City and County of New York, ss.

Frank G. Speck of No. 75 Cotton Exchange Street, aged 38 years, occupation General Commission Merchant being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 3 day of July 1893 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

Good and Lawful money of the United States amounting to Six hundred and two 000 Dollars the property of Rembrandt Seidenberg & Co of which firm deponent is a co partner and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Ernest J. Green now here for the following reasons— The defendant was in the employ of said firm as Cashier— deponent discovered that a check which was drawn on said date by said firm on The Corn Exchange Bank to the order of George T. Dixon for the said amount— and which was cashed by said bank and charged against the account of said firm in said Bank was missing— deponent is informed by George T. Dixon of the Cotton Exchange that he did not receive said check— and further says that he had no account against said firm on said date for said amount of money— ~~Dep~~ The defendant admitted
