Upon investigation, I find deft is character good. She was entirely agree with complainant for not paying her for work done, & she took the clothing & pawned it for the purpose of paying herself. She then sent the pawn tickets to complainant. There is no evidence that she took the watch or chain. Moreover, the complainant has gone to live in Europe, according to information I received that defendant plea of guilty be accepted, & that sentence be suspended.

Mrs Bennett the Grand-mother of Blanche Davenport informs me that Agnes Dugan would not appear against the defendant if they would give her the sum of one hundred dollars ($100), paying her for clothing & the loss of time that the defendant has ~~lost~~ caused. I have worked in the same place where the women have been engaged. I do not believe that Agnes Dugan's loss is as great as she represents and I do not believe what she states. She has declared before witnesses that it was malice and revenge & she would send the defendant up for the full extent of the law, & that if God Almighty would come down & ask her to forgive the defendant she would not; yet she has been meeting the aged Grandmother for the small sum of one hungrant the defendant liberty.

 How people are very poor, she herself is an industrious hard working girl who has had much sorrow. The defendant claims to have done sewing to the amount of $4.50, & Agnes Dugan refused to pay her. She was hungry & pawned the clothing for $4.50.

The People
 Minnie Decker } Court of General Sessions. Part I vs. } Before Recorder Smyth. Sept. 19. 1888.

Indictment for grand larceny in second degree Alfred De Marks. sworn and examined I am in the wine business. I saw the defendant on the 18th of August of this year. I was going home and she stopped me about Twenty Second St and Third Avenue; she held me by the sleeve and asked me where I was going.
 I said I was going home. she said, "you had better go along with me." I said, "No, I am going home." She said, "if you come along with me, I will give you the best time you ever had. I will take you to a place where I have been before.
 I insisted upon it I did not want to go, but she caught hold of me by the sleeve, I could not get rid of her without using strength, which I did not want to do. Finally I got in a car and she jumped in the car with me. I wanted to get off at Seventeenth St. where I live; she held me in the car with her pretences. I do not pretend to be perfect; she got me down as far as Fourth St. and dragged me into a hotel, which I had never been in before; when I got into the hotel she said I must register. I did not want to register. She said, "Don't be afraid of any thing, I have been here before, all the gentlemen do that, just John Smith." I said, "This is not right." she said, "that is no harm, no one will see that under the influence of the woman I did so.

 Then we were showed up stairs by the servant.
 I was following her, and while we were going up stairs the Defendant stopped on the stairs to speak to another woman that she must have been acquainted with. We arrived at the room and when I got inside she wanted money.
 I gave her three dollars. Then she sat down on the floor to try to take her boots off, and I turned around to the window. I took my clothes off and put my coat upon a nail and I laid the shirt and the tie in which was the pin on the chair and she sat down by the chair.
 I turned round to make water; then she went out under pretence of going to the water closet; she remained about ten minutes and she came up with a glass in her hand, she went out and had a drink; she wanted me to remain on the side of the bed. I said, No, miss, I am going away. Then I went to dress myself again, to get my tie and collar the pin was gone; the door was bolted, and no one was there but her and me. I said, "What have you done with the pin?" A little while before that she was admiring it. She said, "What are you talking about?" and she commenced using the most vulgar language that I ever heard

When I heard that kind of language, of course I did not want to fight with the woman. I went down stairs and asked the advice of the proprietor of the house; he sent the servant up and begged her to come down. She refused to come down, and then he advised me to go to the corner of the street and complain to a policeman. I told my story to the officer and he and the servant of the house came up stairs with me and compelled this woman to open the door. Then we got in we searched for the pin; they searched the room but not her. Then I laid my neck tie on the chair there was a diamond pin in it; it belonged to me and was worth $125. I first missed it when I went to put my shirt on. This was about three o'clock in the morning. Cross Examined. I reside in Seventeenth St.; my residence is in Baltimore. I do not live permanently in New York. I have my samples in Seventeenth St. It was after one o'clock when I first met this woman. I did not swear before Justice Duffy that the pin was worth $175 and did not testify before the grand jury that it was worth $150. I had two watches in my possession that night. I did not pay her fare on the car; she paid her own fare and came and sat down beside me. I don't know the name of the hotel she brought me to; the policeman will tell you the name of it. I put John Smith or something on the Register by her advice. I paid one dollar for the room. I had nothing to drink in the room with her; she went down stairs and got a drink. The room was very small. The chair was only about a foot from the bed. I bought the pin in Paris of Monsieur De Mory and paid $1.25 for it. I sat on the bed waiting for her to return and when she returned she did what she did not ^{do} in the water closet. I did not go to bed ^{with} her at all and did not attempt to have intercourse with her. When I missed my pin I said, if you return my property I will go and will not say anything. I am not married. I gave her three dollars with the intention of remaining with her. I did not afterwards demand the money.

Peter Reilly, sworn and examined. I am a police officer and arrested the defendant on the 18th of August at 395 Berrery corner of Sixth St. a hotel. The complainant came across the street and had some conversation with me and I went back with him to the hotel. I stopped first at the office and made some enquiry and went up stairs to room 32; the prisoner was inside; the door was shut; the porter knocked at the door and said if she did not open it he would burst it in; she opened the door and came out. I searched the room but nothing, I found nothing; she was searched in the station house by a woman lodger, but nothing was found on her. The complainant was a respectable looking man. Cross Examined. I told her to give up the pin if she had it and not have any further trouble; she told me she had no pin. I took her to the station house she was in my custody all the way and nobody else was with her; there was no person got near her to my knowledge; she could have dropped it; you cannot properly search a woman. I don't know whether she dropped it or not.

Minnie Decker, sworn and examined in her own behalf testified. I live 131 1/2 Allen St. and am 27 years old. I heard the complainant's statement of the occurrences between us on the night in question. On that night I was under the influence of drink at home and left the house to get more drink and got drink in Tenth St. and from there went to Twentieth St. and Third Ave. I did not get anything to drink there, it was closed, and I thought to myself I would take the car and go home. I turned down to walk towards the car, and the complainant crossed over from the east to the west of Third Avenue in Twentieth St. and followed me down half a block. He said, "You are out very late," I did not answer him; he followed me again and said, "Want you have something to drink? I spoke to him, and he and I walked to Seventeenth St. and Third ave. We went to a place which was open; the man came to the door and said, "we do not allow ladies here, it is too late." Then he said to me, "Will you come over to Twenty Fourth St. and Third Ave; we will get all the drink we want." I said, "No, it is too far from home, I am going to take a car home." He then asked me to go along with him to Sixth St. that he knew a hotel in Sixth St. I said, "yes, I know where that is, I have been there some years ago." We went in the car and sat there together and he paid my fare. We got out at Sixth St. and went in the office I say, "Where is the drink you are going to give me?" He said, "Never mind, we will go up stairs, we can get all the drink we want." I went up stairs with him and we went to room 32; he handed me two dollars and said, "I have not got any car far to go home, I would like to have some change." I said, I will go down stairs and get a drink. I laid my hat and gloves on the bed; the bed was here, the chair and the nails were over there (showing). It was a long room. I got one drink of whiskey and paid fifteen cents for it and gave him ten cents and the other whiskey made me more intoxicated than I had been before. I sat down on the bed and laid on the pillow. I did not sit on the floor to take my shoes off. This man took off all his clothes with the exception of his undershirt; he got in bed, he turned over, and he got fooling around me. I said, "No, I am going to get up and go home." He said, "I want my money back." I said, "You gave it to me, it is not such a very large amount anyway." He kept fooling around me and I jumped up and sat on the side of the bed. He got up and was swearing at me. Then I went down stairs he did not have a stitch of clothes on him. He went to the looking glass to fix his tie, I will not express the word he used, and going out he said, "I will get even with you." I never saw any one yet that would do that that I did not get even with. I began to unbutton my waist slowly. I got sick from the effects of the drink. A knock came to the door and a man came to the door and said, "You had better go down stairs, the man who was up stairs will have you."

arrested. ~~I left. I had not done~~ I laughed. I have not done anything. About five minutes after the policeman arrested me and said, "you had better give back that pin." I said, "What pin? I have not seen any pin." The complainant said, "Yes, you took my pin." I said, I am perfectly willing to be searched, I did not see any pin." The officer said, "Give it up." I said, "It is impossible to give up what I have not got." He searched the room thoroughly, even the window, and took out the pillows and mattresses. I said, "This is how you get even;" it sobered me up. I was taken to the station house and my clothes taken off and searched thoroughly. There was no pin found because there was not any taken. He said to the sergeant at the desk that the pin was valued at two hundred and fifty pounds and he got it down to one hundred and seventy five in Judge Duff's Court. I was drinking at this time, but I knew everything that happened. The Justice asked the complainant what he carried two watches for, and he said he was a jeweler. I was arrested once for drinking; the complainant attempted to take liberties with me but I would not let him. I was in the Florence Mission two months and three weeks, and from there I went home to my husband. I had retired that night with my husband. I got up and went into the street between eleven and twelve to get a drink. Had been to this hotel two years ago two or three times. I never followed the business of prostitution in this city. Charles N. Brittenden room. I am the founder of the Florence Mission; the defendant remained in the Mission two or three months and while there her conduct was good; she came there voluntarily; it is a place for fallen women; her husband called at the Mission.

Officer Reilly was recalled and testified that he had seen the defendant at all hours of the night go to that hotel, that he had seen her go into assignation houses in Eleventh street with different men.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Jane Doe (otherwise called Madam Florence)

(Sec. 322, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL-FAME, committed as follows:

The said

Jane Doe

late of the 20th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twenty-seventh day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and on divers other days and times, as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill-fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Jane Doe (otherwise called Madam Florence)

(Section 325, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the twenty-seventh day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty- Eight, and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep and maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in her said house, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT—

Jane Doe (otherwise called Madam Florence) (Section 822 of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Engelbert Doller

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

of the CRIME OF GRAND LARCENY IN THE second DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the first day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, one watch of the value of eighteen dollars, one ring of the value of thirty dollars, two earrings of the value of four dollars and fifty cents each, and a quantity of plated silverware a more particular description whereof is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown of the value of one dollar and fifty cents of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Anton Seifer then and there being found, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

AND THE GRAND JURY AFORESAID, by this indictment, further accuse the said

of the CRIME OF CRIMINALLY RECEIVING STOLEN PROPERTY committed as follows:

The said,

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms,

one watch of the value of eighteen dollars, one ring of the value of thirty dollars, two earrings of the value of four dollars and fifty cents each, and a quantity of plated silverware, a more particular description whereof is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, of the value of one dollar and fifty cents of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Antow Seifert

by a certain person or persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, then lately before feloniously stolen, taken and carried away from the said

Antow Seifert

unlawfully and unjustly, did feloniously receive and have; the said

then and there well knowing the said goods, chattels and personal property to have been feloniously stolen, taken and carried away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

JOHN R. FELLOWS,

District Attorney.
