I called at the corner of Boston Avenue and 770th Street in the 24th Ward the alleged residence of George Larins

the complainant herein, to serve him with the annexed subpoena, and was informed by the several foremen in the cigar factory of Jacob Stahl who said that neither of them know the said Larins and that he does not reside and is not employed in that building.

I also inquired for Jacob Stahl a Gardner but could find any one who knows the said Stahl.

I have on previous occasions made diligent search and inquiry to find the said George Larins but have been unable to find any one who knows him or his present whereabouts.

 The People vs. Edward Brown (Court of General Sessions, Part I
 Before Judge Cowing, Oct. 8, 1886.
 Indictment for burglary in the second degree.

Jenny Lichtenstein sworn and examined.
 I live at 235 Thompson St. in this city; on the 7th of Sept in the night time my house was broken into by removing the fastenings of the basement door; the place was locked up the night before; the door was broken by force; there was a piece of wood came out of the woodwork. I occupy the floor where the door was broken. I had furniture and clothing in the house that night.
 The property stolen was two dresses and a silver pitcher; the dresses were worth twenty three dollars and the pitcher eleven dollars. I saw the dresses on the Sunday after. I saw the woman with whom this man lives across the way wearing my dress. I did not say anything that time; after this my girl went out into the street and she saw another woman have my other dress on. One girl said to the other "it is too bad to wear stolen things in the street."
 I saw my dresses on these two women and identified them as my property. I did not give them to these women or anybody; they were part of the stolen property taken from me that night. The dresses cost me twenty three dollars. I bought them about two weeks before.

Mary Auer sworn and examined. I live in Bleeker st. I do not live with the defendant but I have seen him. The dress I have got on now belong to that lady over there (the complainant)
 Where did you get that dress? That man over there gave me the ticket (the prisoner) and I took it out of the pawn shop. How much money did you get on that pawn ticket? $1.12. How much money did the ticket call for? $1.12. You went and paid that and got that dress? I paid $1.15. You got the ticket from the prisoner? Yes.

Bernard O'Brien, sworn and examined.
 Testified. I am a police officer attached to the 15th precinct of this city. I arrested Edward Brown in 68 West Third St. on the complaint of Mrs. Lichtenstein. I told him that the lady accused him of taking these dresses. He denied it, but he said he gave this girl the ticket. I searched him and found in his pocket a small hammer and a small chisel. I made an examination of the door of 235 Thompson St. that was broken and I found there was a small piece of wood avsnered in size to one of those tools. The prisoner said that he got the ticket from some other party; he did not know his name except George. I don't know that these tools are brass moulders tools. This building that was broken was in the fifteenth ward of New York.

0466

Edward Brown sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I am 23 years old and have been in this county eleven years. I have been constantly employed and was at work the time of my arrest in 815 Broadway, agent for Day and Young's photographs. My trade is a brass molder. The tools produced are mine and I use them in my trade. I was sitting in the Park in Fourth St and Gay, I don't know his other name and said he had a ticket. I gave the officer all the evidence I could possibly give about this man from the time he arrested me till I got to the station house. I wanted the officer to find the man. This man heard I had been arrested and went away. I sent the officer to the house where this man was living. The man came to me and said, "Brown, lend me 20 cents." I said, "I have not got it to lend you. He asked me how much I had got and I told him ten cents. He wanted to sell me two tickets he had; he wanted to borrow ten cents; he said he would give me double the money back. He was working on the 9th Avenue Elevated Railroad, he was laid off till Monday and would not get his money till Monday. I gave him 20 cents for the two tickets. I gave one ticket to the lady who was the witness here and one ticket to the lady who lived with me at 63 West Third St. the day after this burglary was committed. I moved into the house on the 12th and I got the tickets from this man on the 15th at 16th. There was jealousy between these two women, and the man from whom I got the tickets came down and said to them, "you had better take them dresses off if you do not, you will get into trouble." I told the girl right away to take the dress off. I told the man I wanted my money back. The dresses were put in pawn on the 8th of Sept. in Levy's pawn shop in Houston St. The officer came down to my house at 8 1/2, I was in bed, and I told him where I got the tickets. I went to the station house and there tools were found in my pocket. I was never arrested in my life before that and I know nothing about the burglary. I work every day Cross Examined. I learned the trade of brass molder in England. I worked at Vail's iron works, Middletown, N. Y. but left there on the 15th of Feb. I have been in the photograph business and I have been peddling. I never was in any penitentiary or State prison. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of burglary in the second degree. The defendant was remanded for sentence.

0467

Dear Sir:

President Gerry, who has been obliged to leave town for a short time, dictated the following letter which he has requested me to sign and forward you.

"In the case of The People v. William Frederick Brown, the prisoner is indicted for the abduction of Cora Welch. His counsel James W. Osborne, 17 South Street, has called to ask when the case will be tried, as the man is now in prison, and says that he is ~~anxious to go South as soon as possible and have the case disposed of.~~ I have carefully examined this case. The facts show that the girl in question, Cora Welch, aged 13, is a simple-minded child who lost her mother about 13 years ago, and lives in a boarding house at 12 South Street, previously to which she was at the St. Manorca in East New York for two years and a half, where she was placed by her father, who is a deck hand on the tug Garlick, and who pays her board. About a month ago the prisoner, who works for a Mr. Clark at a news stand in Coenties Slip, took her to a pic-nic and there had connection with her. The child seems to have been addicted to prostitution for money for some time past, and has been placed by the action of this Society in the New York Catholic Protectory. It has been unable to secure corroboration of her story, and while there is no doubt in my mind that the connection did take place, I very much fear upon the evidence presented it will be difficult to convict the offender under the statute pursuant to which he has been indicted. From the story told by the girl, I have no doubt of the commission of the act, and I therefore respectfully suggest that if the prisoner pleads to an indecent assault, the ends of Justice would be satisfied by the acceptance of that plea. I shall not communicate with the counsel in regard to the matter further than to refer him to you."

I remain, with great respect,

The People
vs.
Thomas Burns and
James Fagan.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Recorder Smyth.

September 21, 1886.

Indictment for burglary in the first degree.

Mary Jackson sworn. I live 418 East 11th Street in this city and occupy rooms on the first floor; on the night of the 4th of this month the prisoners broke in but they did not take anything, , they were breaking a trunk, I caught them and they ran out; they raised up a window and got into the room, I had twenty dollars in money and clothing in my trunk which worth about thirty or forty dollars, I was sleeping in the bed-room and I halloed and they ran out through the window; the officer afterwards showed me a little bag which belonged to me and which was on the mantel-piece, I went to the Station House with the boys near four o'clock, the prisoners had been arrested then. The window out of which they ran was back in the kitchen, it was shut before I went to bed.

Cross Examined. I know the mother of one of these boys, I did not tell Mrs. Fagan that I was mistaken and wanted to withdraw the charge. When I saw these boys there I never said a word until I came out in the kitchen, the light on the mantel-piece was sufficient to enable me to see them, when I hollered Fagan looked back at me, I saw his face, he had a straw hat on but the other boy had no hat at all, I did not state in the Police Court that I was not positive about Fagan, I was not excited when I saw the boys, I hollered for the police and three policemen came to me, I did not call the boys by name, I knew Fagan but I did not know the other boy. I am living in this place going on six years, I was on the Island three months ago in the lunatic asylum, I was up there going on five months, I was only once in a lunatic asylum, my husband was suffocated on March 17th with gas and I went to Bellevue, I was four days in Bellevue and came out and was sent to the lunatic asylum and the whole of them robbed me whilst I was in, I spent five months on the Island in the Lunatic Asylum and was discharged, I was not so excited on this night in question as to be unable to recognize these two boys. I was sent to the asylum on Blackwell's Island for some mental trouble and was discharged cured.

Redmond P. Kerresy sworn. I am an officer of the 17th precinct and the premises that have been described by the previous witness are in the 17th ward. My attention was called on this night in question to the premises by an alarm rap sent out by the officer on that post, I went to the corner, I was on 12th Street, there was a grave yard between 11th and 12th Streets, I heard screams of "Thief", I went to First Avenue and 12th Street, I saw this boy Burns as I came to the corner, he threw something up in the air, I heard it jingle, he was crossing First Avenue going into 12th from 11th Streets, I thought it was a jimmy, I brought him back to the man on post, I told him to stop, and he stopped, He said there was somebody broke in there, I told him to watch while I searched the premises, I went to search for the other party and this lady came and told me at the time it was Fagan, I could not find him, I went back and with the assistance of another officer we found a toy bank that this woman identified as her property which was on the mantel-piece, I found it in the same spot where I heard the jingling. I arrested Fagan at one o'clock Sunday, the next day and he was identified by the complainant.

Cross Examined. I arrested him between 11th and 13th Streets on First Avenue, I was about twenty feet from him when Burns threw something in the air, he acknowledged that it was a toy bank that he threw away, Fagan was sitting on a coal box between 13th Street and Avenue B, he did not make any effort to escape but when I grabbed him he said he had nothing to do with it, I told him I wanted him for a burglary committed in 11th Street yesterday morning, he came to the Station House and the complainant identified him.

Julia Fagan sworn and examined for the defence, testified: I live at 418 East 11th Street and James Fagan is my son, I remember that he came home the night preceding the morning of his arrest at eleven o'clock and went to bed and the screams woke us up at three o'clock in the morning, we thought the place was on fire and that Mrs. Jackson was crazy again, I went down and asked her what was the matter and she said there was burglars in her house, that two boys wearing straw hats were in there, she said she did not know who the boys were.

James Fagan sworn and examined, testified, that the night before he was arrested he was at Miner's Theater and came home at eleven o'clock he did not wear a straw hat on that evening and was not on the complainant's premises.

The defendants pleaded guilty to an attempt at grand larceny in the second degree.
