I have known Gerrity 5 or 6 years. Lawlor said "I'm cut!" but didn't say who did it, or what weapon was used. When Gerrity kicked Lawlor he did not fall. I heard Lawlor cry out. He said "Oh" clasped his hand to ^{off stomach} the left side, and turned around. As he turned to run Gerrity kicked him. Gerrity was walking down Roosevelt St. towards the ferry when I saw him last. I never knew either Gerrity and Lawlor to quarrel before. I didn't know what their quarrel this time was about.

I have ^{since} spoken to one of the men who were with me that night about the occurrence. His name is McCarthy. Lawlor put his hand to his side after he "halloed"

I saw blood on Lawlor when I picked him up.

Before Lawlor shouted I saw no clinch or struggle.

Lawlor was perfectly sober that night. Lawlor & Gerrity stood in front of the saloon door ~~where~~ about 6 or 7 feet from the wind.

I asked him who cut him. He replied that "Geeser" ^{Gerrity} had done so, and described him. In liquor store 290 Front St. I found Gerrity sitting asleep in a chair under the influence of liquor. Asked him what he stabbed Lawler for, and he made no reply. While in the ambulance Lawler said Gerrity had stabbed him with a knife. Lawler was sober. I smelled no liquor on his breath. Have known Lawler for years, and never saw him drunk or taking a drink.

Officer Thomas Maher of the 4th precinct being sworn says:- I recollect this case. Officer Griffin brought in the prisoner. I took the prisoner to the Chambers Street Hospital & confronted him with Lawlor. He latter identified him as the man who had stabbed him & called him by name, James Gurrity. I took him to Court the next morning. I didn't ask the deceased what he had been stabbed with. I ^{Officer Shreve} searched the prisoner but found no weapon. He denied having had any trouble with the deceased. In identifying him the deceased said in answer to my question pointing to the prisoner "This is James Gurrity: he is the man stabbed me." That's all I remember having been said ^{at the Hospital}. The prisoner was somewhat under the influence of liquor. Lawlor did not appear to have been drinking. I did not smell any liquor off him. TESTIMONY.

This is to certify that following is the ^{during his stay in hospital} history of man called William Lawlor. He was brought to Chambers Street Hospital in ambulance from 4th Precinct Station House about 10 pm Dec. 6th, 1884. He had a wound said to have been made by knife in anterior abdominal wall. This wound was 3 inches above level of umbilicus & $1\frac{3}{4}$ inches to left of median line. The wound was about $1\frac{3}{4}$ inches long externally (i.e. through the skin & superficial tissues) crescentic in shape with concavity directed away from median line. The deep part of wound was further from median line than the superficial. Little finger was introduced through wound & tip of little finger entered peritoneal cavity: wound through peritoneum seemed about $\frac{3}{4}$ inch in length. There had been but little haemorrhage, and there was no sign of viscera having been injured. Wound was closed with 3 sutures & dressed with iodoformized gauze. On admission patient said he had been hard drinker — that he had recently been drinking ^{this brandy} heavily; on admission he seemed perfectly conscious and rational. Until evening of Dec. 7th patient did well, but on night of that day he developed delirium tremens: though on following day he became less restless, on night of the 8th inst., he again became very bad, starting constantly, trembling, talking to persons whom he imagined were about him. At this time he had subnormal temperature, a very feeble pulse, & was covered with cold sweat. He was so restless that dressing of wound & even keeping shirt on were impracticable, as he would tear things off. He never improved from the condition in which he then was. At 5 pm. Dec. 10th, 1884 he died of heart failure.

Therefore I pray that you will discharge the above defendants in this matter as I withdraw my complaint.
