. In examining such a wound as every man has I could not exactly tell if it was made by a blunt instrument or a sharp one but it was made by one or the other; where a bone lays right under the skin, the skin comes away. <sup>and</sup> tears open <sup>and</sup> then it looks just as if it was cut. if a man were cut with a club. <sup>in</sup> one place <sup>and</sup> the same person cut with ~~another~~ a razor in the same place I could not tell with which the wound was made I was subpoenaed to come here from the condition of the wound

I could not tell in what position Mr Weyman was it would have been the same if he were in a standing or lying position; If any man would have been in a stooping position the prisoner could make the same wound... He would have to get in front of any man if he were lying down then it could be done in the same way. And he could have inflicted the same wound if he Weyman were in a standing position; I could not tell if he left the house the 2<sup>d</sup> day I attended him I told him not to go out of the house. A man could not tend to his business the second day after such a wound; he could have attended to his business after the 10th day. If he had been attending to his business the 2<sup>d</sup> day after I attended him it would not be so serious as I described it but he was in bed.

Ferdinand Greyman recalled: I did not go into Mortons stone or follow him with a stick as testified by him. I was not I had a stick in my hand but I did not go into his stone at all I went about 10 feet from the stable in the side walk, I did not hit or strike the prisoner with a stick or any other as was testified to that I am positive if I did not strike him with any thing at all I have the stick here that I had when I came out of my stable I was working on the stick, to nail it in the manger and when I came out I had the stick in my right hand and some nails in my mouth the hammer was in the stable. after Morton went into his stone I went into my stable and went to work.

Crops Examined

I did not have the stick in my hand when I was shown with a cleaver, I had the stick in my hand about 2 minutes

before I was struck went in the stable to work and the stone was along side of me. I took the stick from the stable last Saturday. it was there ever since when he struck me I had the paw and a long piece of wood in my hand he struck me in the stable 10 feet from the door, I did not tell Snowd except to mortis stone on that day.

I reside at 44 Quill St that is opposite the store & stable of Martin & Weyman; on the morning after this affray I was standing at my window; I saw Martin come home with his milk wagon & take his horse but put him in the stable then returned from the stable & I saw Weyman going after Martin with a stick in his hand just like the piece he has in his hand. Martin was ahead of him & Weyman after him and went as far as Martin's door then Weyman took hold of Martin, pulled him into the store and shut the door in Weyman's face. Weyman went back to the stable put his shoulder against the door, and left there as it appeared to me he went into the stable & Martin was wrestling with his wife trying to get out. And in opening the door to get out he had a cleaver in his hand and broke the glass of the door he then broke open the door of his store and ran out; then he went towards the stable and running the cleaver I could not see what he hit and ~~in~~ running again, his wife caught him and put her hands around his neck waist, and pulled him towards her, and then he threw the cleaver at Weyman and Mrs. Milbert helped Mrs. Norton pull him away. And that's all I saw, I afterwards saw Weyman coming out from the stable bleeding and I tied his head up with a handkerchief.

Cops Examined

My window was up Mrs. Norton was up I am aware of that when Mrs. Norton pulled him in she closed the door. & she was scuffling inside in the store to keep him in. It was about. I cannot say if it was in the forenoon or afternoon I am living there by now in that
