COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE
OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Douglas Oliver

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York by this indictment accuse Douglas Oliver
of the crime of OBTAINING GOODS BY MEANS OF FALSE PRETENCES, committed as follows:

The said

Douglas Oliver

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the eight day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty two at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud one

Charles R. Mayer

did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly, and designedly, falsely pretend and represent to the said Charles R. Mayer

That he was in the employ of one Stewart W. Johnston, and that said Johnston was in business as a druggist at the corner of East Broadway and Pike Street in said City, and that a certain order for the payment of money, commonly called a bank check in the words and figures following, that is to say:

No. 56

New York, August 2nd, 1882

The Mercantile National Bank of the City of New York

Pay to the order of Char. Newcombe

Five 00/100

Dollars

$5 00/100

for one weeks wages

Stewart W. Johnston

which he then and there delivered to the said Charles R. Mayer was a good and valid bank check and of the value of five dollars drawn by the said Stewart W. Johnston. That the name of him the said Douglas Oliver was Charles Newcombe and that he had received the said check from said Johnston in payment of his wages

0429

And the said

Charles R. Mayer

then and their believing the said false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid by the said

and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said

Douglas Oliver the sum of two dollars and sixty five cents in money, lawful money of the United States of America and of the value of two dollars and sixty five cents of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said Charles R. Mayer and the said Douglas Oliver did then and there designedly receive and obtain the said sum of money

of the said

of the said

by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said

of the same.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the ~~said~~ name of said Douglas Oliver was not Charles Newcombe, and he was not employed by Stewart W. Johnston, and said Johnston was not in business as a druggist at the corner of East Broadway and Pike Street in said City, and said bank check was not a good and valid bank check but was wholly worthless, and had not been paid to him by said Johnston for wages

0430

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said Douglas Oliver to the said Charles R. Mayer was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth the said Douglas Oliver well knew the said pretences and representations so by him made as aforesaid to the said Charles R. Mayer to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid, do say, that the said Douglas Oliver by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly, did receive and obtain from the said Charles R. Mayer the sum of two dollars and sixty five cents in money, lawful money of the United States of America and of the value of two dollars and sixty five cents of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property, and effects of the said Charles R. Mayer with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud him of the same, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Dear Sir, Your letter of 12th inst. only reached me to day. I regret very much to say that the boy Douglas Oliver is my son who was away from home in the last part of last month for what I cannot know but himself, it was certainly not on account of harsh treatment at my hands, as has been telegraphed to the papers here from N.Y. The boy has for three years past been disobedient, spiteful and I have been unable to check him in his wilfulness and honesty. I had no idea of his whereabouts until I saw an account of his disappearance in the papers. Of course his story is a complete fabrication. I regret exceedingly the loss you have sustained but unfortunately I am not in a position to make good the amount, and therefore I am sorry.

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

against

William O'Neil

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

William O'Neil

of the CRIME of "Shooting at another with intent to kill," committed as follows:

The said

William O'Neil

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the thirteenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty two with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, in and upon the body of Charles Booker in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did make an assault and to, at and against him the said Charles Booker a certain pistol then and there loaded and charged with gunpowder and one lead bullet, which the said William O'Neil in his right hand then and there had and held the same being a deadly and dangerous weapon, wilfully and feloniously, did then and there shoot off and discharge, with intent him the said

Charles Booker

thereby then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

William O'Neil

of the Crime of Shooting and Discharging off a pistol at another, without justifiable or excusable cause, with intent to injure such other, committed as follows:

The said

William O'Neil

afterwards, to wit, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said Charles Booker then and there being, wilfully and feloniously did make an assault and to, at and against him the said Charles Booker a certain pistol then and there loaded and charged with gunpowder and one lead bullet, which he the said in his right hand, then and there had and held, wilfully and feloniously, and without justifiable or excusable cause, did then and there shoot off and discharge, with intent, thereby him the said

Charles Booker

wilfully and feloniously, then and there to injure, against the form of the Statute in such
