He has the reputation divided in the industry as a $250,000 - I received from his landlady for money & obtained upon a loan of $250,000 - I received when he was paid his wages to receive the property & return it to the owner.

We the jurors could be established on the trial a conviction would be impossible as defendant had no intention of permanently depriving the owner of his property.

I recommend under the circumstances that defendant be indicted on his property recovery and for just business and for.

City and County of New York, ss:

Louis Black

of No. 111 West 21st Street, aged 31 years, occupation Hotel Keeper being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 7 day of Dec 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the night-time, the following property, viz:

Six dozen each of Knives, forks, tea and table spoons - silver plated all together of the value of Seventy five dollars the property of Deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by George Fidler and Alfonso Traval (both now here who were acting in concert, one with the other) for the reason that on said the above described property was in deponent's premises and deponent missed them on the said date. Deponent is informed by Officer Patrick Crecan of the 6th Precinct that he arrested the defendant Fidler in a saloon at 51 Bayard Street and that the said Fidler admitted to the said Crecan in the presence of the Officer Mitchell that he the said said Fidler in company with the said Traval did take steal and carry away the said property. The said Crecan also informs the deponent that he found a portion of the stolen property in the said saloon at 51 Bayard Street and that the said Fidler admitted to him Crecan in the presence of Officer Mitchell of the 6th Precinct that
