Hon: Rufus B. Coving:

Dear Sir:

I called on you yesterday on an errand of mercy. ~~In the first place I will tell you who I mean. When you was nominated for City Judge I was called on by the late Robert C. Brown, telling me that a friend of his was nominated for that office and for me to do what I could to help you elected, I told him my influence was small, but I would do what I could for any friend of his. Mr. Brown afterwards introduced me to you on the corner of Broadway and Vesey Street.~~

Your course as an honorable and upright Judge has met the warmest approval of your many friends.

Now for the subject in hand. Last Saturday I received a letter from Edward A. Campbell of Elkhart, Indiana, a nephew of my wife, and whose mother was a sister to the poor girl Ella Lewis who was figured in your Court last Wednesday. He asked me to intercede for the poor girl and to try and get herself to be taken to lacerate their feelings, although their son John seduced her from the path of duty, (a married man at that). Her situation becoming known she had to leave the paternal home she had had for 15 years. An abortion was performed and finally being abandoned she committed the theft from Mr. Large. She fled from the City and went into a low family at Chippequa. She says she gave them $10.00 of Large's money. They seen she had the money, and after a few days it mysteriously disappeared. She being a thief herself she was afraid to accuse them. She was worked up to desperation and made her mind to give herself up - you know the rest.

Her act was grand-larceny and rendered her liable to five years in the Penitentiary, but you in your magnanimity gave her the lowest term prescribed by law, for that act alone I feel most gratified to you.

Now Judge I want to appeal still more to your high toned sympathy, and try and place the poor child from utter perdition. Mr. Campbell her cousin offers her a home. I will pay her fare to Indiana, $20.00. and these parts will throw her no more. I believe in justice being

Dear Sir:

I am informed that you are the counsel of Ella Luck, this day convicted and sentenced to one years imprisonment for Grand Larceny.

This being her first offence I think some effort should be made to give her a chance to reform.

She has lived in my family from her infancy, and her general conduct has been good. She has not until very recently exhibited her vicious propensities.

As a rule I think it nothing but fair that she should be given a chance to reform, and most earnestly urge that leniency may be shown her.

It is true that she has done me and those that are dear to me a grievous wrong, yet I most cheerfully forgive her.

Yours Truly

J. W. Savage

To The Honorable
 Rufus B. Cowing
 City Judge of the City
 and County of New York

The Petition of your petitioner shows that she is known as Ella Lewis.

That at a term of the Court of General Sessions held in and for the City and County of New York, on the 9th day of February 1880, your petitioner by advice of counsel interposed a plea of guilty to an indictment charging her with Grand Larceny.

That by The Honorable Court she was sentenced to one year imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

That your petitioner further shows that when a young babe of the age of about three years she was left an orphan her Father and Mother dying.

That at that time she went to live in the family, as an adopted daughter of one John Y. Savage, residing in this City.

That after a residence of about fifteen years in said family your petitioner was mantled by an overwhelming calamity, in consequence of which she was ejected from her long continued home and thrust

30 1 ruthlessly into the street with no home 31 2 to go to, and without any means to support herself

32 3 That in consequence of such treatment 33 4 she became ill and suffered much and 34 5 was compelled to go to an acquaintance and 35 6 beg shelter, and whereat she was taken ill 36 7 and remained at the house of her friends 37 8 Mr and Mrs John P. Raynor for some time 38 9 and in such a low state of health and mind 39 10 that she was unable to know <sup>what</sup> she was doing

40 11 That at times thereafter your Petitioner 41 12 suffering from depression of mind caused 42 13 by the terrible ordeal through which she 43 14 had gone your petitioner often became so 44 15 disheartened that she was thrown into 45 16 such a state of mind as to reach ~~as~~ 46 17 almost, unaccountability.

47 18 That at the time of your petitioners 48 19 employment at the home of Mrs Large N<sup>o</sup> 49 20 22 East 34th Street, she had brought to mind 50 21 the fact again, of her suffering and she 51 22 became so deeply depressed, that she hardly 52 23 knew what she did.

53 24 That whilst in this precarious condition 54 25 of your petitioner, she now, knows, that she 55 26 committed a grievous wrong.

56 27 That your petitioner further avers, that 57 28 she has never been arrested for any offense 58 29 whatever before, and as the certificates and 59 30 petitioners hereto annexed will show to your.

officer, that your petitioner has always been an excellent character as to virtue, honesty and uprightness, and a hard working young woman

that your petitioner is now sorry for the indiscretion, which she has been guilty of, and desires to be given a chance to reform, and earnestly begs that your Honor, will rescind the sentence that your Honor imposed upon petitioner, as the Court, on the said 9th day of February 1880 that your petitioner humbly desires that she may not be incarcerated in the Penitentiary because she being her first offense, she asks that she may not be forced to commingle with those who are steeped in crime, as if she is, it will be conducive to a contrary influence, than that which she is informed will be her if she is released

that your petitioner has been informed that if she can be released, a kind lady has kindly consented to take and care for your petitioner and give her a home Lastly in Mercy make, it is here asked that your Honor will carefully investigate this matter, and desiring that now, the ends of Justice, will be as well satisfied, and that my suffering had taught me such a lesson still.

0659

I hereby crave in the fulfillment of God's Law, that your Honor take a Merciful view of my case, and extend to me the Hand of Mercy; and I faithfully promise to atone for my sin & sin no more.
This is the earnest prayer from the sad heart of heart. of Your Petitioner
Ella Lewis

To His Honor

Rufus B. Couring.

City Judge of the City
and County of New York.

We the Undersigned,

Having known ~~the~~ Ella Louis for a number of years, and during that time we have known her to be a young girl of good character and an honest hard working young woman. We also pray that your Honor, will do all for the young girl that can be done toward her to her, her release from prison.
