To Whom It May Concern: Aug. 15, 1890:

We hereby withdraw our protest entered against the License of Owen Hogan of #33 Downing St. License #4005, and all claims against said License.

WHEREAS, I Owen McCaul am the holder and owner of a certain liquor license granted by the Board of Excise of the City of New York on the 7th day of December 1895, No. 4005, upon premises No. 33 Downing in the City of New York, which said license was granted under and by virtue of Chapter 401 of the Laws of 1892, known as the Excise Law, and the Acts amendatory thereof,

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of one dollar and other good and valuable considerations to me paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, I do hereby sell, assign, transfer and set over unto Joseph Murray of Newyork City his executors, administrators or assigns, said license, together with all money due and to become due thereunder, and all rebates to which I am entitled on said license, and all claims or demands of every kind for the recovery of any part of the license fee paid therefor under and pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 112 of the Laws of 1896, known as the "Liquor Tax Law."

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD, with all benefits, profits and advantages thereof, unto the said Joseph Murray his executors, administrators and assigns, in as full and beneficial manner as I, by virtue of the said license, may or might have if this assignment had not been made; and I hereby make, constitute and appoint the above named assignee my true and lawful attorney irrevocably, to demand, sue for, collect and receive in my name or otherwise, but at the said assignee's own proper cost and expense, any and all moneys which are due or shall hereafter become due from the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York upon the said license, or by reason of the termination or surrender thereof, and to execute and deliver any quittance, receipt, satisfaction of judgment or other document which may be good and sufficient, or requisite or proper for that purpose.

And I, as an inducement for the payment of the consideration hereinbefore referred to, hereby state, represent and warrant that I am the sole and exclusive owner of the said license and all rights and claims accruing thereunder, and that neither the said license nor the claim hereby assigned has been previously assigned, hypothecated, or in any wise encumbered.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 14th day of August 1896.

WITNESS, Aug. Bruns
