David Rinaldo

did then and there designedly receive and obtain the said Hats

of the said

Jacob Kottick

of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said

by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said

of the same.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said David Rinaldo
 Was not a rich man and was not wholly solvent.
 And whereas in truth and in fact the said David Rinaldo was then and there wholly insolvent and without means and there were large liabilities outstanding against him and whereas in truth and in fact the said Isidor Carous was not indebted to him the said David Rinaldo in any sum whatever and there was not due to him the said David Rinaldo from the said Isidor Carous any sum of money whatever. And the said Isidor Carous was not paying him the said David Rinaldo any interest whatever And whereas in truth and in fact the said David Rinaldo had not procured from the Legislature of the state of New Jersey a charter for a loan and trust company nor was there then and there any charter for a loan and trust company to be organized by the said David Rinaldo in the City of Jersey aforesaid

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said David Rinaldo to the said Jacob Kottick was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit. on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth the said David Rinaldo well knew the said pretences and representations so by him made as aforesaid to the said Jacob Kottick to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the <sup>Said</sup> Jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, that the said David Rinaldo by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly, did receive and obtain from the said Jacob Kottick one hundred dozen hats of the value of two dollars each dozen

of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property, and effects of the said Jacob Kottick

with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud him of the same, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

~~DANIEL G. ROBINSON,~~

~~BENJ. H. PHILLIPS,~~

District Attorney.

City and County of New York as:

Jacob Kottick being duly sworn says that his place of business is at No 98 Avenue ~~Street~~ in the City of New York and conducts the Wholesale business in hats and caps, that on or about the 26th day of July 1881 at No 4911 Broadway in the City of New York where deponent formerly conducted said business at said last place, David Rinaldo a resident of Jersey City and doing business at said place then in the State of New Jersey, ordered and purchased a lot of goods consisting of hats from deponent to the amount of One thousand Dollars and before said delivery and sale by deponent to said Rinaldo the said David Rinaldo with intent to deceive and defraud deponent falsely and fraudulently represented to deponent that his father in law Isidore Aaron doing business in the City of New York as a pawnbroker was largely indebted to said Rinaldo.

and that at the present time, <sup>at said last date,</sup> said Rinaldo could not obtain any money from said Isidore Aaron as said Aaron had invested the money due to said Rinaldo in said Aaron's business and said Rinaldo would have to wait until said Aaron had his yearly sales before any money could arise on said stock pledged with Aaron. Depoent further says that said Rinaldo, at the same time and place ~~falsely~~ with intent to deceive and defraud and falsely and fraudulently represented, that he had a Charter given to him by the Legislature of Jersey to establish and open a Loan and Trust Company and the money which his father in law Isidore Aaron owed said Rinaldo he would invest in said Trust Company, depoent further says that at the same time and place the said Rinaldo with intent to deceive and defraud and falsely and fraudulently represented that he was making. Depoent further says relying on said representation was thereby induced to sell and deliver to said Rinaldo the goods designated in the bills hereunto annexed commencing from about August 10th 1881 and terminating August 27th 1881 of the value of about one thousand dollars.

deponent further says that the said representations were false in that said José Antonio the father in law of said David Rinaldo was not indebted to said Rinaldo at any time or times in any sum whatsoever on the contrary said Rinaldo was largely indebted to said Antonio as will more fully appear by an exemplified copy of a Mortgage Deed annexed and which forms part of this Affidavit.

deponent further says that said Rinaldo did not obtain any Charter from the Legislature at Jersey to carry on a Loan & Trust Company and deponent further says that said Rinaldo was largely indebted to his Creditors in the City of New York viz and was insolvent at the time of said sale and delivery, and was heavily indebted to the following persons viz. Frank Singer & Company, Remond & Sons, Wial & Co, Mess Lippman, Mess Buions, John J. Adams, Jos. L. Adams, and various other Creditors amounting upwards of Fifteen thousand Dollars as deponent is informed by said Creditors above specified in said Account, and was then known by the said David Rinaldo to be so. deponent further says that said Rinaldo has paid no part of the value of said goods delivered to him.
