LOUIS STROCH testified that he lived at 111 Hester Street, and his business is that of a cap-maker. He remembered meeting the defendant, McDonald, on May 21st. He met him in the Bowery, above Broome Street. It was a holiday. It was between 11 and 12 o'clock in the morning. He was standing with his boy, for whom he was about to buy a suit. The defendant came over to the right side of the complainant, and pressed him to the left. The complainant felt the defendant's hand in his, the complainant's pocket, and the latter began to cry out, "My money, my money!" and the defendant ran away, and, while running, he threw away the pocketbook with the money. The pocketbook contained $14.00. The complainant picked up the pocketbook. A policeman pursued the defendant, and arrested him.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,
VERSUS

James M. Houghton.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

If your Honor is of the opinion that the indictment be dismissed and the defendant discharged.

The People
 Martin M. Donough (Before Recorder Smyth)
 May 24th 1893. Indictment for Seduction.
 Kate Mooney, sworn and examined, testified: Are you married or single? Single.
 Where do you live? I live now in 410
 West Twenty Fifth street. How old are you?
 Twenty two. I am a domestic. I do housework. I was employed in 433 West Thirty Fourth street at the time this happened. I stopped with my uncle, Mr. Leonard. You are not employed at present? No. On the 1st of June last year where were you employed?
 No 443 West Thirty Fourth street by Mrs.
 Gladhill. How long have you known Martin M. Donough? I know him since November 1891. Where did you meet him?
 I met him in Mr. Bradley's 410 West
 Twenty Fifth street; my uncle lived there.
 Your acquaintance with him continued
 then from November 1891? Yes. Where were you on the evening of the 1st of June 1892? Where I had been living in 443
 West Thirty Fourth street in Mr. Gladhill's.
 What time in the evening did you meet this defendant? He came into the house about half past four o'clock. Who else beside yourself and him were there at that time?

0377

POOR QUALITY

Nobody but ourselves. I could not remember what he said when he came in. I remember having some conversation with him. What time did this alleged crime take place? Between five and six o'clock. He told me that we had promised to get married anyway the first time I ever saw him, that is, November 1891 he promised to marry me. Did you and he have a formal engagement? No. Did he come to see you very often? Yes. Did he keep promising to marry you all the time? Yes. He kept that up till June 1892? Yes; he promised me then. This evening did he talk about marriage again? Yes. What did he say about it? He told me then that when the family would go away to the country - (they were going away in the month of August) - we could get married. He never intended to have any one but me; he promised in every way and then I gave into him. You mean by that you had sexual connection? Yes. That was the first Sunday in June. Did you meet him after that? Yes. When you met him at any subsequent time did you and he have sexual intercourse? ^{Yes}

About how often altogether? I guess about three or four times that month. Any times after that month? Yes. I could not say. As near as you can remember? He never had from August In July did he have? Yes. You were to be married in August? Yes. when the family went away. Where were you to be married? He said in the Twenty Fifth street church. on this last night of August. He made a promise in my uncle's rooms for me to Mr. Leonard that he would marry me the very next night at seven o'clock on the first of September in the church between Eighth and Ninth avenue; the priest's name is Father Pratt. I left my place at four o'clock in the afternoon of the first of September. He did not come at all, and the second of September
I sent Mr. Leonard to his boarding house and he did not come. He promised me in June that we should be married in the Catholic church in 25th street, but no time was fixed intercourse with him after that? No. You refused then? Yes. Before the time when you had met this defendant did you ever have sexual intercourse with any other man? No. Before this first of June when you gave away to him did you ever have sexual intercourse with him? No. Have you asked him to marry you since? Yes on the second of September. Have you had conversations with him at all since that time? Yes, since he came home; he had went away. Whereabouts was he, if you know, did he ever tell you where he was? No, he did not tell me at the time he went away; there was a warrant for him and he stayed away. After he came back he told me he was in Boston; he told me that two weeks ago today. To the best of my belief he is back since the 25th or 26th of April; he went away on the 13th of October; I had the warrant.

Cross Examined. We were getting ready to be married just before I had the defendant arrested. I would like to be married by a priest; he sent me two letters from the Toms. He promised me the first time I seen him when he came back that he would marry me. I had known him a whole year before the 1st of June but never had connection with him. I was home alone that day. He came to the house about half past four. I was sitting in the dining room; the rest of the people were out. He wanted to have connection with me and I refused. He said then we had promised to get married, for me to allow him, and that nobody could tell when we were married. I said, "No, never until we got married at first." Then he said he would not mind to get married until the family would go to the country - they were about to go. He renewed his promise then. He said he was about to get married, and he never intended to have any ^{other} girl the first time he ever seen me. He made all faithful promises to me that he would. He said he would marry me. I said, "you might back out and leave me in a bad fix." He said, no, he would not; he stayed to six o'clock and he came with me to my uncle's, and he went to his boarding house. Up to that time he had made no improper proposal to me; he acted like a gentleman; we went out quite often together. Have you had any issue of that connection? Did you have a child? Yes, the child was born on the 18th of March of this year; the child was born dead. Did you ever tell the defendant you had a child? Yes.

testified. Minnie Leonard, sworn and examined, I am acquainted with the last witness; I have known Katie since she was a child, about twenty years ago. I know the defendant about three years. I became acquainted with him through Mrs. Bradley who lived next door to me on the same floor No. 410. I have seen the defendant in company with Miss Mooney several times; I think it was in November 1891 the first time they became acquainted. I often seen him in her company afterwards in my own rooms and in Mrs. Bradley's. Did you know anything about the alleged promise to marry between the two? The last time I heard about his marrying her was the last day of August. Did you ever hear him say anything about marriage? Yes, the last day of August or the 1st of September '92. He said, "I will be down tomorrow night." That was the first of September.

He said, they were going to go to church to get married. Katie told me they were going to a church in Twenty-fifth street; that was in his presence. He did not say anything more then. Did you ever have any conversation with him about this promise to marry since?

Yes. I think it was on the second or third of September I went down Nineteenth street; he was living on Ninth Avenue near Nineteenth street.

We met him sitting on a wagon - Katie and I. I said, "Good evening, Martin". He said, "Good evening". He got off the wagon and he walked as far as Ninth Avenue with us. I said, "Now Martin, you are the cause of Katie's ruination"; and he says, "Well, I don't know; it is her own fault." I said, "That aint the thing, Martin; you ought to go and marry her before you bring any disgrace on her family, because a thing like this has never happened in her family before." He said, "I do not know, I have not money enough to support a wife now." He stepped in a Ninth Avenue car. Four or five days I think it was after that we went down and got a warrant out for him and then he made his escape and went away. When did he disappear? It was in October, 1892. When did you see him next after that? I saw him passing my door. I think it was the second of May. Did you have any talk with him? No; he just passed by the door himself and two young ladies. I had no conversation with him till I saw him in the Truhs. Did you have any conversation with him there? Yes. He said it was Katie's fault to have him there; he was sorry for what he had done. I said, "Why didn't you do what is right?" He said, "it has gone as far as it can." He had a long conversation with Katie. I did not hear much of it. I heard him say he was going to do what was right by her. That is all I heard him say.

Cross Examined. When I saw him pass our door with the two ladies, I said to Katie, "there goes Martin; she followed him to the corner; he was arrested the next day.

Martin Mc Donough, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I have known Kate Mooney since November 1891. I heard her say on the stand that in June 1892 I had connection with her, that is not true. Did you ever have any connection with her? It was further off than that, it was about the 23^d of June 1892. Up to that time and at that time did you ever promise to marry her? I never promised to marry her; it was with my own free will and her free will. Was not marriage spoken of at all? There was nothing about marriage until I got in the City prison; that is when I gave in to marriage - never gave in before that. Who was it spoke in the prison about marriage? When I sent for her to the prison I asked her what she was going to do with me? She says, "I will keep you there till you consent to marry me." I says, "Where do you want to get married? She said, "Down in the City Hall." I said, "you can't do that till my trial comes off." She said, "yes, I can; I can withdraw the case and get married in the City Hall." I said, "If you do that, I am satisfied to do it for you." I have been satisfied up to this minute to do that. I promised to do it at that time, but never before that. Is it because you promised her before you were arrested or because you wanted to make reparation for the injury you done her? No, it was when I was compelled to. When I seen I was lost I gave in to all this. I am giving my evidence I have been before my priest yesterday and received communion this morning, and I tell you what he told me. according to the advice what me and her talked of in the City prison. Are you willing to marry her? Yes. I am willing to marry her on the conditions she spoke of there. I find it is different today.

Cross Examined: I am working for the Twenty Third Street Railroad Co. I am a stable man I guess I worked for them four years and a half. I was there until the 23rd of last Oct.

ORIGINAL

From the 23^d of last October until April of this year you were in Boston, were you not? Yes. I was working in the stables in Twenty Third Street until October. I was working there since I came to the country. I went to Boston to better myself. I came back to the same job and got it again. I first became acquainted with the complainant in Mr. Bradley's house. I never went with the girl no more than when I went to see her that evening four or five times after; it was from November 1891 to June 1892. I saw her about once a month in Mr. Bradley's house with her friends. I used to go to see my friend Mr. Bradley and she used to be in there along with some lady friends of hers. You don't know anything against her character? I could not tell you nothing about her. So far as you knew she was a girl of perfectly good character? I suppose she must be. Although she was a girl of perfectly good character, you say in the early part of June after you had known her for six months, although she was in the employ of a man whom you say was your warm personal friend, you still were willing to ruin that girl in that house? No, it was her own free will. I never promised to marry her; there was no such thing talked about until I got in the city prison. I did not know that the family were going away in August. I never promised to marry her in August. When Mr. Leonard says that you came there ^{on the last day of} the August and promised that you would come the next day to marry her she also is mistaken? Mr. Leonard never heard a conversation with me and her. Did you know at the time you went away in October that there was a warrant out for your arrest? I never knew anything about a warrant until I seen there was a warrant against me in Jefferson Market and I was tried. I was served with a summons in the Twenty Third stable by Kate Mooney and I appeared in Jefferson Market. I was not arrested, I appeared there myself. I never seduced her under promise of marriage. You are not very much attached to this girl? No. I am not. Why is it you are willing to marry? I gave in when it went so far as she got me locked up. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. The defendant was remanded for sentence.

0387
