District Police Court.

Affidavit—Larceny.

CITY AND COUNTY } ss
OF NEW YORK,

Annie Kamps 27. Married

of No. 273 Hudson Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 9th day of December 1881 at the above premises City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, and from a back room in the above premises the following property, viz:

~~yellow paper collar~~
 One box containing forty dollars good and lawful money and of the value of forty dollars

the property of Dependent's husband Henry Kamps

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Frank Meyers (now here) for the reason that deponent is informed by Lorraine Van Alstyne that she saw said Meyers enter the store of deponent and leave the building by the hall door and that said Meyers then had in his possession a collar box the same as described above by deponent.

The People vs. James Mooney { Court of General Sessions, Part 7
 Before Recorder Smythe, Jan 3, 1882
 Indictment for felonious assault and battery Daniel Curtin, sworn and examined. I live 106 Cherry St; on the night of Sunday the 11th of Dec., the prisoner in company with a companion entered my saloon and asked for a bottle of ginger ale and a cigar. I waited upon them and gave them; he tendered a two dollar bill to me in payment. I placed the change $1.90 on the bar before him.
 Then he said to me, you beat me out of ten cents and went out, "I just came in," he said, "to see if you would beat me again." I said, "you are mistaken, I would rather give you ten cents than beat you out of ten cents." He says, "I bet you a dollar I could prove it." I says, "Place the dollar in your pocket, you can prove nothing." With that he turned around and he says to me "you know me and I know you." I says, "I don't know you." he says to me again, "If you were in the outside of the bar you would not say that to me." I says, "It is twelve o'clock, I am going to shut up; please leave." I turned around and took off my bar coat and hung it on a peg behind me. As I turned round he fired; the shot striking me here in the throat, and then he made the remark, "Stand where you are or I will Kill you." With that he took a second thought and turned about and flew through the side door and escaped. The ball went down my throat and still remains there. I saw the pistol in the prisoner's hand; he did not fire more than once. Cross Examined. I have told you all that occurred that night. I have not the slightest idea how often I have been arrested. I have never been convicted. I have never been charged with larceny. My saloon has never been raided as a disorderly house. I have never been in any Court but a police Court. It is not a fact that in 1876 I was in State prison. I never was there in my life, nor was I ever in the penitentiary. It was between the hours of eleven and twelve o'clock Sunday evening the prisoner came into the saloon with a girl. An old gentleman named James M. Carr was in the saloon; he is in Court. The prisoner and I had no words about some charge; the conversation was about a previous time. It is not a fact that after I had given him change he said there was 15 cents short. I did not put my hand under the bar when I handed him the money and I was not in the act of drawing a pistol and did not have it up when he shot. There was no pistol there only the one that was in his hand. I saw the prisoner the following Tuesday evening corner of Grand and Mulberry St. That was two blocks away from my place. I was walking by and he rushed towards me. That is the night I shot him. I had no conversation with Capt. Kiehl that Tuesday night in the station house. Nobody arrested me. I went to the station house myself. I went to the station house that Sunday night and made a charge. I did not see Morne between the Sunday and the Tuesday night. I did not say to the Sergeant in charge that I had no charge to make. It is a fact that there is a counter charge pending for shooting this man and I am under bail. Just as I was hanging the coat up on the wall he fired; there was no provocation whatever. I had a doctor attending me, I went home till last Monday sick; he tried to extract the ball, but he could not find it. I don't know what kind of a pistol it was.

0477

0478

0479

James H. Carr sworn. I was present in Moorey's bar room at the time this transaction took place. The prisoner came in and tendered a two dollar bill and called for a drink and a cigar. They had a dispute which amounted simply to this that he (the prisoner) supposed Mr. Curtin cheated him out of ten cents. Curtin said he did not do anything of the kind, that he was not in the habit of cheating any one, that he gave him the change correctly. The prisoner then said he had been there on another occasion and he tried to cheat him, and he came on this occasion to see if he would not cheat him again. Curtin gave him $1.90 being the correct change, allowing five cents for the drink and five cents for the cigar. Curtin said, "It is now time to shut up." He (Curtin) turned around, took his coat, and hung it on a peg, and when he turned around the prisoner shot him in the neck. I did not see the pistol, but I heard the report and saw the flash. I was about eight yards from the prisoner, in the back part, the end of the saloon. Cross Examined. I live with Mr. Curtin at No. 44

0480

Elizabeth st., the same building where the saloon is. I lived next door for two years. I have been living with Mr. Curtin nine months we are both friends. I have known him two years. I am a sailor. The last ship I sailed on was the Antwerp three years ago. I have a small annuity from my brother. My occupation is not to stay around No 91 Elizabeth st. from morning till night. I have not spoken to Mr. Curtin about this case or about the shooting. I knew that the case was on the calendar today, but I do not know who told me. I was at the end of the saloon and the prisoner stood at the end of the bar; the saloon is about thirty six feet deep. There is a screen about six yards from the door. There were four people in the saloon at the time of the shooting. The prisoner, I, the woman and Mr. Curtin. The prisoner put down a two dollar bill to pay for ten cents worth of drink and he got $1.90, and he then disputed about it, and he told Curtin that he was "beat out of some money" by him on a previous occasion. Curtin said he never beat anybody out of anything. Mr. Curtin did not put his hand under the bar, he had not an opportunity of doing it, he had not time to do anything. I am not acquainted behind the bar. I never saw a pistol in the back of the bar. I never took the liberty of going behind the bar. I am but a lodger there. I board with Mr. Curtin and pay four dollars a week for my board.

James Mooney, sworn and examined in his own defence. I am 24 years old and was born in the City of New York. I was arrested and after my discharge from prison (I am a paper hanger by trade) I went around canvassing trying to put up paper. I was arrested with another for petty larceny and sent to the penitentiary. On the 11th of Dec., I went into this liquor store and asked for a drink; he did not give me ginger ale; he gave me a cigar, and the girl who was with me took a glass of lager. I handed him a two dollar bill; he took it and gave me $1.70 change. I asked him for more change; he counted it over and handed me five cents more which made $1.75. I refused to take it. I shoved it to the bar to him; he says, "Take it, that is all you will get," and he shoved it back. I knew if I did not take it he might take it all.

and I took it in my hand and put it in my pocket. He had some wads across the bar. I asked him for fifteen cents; he told me he would make me get out. He looked one side of the door and down the other end of the place; he came up and walked behind the counter. There is a room at the end of the counter; he went in there. I said, "I will go out," I backed up against the screen; he walked into the room and lifted something; he put it in front of me, and I pulled the trigger of my pistol. I did not fire my pistol till his pistol was up, it was in the dark, I would not have seen the pistol only he put it out and it shined. I fired my pistol. I walked out of the door, I did not run. I walked out on the sidewalk. I went away, I did not go out of the city as it was reported. Two days afterward I saw Curtin and that time he shot me. I made a charge before Judge Byrby. Cross Examined. The woman I had with me in the saloon is not here. I went in there about a quarter to twelve. I have been previously in prison for larceny. I am certain he drew a pistol at me. I saw it in his hand. By Mr. McKean. Q You have been in the penitentiary? Yes sir. Have you ever been in any place for anything else?

0483

No sir, never was in the State prison. How long ago is that? That is the 23<sup>d</sup> of October I came home. How long were you there? I was there five months. Did you ever have an affair with a man where you put a knife into him? No sir, never used a knife or a pistol before in my life. What did you carry a pistol for? It was an old rusty pistol, it was loaded when I got it, I found it in an alleyway. I have got witnesses to prove it.
James Keely sworn and examined. I am Captain of the Municipal Police attached to the fourteenth precinct, No. 91 Elizabeth Street is in that precinct. I know the reputation of the premises. Cross Examined. What did the prisoner say about that charge? I understood him to say several times that it was $1.15 he received out of the two dollar bill; he said that several times to me. You know Mr. Curtin pretty well don't you? Never spoke to him before the day that I arrested him.
Do you know what his reputation is?
(Objected to) I have known thousands of people.
The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of an assault with a dangerous weapon with intent to do bodily harm. The prisoner was remanded for sentence.
