Oct 6, 1887

The complainant in this case has recommended a suspension of judgment upon the facts in this case. Upon investigation the character of the defendants appear to be good. Both of defendants have given testimony which has lead to an indictment of the receiver & they can be easily obtained for the trial of the receiver.

I therefore recommend the acceptance of their plea of guilty & that judgment be suspended. W. M. Davis.

The first time I have taken anything from Messrs Tiffany and Company was about four weeks prior to the date of the note I gave to the Detective it consisted of one small piece I should judge  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz consisting of silver and lead the second time about two days after that, (~~larger than the first~~) than the first weight about  $2\frac{1}{2}$  or 3 oz I am not sure which after that five or six times as to weight I am not sure ~~that~~ Frederick's <sup>old</sup> what I stole the first time to some one down town he did not give me any name but simply handed me five dollars the last time after he received the lot he disappeared and I have never seen him since.

TIFFANY & CO
GOLD & SILVER SMITHS
UNION SQUARE
NEW YORK

Mr. Vernon H. Davis
West. Dist. Ct. N.Y.

Dear Sir, In the case of Thos. G. Worrell lately in our employ now to be tried for stealing silver from us, we wish to advise you that he comes of a very respectable family and excepting the habit of drinking has hitherto borne a good character.

When the theft was discovered he immediately made full confession and gave all information readily and without pressure and expressed the greatest sorrow and penitence.

As he has been imprisoned for several months possibly he has already been sufficiently punished, and if spared the brand of the law he may be saved from becoming a confirmed offender.

We would therefore suggest the 0573

extension of the utmost clemency consistent with the circumstances of the case, and trust that the effort to bring the young man back to his virtuous course will not have been in vain.

Very truly yours,

Tiffany & Co
