and says that on Sunday the 25th day of November 1883 deponent visited the liquor store number 36 Grand Street kept by one Con Eagan and there saw the said place open and saw one Edward Brown, who is a deponent believes the bartender employed by said Eagan sell to various persons, liquor and saw said Brown receive money in payment therefor. That deponent was in said place on said day for two hours and during said time persons were coming into and going out of said place through the side door, and people were drinking liquor in said place.

That said place as deponent is informed is a duly licensed place for the sale of various liquors, and was on said day kept open by said Eagan and Brown in violation of the Excise Law.
