-----x

City and County of New-York, SS.:

James Mc'Guire, being duly sworn, deposes and says: I am a Detective Sergeant attached to the Detective Bureau of the Police Department of said City and County. I know the said Rudolph Lewis, named in the accompanying application and certified copies of the indictment. The said Rudolph Lewis is a fugitive from justice, and is now confined in the House of Correction in the City of Boston, State of Massachusetts, under the name of Rudolph Miller, alias Rubin. I know the person so confined to be the Rudolph Lewis named in the accompanying certified copies of the indictment from the fact that previous to the finding of the above mentioned indictment I personally knew the said Rudolph Lewis therein named, and on the 16th day of January, 1885, being then in the City of Boston, I visited said House of Correction and there saw and spoke with the person so confined, who, in course of conversation, stated to me that he was the same person mentioned in the aforesaid indictment, and I myself then and there recognized said Rudolph Miller, alias Rubin, confined as aforesaid, as the person named in said indictment as Rudolph Lewis.
