the second floor and which was occupied by deponent and deponents Father & Mother as a Dwelling House were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcible breaking upon the shutter on the rear Window, then raising the Window - leading to said premises on the Night of the 9th day of March 1889, and the following property, feloniously taken, stolen and carried away, viz..

one pair of Pants containing a Knife and one Tobacco Box and one Box containing a pair of Eye glasses said property being in all of the value of about Six dollars the property of Jacob Mergenthaler deponent's Father and deponent further says, that she has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by John Williams and Andrew Tracy (both now here) for the reasons following, to-wit: That at the hour of about 1 o'clock a M. deponent was awakened by a noise in her bed room, and there saw said Williams in the room. That deponent made an alarm when said Williams got out of the window to a fire escape. Deponent is informed by officer John M. Cowley of the 13th Precinct Police that he heard an alarm coming from the above described premises, and that at that time he saw said defendants coming from the alleyway leading to the rear of said premises and that he then and there arrested said Williams, and that said Tracy run away and that said Tracy was subsequently arrested and when searched the above described knife

0441

STATE OF NEW YORK, CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, ss.:

Police Court—Second District.

Now in House of Detention in default of $400. of No. 114 Sixth Avenue street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 7th day of March 1891, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away from the person of deponent, by force and violence, and against the will of deponent, the following property, viz:

Gold and lawful money of the issue of the United States Government consisting of silver silver coins of various denominations and values amounting in all to the sum of Twenty Five Cents, and of the value of Twenty Five Cents the property of Deponent Dollars.

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away, by force and violence, and against his will, by

John Knight and Henry Cilmore (both now here) for the reasons following, to wit: That about the hour of 12 o'clock, noon, of said day deponent and said Knight and said Cilmore were in a liquor saloon kept by one John Aldevrandi at premises No. 60 Thompson Street, and that while deponent was sitting on a bench in said saloon said Knight and Cilmore came and sat along side of deponent, one on each side, and that said Knight and Cilmore did push and crowd deponent so much that he, deponent, arose from said bench and started to go out of said saloon and when defendant had fallen a few steps from said bench said Wright caught defendant by both arms, and held them by force and violence and against the resistance of defendant, behind defendant's back, and that while said Wright so held defendant, arm said Gilmore put his hand in defendant's left side pocket, which said vest was then and there worn on the person of defendant, and took therefrom the money therein before described.

Defendant further says that immediately after being so held as aforesaid said Wright and Gilmore left said saloon and that defendant then went in search of an officer and that defendant in company with officer James Hym found said Wright and said Gilmore in said Alrovandi's saloon about twenty minutes after said time.
