For the People —

— a Defence —

— EW. Moffs.

Cross Examination — by — EW. Moffs

I am 19 years old and reside with D. Benn at 94 St. As 3rd Avenue. That is my signature to this affidavit which was read to me before I signed it and I knew the contents of it 0137

I swear in that I live at 1439 Lexington Avenue. Dr. Brown lives on 94th Street between 3rd & Lexington Avenue & that is where I lived at the time of this occurrence. I said I lived at 94th Street and that is what I said when this affidavit was made. It was in the entry of 1439 Lexington Avenue where this assault was committed. I was never married and have lived in this City four months and with Dr. Brown five weeks. I came to this Country from Limerick, Ireland, where I was born. On the evening of the 10th of January I was at my aunt's, Corner 102nd St. and Lexington Avenue. It was after 10 P.M. when I left the doctor's house. It was about 10.30 when I got to my aunt's and I remained there about an hour and left there about 11.30 to go home. I went down to 3rd Avenue, through 102nd Street to 3rd Avenue and on the Corner of 102nd Street & 3rd Avenue I met him and he knocked against me and asked me to have a drink and I said I would. He was under the influence of liquor but not staggering. I never saw him before. I went with him into a beer shop six or seven blocks from where I met him. I walked alongside of him, he didn't have my arm. I sat in a liquor store with him and he sat alongside of me. We both had whiskey.

0138

I didn't drink anything before I met him. We remained in the store 15 or 20 minutes and we had two or three whiskeys there. I didn't feel the effects of it. I was not just as sober when I came out as I was when I went in there. I proposed going home & the defendant said he would see me home and I said not for him to do so.
It was near 12; midnight when we left the store. After we got out of the store we went to 94th Street. When we got to the house we went in the vestibule. I put my key after me. He was drunk. In the vesti-0139

He knocked me down, between the two doors. There was no light there. I opened the outside door with a key. He knocked me down and I fell on my back and he got on top of me and lifted my clothes. I screamed and was crying for help and he put his hand on my private parts. Then he let me go and I stopped there until the policeman came there. He laid me on my back and laid on me about five minutes. I remained down when he knocked me down - I tried to get up. After he laid on me he pulled up my clothes and got the best of me. Then I screamed 4 or 5 times. I had no drawers on at all. I was trying to open the inside door when he knocked me down. I scratched his face and tried to throw him off me. His hands were down on me and my two hands were over because he was on me. Both his arms were around my body & his chest was on me. My limbs were not free - I kicked him in the feet. This happened in 1434 Lexington Avenue in Dr Brown's residence. Dr Brown lives on 94 St. the first house from the corner and whatever the defendant did to me took place in Dr Brown's house. Maybe I gave the wrong number. The policeman came there when I screamed the second time & he struck a match and arrested both of us & locked us both up. I came here to Court the next morning and made this charge. Something was said in the Station House about sending for a physician to examine me, and I ~~didn't~~ declined to be examined. I was a virgin before this assault and he seduced me. I examined washed the underclothing I had on that night, in the House of Detention - they were red stains on them. I didn't tell anybody how I got these stains on my clothes.

Dr. Brown lives on Lexington Avenue, between 93rd and 94th Streets and his assault took place in his vestibule. I didn't mean to say it was in 94th Street.

2 Carrey Miller, a police officer of the Sanitary Squad being sworn says. a Crab-Grass - by - cut clover

I was on the corner of 93rd St & Lexington Av.
This night & I heard a scream and heard a second outcry & I went up Lexington Avenue & located it in the vestibule of 94th Lexington Avenue three doors from 93rd St between 93rd and 94th Streets. I lit a match & opened the door & found the defendant & his complainant in there - in the vestibule the girl was on the floor and the defendant was on top of her. The girls legs were stretched towards the north side of the vestibule. Pucley was next to the inside door and straight and the one near me, was drawn up & her head was in the direction of the Avenue. The defendant got up and buttoned his pants. The girl had no drawers on. I asked the defendant what kind of a performance this was. The girl didn't say anything more. He said it was all right, that he knew her. I asked him what the blood was doing on his face. He said it was not blood & I told him his face was covered with blood. I asked the girl if she lived there & she made no reply. I then told him I would arrest him. I told him to take hold of the girl to see if we could get her on her feet & she didn't seem to have the use of her limbs. Finally we got her up but couldn't get her to stand and I let her sit down again and I took the defendant to the Avenue and got assistance. I didn't smell her breath - she seemed to be ||| stupor as if she had been drinking and didn't appear to realize what I said or where she lived. She vomited when she sat down & I didn't smell any liquor then. She did it then at the Station House saying the defendant had seduced her. I judged the defendant was drunk & that she also had been drinking too. He told me he had given her whiskey & that that was what was the matter with her. I made the charge of intoxication on a few that I have already & he told me he gave her whiskey and she couldn't give any account of herself. The next morning was the first time she told me he had assaulted her.

0142

0143

There was some blood on the vestibule ||| floor where their heads were. He told me he gave her whiskey to drink and had con||| nection with her and he didn't deny it. The blood was in the vicinity of where their heads were & his face was bleeding.

Nelson Karabon, a Sergeant of the Police, attached to the 230 Precinct being sworn testified as follows:

I am 36 years of age. These two people were brought to the Station House at 1.25 AM, on January 10th 1886 by the Officer and he made a complaint of disorderly conduct against the man & intoxication against the woman & in their presence explained the circumstances under which he found both of them.

Corp Exam - by - ev. edofs

I was at the desk when they were brought in the Station-house and I took the complainant to be under the influence of liquor at the time. The defendant had also been drinking & had blood on him. The woman was only in a condition to say much. She was retching and vomiting and telegraphed for the police surgeon at 1.45 AM. & he came to examine her as to whether she had been outraged - as to her condition, she said she didn't want to be examined, she told that to the surgeon. She said she had been outraged. She didn't tell the physician what occurred to her. He told her she had been exposed to the cold and had drank something.

0145

Mr. Mayo moved for the discharge of the defendant on the testimony offered by the People.

 22nd of last December I had a watch and chain which was fastened to my vest; they were worth forty dollars. I saw the defendant that day. I was at the corner of Broome street and the Bowery and spent a little while in looking in the window and the defendant was standing in front of me. I felt a pull on my vest pocket. I looked down and saw the watch in both the hands of the defendant. I caught him by the coat and said, "you stole my watch and chain." He said, "Don't cry, here is your watch and chain back." A detective officer arrested him and fetched him to the Eldridge street station house. The watch was hooked to my vest at the time I saw it in the defendant's hand; he did not get the chain out of my vest. Cross Examined: This was at three o'clock. I just came from the German bank. There was a crowd in front of the window on the right side. There was only the defendant and me standing together - the right side was crowded.
 The defendant was looking in the window and 0182

I was behind him. I am sure he was standing facing the window. I was not excited at the time.

John Kenny sworn and examined, testified. I am a Policeman attached to the Tenth precinct in this city and I arrested the defendant on the 22nd of December last; he was brought to the station house by the complainant about 3.15; the complainant charged him with taking his watch. Did you have any conversation with the defendant? No, only just took him to Court. Do you know anything more about it? No sir. Did you not ask him whether he attempted to steal this man's watch and chain? No, I did not. Was there any other officer in the case? No sir.

The case for the Defence.

Thomas M. Evey, sworn and examined testified. How old are you? Eighteen years old. Were you born in this city? Yes sir. Where did you reside prior to your arrest? No 248 Mott Street with my mother and father. I was never arrested before. I worked for Meyer Brothers 222 Grand St. dealers in metal buttons. I worked for them three years. Come to this day and state how you came to be in the Brewery and whether you attempted to steal this man's watch and chain? I was just after leaving my house I went into the barber's to get my face shaved, and coming through Broome street to the Bury I saw a big crowd at the windows. I walked over I was not there two seconds and did not see anything that was in the window before the complainant grabbed hold of me and said to me, "My watch," and I turned around, and he called another gentleman with a big brown overcoat and he came over and took me to the station house.

Did you have your hands on this man's watch and chain? No sir, I had my hands in my pockets. I am sure of that.

Cross examined. I was not working that day I was going over to Brooklyn to get some work in a grocery store. I was working three or four days before I was arrested. I do not think my father or mother are here, they knew I was arrested. The store at which the crowd was gathered where I went over was a big jewelry store. When this man took hold of you what made you say to him, "There is your watch back, I don't want it?" I never used those words at all. I did not see anybody get hold of his chain. I do not remember him in the excitement saying, "You took my watch." When he took hold of you. what did he say to you? He did not say nothing to me, he let some German talk; this gentleman came over and grabbed me by the collar and fetched me to the station house. I don't know whether his watch and chain was taken out of his pocket at all or not.

Who was near him beside you? I could not tell you. I know there was a big crowd there - about twenty five. I left my house about half past one after I had my dinner. I never was in the penitentiary. I do not know that there is anybody in Court who knows me. I saw my father and mother last night. Have been locked up all the while. I sent a letter to my mother on Tuesday, three days before Christmas; my mother is sick. My father must have read about my arrest, for it was in the paper. I saw it in the paper myself.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree. The prisoner was remanded for sentence.

Thomas Jones and William Bracken and John Hassett
City and County of New York ss:

Thomas Murphy being duly sworn, says: That about the hour of one A. M. on February 2nd ¹⁸⁸⁸ I was walking down Park Row, and near the corner ^{of Mott Street} I met an unknown man who asked me to have a drink and I went with him into a saloon on the north-west corner of Park Row and Mott Street. When I went in, he treated me to a drink, then I proceeded to treat him, when he called five or six persons who were in the saloon, remarking that they were friends of his, and when ^{they} stood up at the bar he made the remark that "this is my man," alluding to me. I then treated the whole party and after a little conversation I said that I wanted to leave, and then treated the party again. Then the man who brought me in to the saloon asked me, what was my hurry.
I asked the bartender how much I owed.
He answered that I owed one dollar and thirty-five cents. I said that that was too much; then he ^{repeated} ~~said~~ that he wanted one dollar and thirty-five cents, and I pulled out a roll of bills, (twenty-seven dollars) from my trousers pocket, took a one dollar bill from the roll, and drew some change from another pocket, and paid for the drinks. I then put the roll of bills in my right-hand trousers pocket. Then I started to go out the front door, but the bartender came from behind the bar and managed to get to the door before I did, locked it and told me to go to the side door. Then I started toward the side door when ^{Thomas} Jones and ^{William} Bracken, two of the defendants above-named, walked in front of me, and John Hassett and two or three unknown men walked behind me. I had reached the door, on the Motte Street side, and was about to walk out of the storm door, when defendant Thomas Jones struck me in the eye, and grabbed my watch-chain, and ^{William} Bracken struck me on the face and put his hand into my right-hand trousers pocket, and he pulled the money from my pocket, and at the same time defendant John Hassett shoved me and grabbed at my watch-chain ^{and} while I was trying to defend myself, I was struck on the ^{left} shoulder and other parts of my body, and immediately afterward I fell, senseless.

By me

I know nothing of what followed, but at ten ^{on same day} A.M. I woke up and found myself ~~and~~ in room 12 of the lodging house of ^{over} said store, and my clothing was covered with sawdust. I then went home and I was unable to leave the house for four or five days thereafter.

About February 5th I reported the occurrence to at Police Headquarters. On ^{April} ~~February~~ 14th, 1888, I called at Inspector Byrne's office, and ~~identified the defendant~~ John Hassett, who had been arrested by Detective Sergeants Stephen O'Brien and John McCauley. On April 18th, 1888 I identified Thomas Jones and William Bracken, at Police Inspector Byrne's office, as three of the men engaged in said robbery.

The value of the property stolen from me is in the neighborhood of fifty dollars.
