of any Chinaman in this country or in China of the name of Sam Lee, and does not know whom he is.

be translated into English.

That defendant knows nothing about the alleged trouble in 17 Mott Street with the people who had leased No 17 Mott said premises had been burglarized.

deponent then examined said premises and found that they had been entered as aforesaid and said property taken therefrom. Deponent is informed by Detective Sergeant Michael Lyman that at the hour of 7 o'clock P.M. December 3, he saw the said three defendants come out of the premises No 535 Greenwich Street in company with a truckman named John M. Laughlin, and at that time the defendant Maurice Hasson and the truckman M. Laughlin had each a bundle in their possession which they placed in M. Laughlin's truck when he M. Laughlin started down town with said truck. He the Detective followed said truck to the corner of Baxter and Canal Street where the defendants Lizzie M. Curtis and Catherine Krausner met said truck. He the Detective then arrested the said two defendants and said truckman and took them to Police Head quarters along with the two bundles that were in said truck. And the said two defendants then informed him the Detective that they had been employed by Samuel Hasson not yet arrested to dispose of said property and that they were to receive five dollars for so doing. The Detective then returned to 535 Greenwich Street and arrested the defendant Maurice Hasson who is a brother of the aforesaid Samuel Hasson. Deponent is further informed by John M. Laughlin the said truckman that the defendant Catherine Krausner employed him at the hour of 6.30 o'clock P.M. Dec. 3, to carry said bundles from the premises No 535 Greenwich St to No 70 Baxter St. and that she paid him the sum of one dollar for so doing.

Deponent further says that he has since seen the two bundles which were found in M. Laughlin's truck and which contained flannel and that he fully and positively identifies said flannel as his property and as a portion of the property which was stolen from his store at the time of said burglary. Wherefore deponent charges the said Maurice Hasson Lizzie M. Curtis and Catherine Krausner (all untried) and Samuel Hasson not yet arrested with being together and acting in concert with each other and burglariously entering said premises as aforesaid and feloniously taking, stealing and carrying away said property. The People vs.
Samuel Hasson.

{ Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Recorder Smyth.

Tuesday, January 7, 1890.

Indictment for burglary in the third degree, grand larceny in the second degree and receiving stolen goods.

Robert W. Courtney sworn and examined, testified:

I live at 523 Greenwich Street and am a dry goods merchant, my place of business is 521 and 523 Greenwich St.

My business is retail dry goods and carried it on there on the 3rd of December 1889. This store where the goods were taken out of I used as a place to keep surplus stock in, it was on the ground floor, the entrance at the front led from the street into the store and then there was a door in the rear which led into the yard, the regular store where I transact business is 523, next door. What entrance was there from that room 521 into the store where you do the business? None at all, we have got to go out by the street, we cannot get into it from the rear yard; the store that I do business in runs the full length of the lot, it is ninety-seven feet deep and the extension is a brick wall that divides one from the other, the building 521 is part brick and part wood. On the 3rd of December I had goods in my store and among them flannel goods, I had over a hundred pieces, I saw four pieces at the Police Headquarters and eight were recovered in the yard outside of the store, the eight were tied up in two large bundles, tied in two comfortables which were taken.
These pieces of flannel that were found were in my store on the 3rd of December. The store was closed this night,

I missed goods from the store about three o'clock on the morning of the 3rd of December, an officer on the beat came and informed me that the place had been broken into. I immediately dressed and went out and examined the rear of the store, I found that the center door had been pried out and an entrance made, an opening sufficient to get in, this center was made of two thicknesses of wood running crossways and there was another glass door inside, the glass of the inside door was broken. I suppose the aperture was about seven feet high and twenty inches wide and the door inside was broken to make an aperture of two and a half feet by two feet. We found two large bundles in the yard and four pieces of flannel were in each bundle; the value of each piece of flannel was about fifteen dollars a piece and the comforters were worth about $2.50 each, the whole property was worth $120.00. I went to the Station House and to the Police Headquarters the next morning and saw the eight pieces of flannel which I had previously seen in the yard, the Officers took them to the precinct Station House, I identified the goods as mine, gave a receipt for them and had them turned over to me and took them home, I went the next morning to Police Headquarters and saw Officer Lyman and saw four pieces of red flannel, I think there was one blue piece and identified them as mine, they were about the same value as the others. I got those pieces back. I did not see any of the Defendants at Police Headquarters but saw them first in the Police Court, I made a complaint against them there, I did not see this Defendant at all. I saw the two women defendants Lizzie McCarthy and Katherine Kramerson, I had never seen them before to my knowledge nor had I seen the Defendant. My store is in the eighth ward.

Cross Examined.

The name of one of the make of flannels was California Scarlet flannel, some of it was known by the mark C.S. and I think there was a piece or two with the manufacturer's mark X.S.O., those were the trade marks. I had not the private marks on the scarlet flannel in the yard but what we found in Police Headquarters had my private mark on it, these four rolls and they were worth at least fiftendollars a piece.

Micheal J. lyman sworn.

I am a detective Sergeant connected with the central office, I did not arrest Samuel Hasson but arrested Lizzie McCarthy and Catherine Kremerson on the 3rd of December, 1889, in the evening about eight o'clock on the corner of Canal and Baxter Street in this city, I know the witness John McLaughlin, he was present at the time I arrested the women and his truck was there. I had been watching the house 535 Greenwich Street in this city, I began to watch it about three o'clock in the afternoon, I think it was about seven o'clock when I saw a truck driving up to that door, I saw two bundles come out of the doorway of 535, I crossed over and looked at the driver McLaughlin putting on one bundle and looked at Maurice Hasson putting on the other bundle. This man McLaughlin now pointed out to me is the man who had the truck. McLaughlin came out of the hallway with the two women.

Kramerson were the persons that the Officer saw upon that occasion.

Witness: McLaughlin was in the house about ten minutes before I saw him come out with the two women. These women were on the walk as if they were directing where the bundles should go, they were talking to McLaughlin. After the things were put on the truck by McLaughlin and Maurice Hasson the truck drove off. The two women and Maurice Hasson separated and I followed the truck over to Baxter Street; these two women went into two stores and came out, the truck stopped in Baxter Street below Canal near Bayard when the two women joined the truckman, they walked down Baxter Street and went into the store and I was watching the truck with the goods on, I think the women went into No. 70 Baxter Street. I arrested them all, I asked McLaughlin what he had in his truck and he said he had bundles, there were two bundles on the truck at the time, I brought them up to Police Headquarters; they were done up in canvass bags, they were the same bundles I saw coming out of this house in Greenwich Street. At Headquarters we questioned the women where they got them and McLaughlin said the women hired him, we locked the women up and the Sergeant discharged McLaughlin. Mr. Gountney came there the next morning and saw these goods and identified them as his. We did not hear of this alleged burglary at all, we were watching that house for a week for a burglary that happened in Hoboken. I knew the Defendant lived there on the top floor with his mother and brother, Maurice Hasson is a brother of the Defendant. After we locked the women up we went to 535 Greenwich St.

top floor and arrested Maurice and the other brother Thomas, I searched the premises and found nothing more, I had a conversation with the Defendant about this transaction after his arrest at Headquarters and Jefferson Market Court also. I asked him what did he do with the rest of that stuff, meaning the goods that came from the burglary in Greenwich Street, I arrested him for another robbery at the time, I asked him why he did not give himself up when he knew his brother was arrested. I asked him, do you know your brother is innocent? He said he did not know anything about it; I said, "you know you took them goods and you got him in the Tombs locked up for them, why didn't you give yourself up and if he is innocent get him out?" He said he did not know anything about it.

By Counsel: Tell us who was on the truck at the time that you saw it drive up? There was McLaughlin and I think a small boy, I noticed the women first on the sidewalk, I did not notice anybody else go into the house that afternoon. I saw the bundles opened in Headquarters and they were two pieces of flannel in each bundle.

John McLaughlin sworn and examined.

I live at 77 Charlton Street and own my own truck, I am a truck driver, I know the premises 535 Greenwich Street in this city, I received a call to go there I think on the 3rd of December, 1889, a young lady came to my house about half past six o'clock in the evening, she gave me directions to go to 535 Greenwich Street for a trunk, she hired me to carry a trunk to 70 Baxter Street and instead of that it was two packages; a young man went to the bedroom and pulled out packages, I carried one and he carried the other, I met Catherine Kramerson down stairs, I went up to the top floor of the back room; there was a young man in the room eating his supper at the time, it was this man now pointed out to me (Maurice Hasson), there was also a lady in the room, I did not look much at her to see whether or not she was an old lady. I do not know what was in the bundles, they were rolled up in canvas. When I got down stairs I saw the lady that hired me on the sidewalk, she told me to go on down and she would be down ahead of me to No. 70 Baxter Street. I asked her where I was going to leave them and she said Mrs. Brown, first floor, 70 Baxter Street, she paid me half a dollar in my own house, I told her I would rather not carry it to-night, I would do it in the morning. I went to No. 70 Baxter Street and both ladies (the female defendants) were at the door, I jumped off my wagon, there was another young man with me on the wagon and as soon as I jumped off she says to me, "this lady would not take it to-night" and asked me if I would take the property further; I said no, I will not take it further, there is half a dollar owing to me; I would not take it further, I got doubtful that something was wrong. One of them asked me to drive away from the front door; I says to the young man that was on the wagon, drive up to the corner of Baxter St. the truck was standing still over five minutes; they asked me if I would take it down to Vandam Street and Downing Street; I says no, I will take it no place, I will put it on storage, I was afraid there was something wrong; they told me the store was closed and I would not get a place to put it in. I said I would get a place to put it in storage till twelve o'clock. They asked what name will you put it in? I said, I will put it in my own name. We were standing five minutes and two officers came up and asked me what did I have on the truck --- Officer Lyman was one; he says, "what have you got in your wagon, Mr. McLoughlin?" He heard the ladies call me McLaughlin. I said, "I don't know what is in the wagon; they were still talking to me; there were two more officers with Lyman, I told them I was going to put it on storage; he asked me which of the ladies hired me and where I got it, I told him right away where I got it and the lady who hired me; this was in the presence of the women and all. He said, "drive up to Headquarters; the women went with us; then I left it and stated the case and went home; I would not put it on my truck for one thousand dollars if I thought it was wrong. The women were arrested.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

Lizzie McCarthy sworn and examined.

I live at 126 Second Street, Hoboken, I am married and my husband is living with me, his name is John McCarthy, I was living there on the 3rd of December last, I have seen the Defendant Samuel Hasson at our house a couple of times, I was living in 595 Greenwich Street opposite his mother's, I have known him since I was married five years ago, I saw the Defendant at my house on the 3rd of last December in the morning, I could not tell the exact time, I just got up; he came in with my husband, I saw my husband the afternoon before about three or four o'clock, he had been away all night, I did not see the Defendant at my house the day before, I asked my husband where he was and he said he was working on the Savannah dock, the Defendant heard me ask him but said nothing at that time, Catherine Kramerson was there. The Defendant asked us if we did not buy some goods that he wanted to give five dollars for it. My husband and the Defendant came in together, the door was open, Catherine Kramerson was with me that night, she was in the room when my husband and the Defendant came in and she got up. Sam Hasson asked us if we would not do him a favor to sell some goods that he would give us five dollars for both of us, Catherine Kramerson and myself. We told him yes and asked him where we can sell it; he said 70 Baxter Street; we went over and sold it, we asked him how much he wanted and he said twenty dollars. Sam Hasson told us to go to 535 Greenwich Street, New York, to get the goods, he said they were there, nothing was said then about getting a truck, Willie Horn spoke of it after. Hasson said we should go to 535 Greenwich Street and get some flannels, we went over to New York, Catherine Kramerson and I, we went first to 535 Greenwich Street, we got there in the afternoon before three o'clock, we went upstairs to the top floor back room and saw the Defendant's mother Mrs. Hasson, we told her that Sam sent us over for the stuff to sell it, she did not say anything at all. We went over to get a man named Brown at 70 Baxter Street and in about two hours after Brown came to 535 Greenwich Street, Mrs. Hasson's house, I saw him there, he looked at the four rolls of flannels, we told him what the man told us to ask for it

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

POOR QUALITY

0582

twenty dollars and he wanted to give us eighteen, he would not give any more than eighteen and he said we should bring it over to Baxter Street and he went out. We wanted to carry the stuff over but we could not and a fellow named Willie Horn told us to get a truck, he was in Hasson's house at the same time, Catherine Kramerson went out and got the truck of McLoughlin. I was there when the truck arrived, McLoughlin came in and asked where the trunk was and the girl Kramerson pointed to the two bundles, McLoughlin carried one bundle and Maurice Hasson carried the other; we went over to Baxter Street and saw Mr. Brown, we went in and told him and he said he would not take the goods if they came by express, -- that is he would not take the goods unless they were carried by Catherine and me, I went out of the store when he told me that and we met McLoughlin, we told him the Sheeny, the man would not take the goods and we asked him if he would not carry them back to 535 Greenwich Street or put them in some place; he said he would not do it, he wanted to put them on storage and would not have nothing more to do with it; afterwards the detectives arrested us and we were taken to Headquarters with the truck and goods.

Cross Examined. Willie Horn was not there when I came with the truck. Maurice Hasson had just come home from work and got his supper, he had nothing to do with it. I am arrested five weeks to-day, I know my husband was in the Tombs last night but do not know what for, my sister-in-law was at the Tombs day before yesterday to see me. Catherine Kramerson told me that my husband was arrested, I asked what for and she said only for suspicion. I know of my husband being arrested before for disorderly conduct, if he was arrested before I got married for anything more serious, I could not help it, I am an honest, hard working woman and could bring persons into this court to prove it. My husband has been arrested to my knowledge three times, he was arrested one night for disorderly conduct and got six months, my sister-in-law gave him one month and he was locked up before in some case, he was arrested once in the House of Blazes. I have been married five years, I was living out at the time and he was boarding with his sister in Charlton Street and in the summer he worked at Manhattan Beach, he has not been in prison in Sing Sing since I have been married to him. During my conversation with the Defendant on the morning of the 3rd of December about selling the flannel my husband was in bed, Catherine Kramerson heard all the conversation. We came to New York from Hoboken about three o'clock, we left the Defendant behind us in the house and my husband was in bed, he my husband, never said anything about this flannel, I told him to get up and have his breakfast and he said he did not care about breakfast. I could not tell you the time he went to bed because I had no clock. When Catherine and I went out we left them both in bed. I went out that morning to clean two houses Nos. 124 and 126 Second Street, Hoboken, I came back to my house and then went over to New York. I work for a living, I peddle lace and buy it in Baxter Street, Cortland Street and all over, I bought the last lace before I was arrested in Weinstein's, a dollars worth, I bought it on the Friday before I was arrested, Catherine Kramerson and I went out to sell it on Saturday, we go out together and what we could not sell we had home in the basket.

By Mr. Davis: Look at this paper and see if you know whose handwriting that is, do you know who wrote it? I never got a letter like that before, it is written by Sam Hasson, I did not see that letter written, I know Catherine Kramerson got a letter from him, I saw a letter with Catherine Kramerson the Defendant never spoke to me anything about the letter.

The Court: That letter cannot go in now, I will not admit it at this stage of the case.

Catherine Kramerson sworn and examined.

I live in Second Street, Hoboken with Lizzie McCarthy and her husband, I have known Samuel Hasson two weeks, I received one letter from him, I guess I know his handwriting when I see it, I never saw him write, I have never received more than one letter from him. Look at that paper carefully and look at the envelope and say whether that is his handwriting? I do not think he ever wrote that; that is my name on the envelope. I received a letter from him, I tore it up one night in the Tombs, it was handed to me by one of the girls, I did not read it, the laundry woman gave it to me and said that Hasson gave the letter to her to give to me.

Cross Examined.

I remember the day

I was arrested with Mrs. McCarthy, I saw the Defendant at her house that day, I know Mrs. McCarthy's husband, he is now in the Tombs but I do not know what for.

POOR QUALITY

0585

Do you know of his ever having been arrested before?
Yes. How many times? Twice, I guess. Do you know what for? Yes sir, burglary. How long do you know this man and Lizzie McCarthy's husband? I only iknow them two weeks. Was he arrested while you knew him? No sir. You don't know anything about it except what somebody told you? Yes, she told me he was arrested and he told me so too. What did he tell you? He told me he had been in Sing Sing twice. Did Mrs. McCarthy tell you to come here to swear against the Defendant for the purpose of protectihg her husband? She told me that I should say the same as she did in the other Court, in Jefferson Market. She said it was two fellows in Grenwich Street, one was Sam Hasson.

The Court: She says that McCarthy told her that she wanted her to tell the same as she (McCarthy) told in Jefferson Market. I asked her then what McCarthy said in Jefferson Market and then she starts in about these two fellows giving her five dollars for selling the goods. Is that right?

Witness: Yes sir. Sam Hasson was one and I don't know the name of the other one.

By Counsel. Q. Did Mrs. McCarthy say anything to you about pleading guilty to the charge that was brought against you here? Yes, she said she was going to plead guilty and she said that I should do the same. Did she say if you did not plead guilty anything would happen? She said I had better plead guilty, that would be the best way, she said that if I pleaded guilty I would not get a long term; then I said, if you will plead guilty, I will plead guilty. Did she say that she would strike you if you did not plead guilty? No sir, she did not tell me that.

By Mr. Davis: Did anybody say they would strike you if you testified in this case? They did not say so.

By the Court: Did anybody say that if you came here and told what you knew about this case, that any harm would come to you? No sir. Did they threaten to beat or strike you? I was afraid that when Mrs. McCarthy got mad she would lick me. I am eighteen years old and I was born in Daneland, I have been in this country one year, I lived out and worked at dress-making, I did not have any work and got acquainted with Mrs. McCarthy and went out selling lace with her about two months, I also got acquainted with a lady named Lizzie Ray, I only know the Defendant two weeks, I met him over in Lizzie McCarthy's house.

By Mr. Davis: How long had you lived there with Lizzie McCarthy? Two weeks. You ate there and slept there, didn't you? Yes. Do you mean to say you were afraid of her in you told what you knew in this case? Yes. Do you remember having a talk with me in my office a little while ago? Yes. Do you remember of whom you told me then you were afraid if you told the truth? Yes, I was afraid of them all, her husband and her. Did not you tell me you were afraid of the sisters of this man Hasson, who are here in Court? Yes. Did not you tell me that they had spoken to you? Yes. And they had threatened you? Not threatened me, I told you I was afraid of them. Did not you tell me that you were afraid of your life of those girls and of Hasson too if he got out and did not you tell me at that time that you were afraid of Lizzie McCarthy? Yes. I know Hasson's sisters, they are here in Court. I have not received letters from them in the Tombs, one of the sisters came to see me once, she only sent something in to me. I saw the letter now shown me this morning, I was sitting over by the prisoner's box in the corner, I picked the letter off the floor because I saw my name on it, it was thrown out of the prisoner's box, Sam Hasson was in the box but I did not see him throw it. When I picked it up an officer took it away from me before I read it. I do not know that it is in Hasson's handwriting.

The Counsel for the Defendant offered no testimony but moved the Court to direct the Jury to acquit on the ground that there was no proof connecting the Defendant with the commission of the burglary and the Court denied the motion.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of receiving stolen goods.

Q. 234 East 35th, Cenr. - This woman is charged with keeping a disorderly House and violating the Liquor Law, tell us what you know and what you did?

A. On the 23rd inst, in company with Mr. Tim we went to this place, to this cigar store. In going in we had a cigar, the Defendant waited on us, then when we had the cigars, the two girls came running out of the back room. Officer Tim asked for a drink, and she, the Defendant said we have bottled Beer,

12

and we had two bottles, this defendant here, and solicited us to go in, and have a good time, with the girls. The girls were behind the counter, just room enough for about three (3), she took the latch off the door and we got in and sat down and had some more beer, and then after that I said I will have some whisky, or a little whisky, and she served whisky to us, and made us to take one of the girls inside, I took one inside, and she asked me to have intercourse with her.
She said a dollar was the cost, she took off everything but her chemise and grabbed hold of me and attempted to take my 13 privates. He came out ^{and} had another drink, & commenced to chatter about the poor beer and she gave no more Whiskey, she said she was running a first class place (145 ~~tested~~ ⁱⁿ) On Monday night Officer Thinn visited the place again, we had some beer, and she urged us to take one of the girls inside and Officer Thinn took one inside, and then we came out.

Cross Fertilization.

Q. What was the general conversation of the party?

 Jokes - This lady had two or three jokes - I cannot remember any of them.

2
 Have you not

Q of them Have you got a retentive memory?

Q. A Some Indian,
Have you a very Reten-
-tive memory for Smutty stories?

A. Yes, Sir, I know
no smutty stories.

Q. Mr. Moore when you were in the room with this lady, were you
alone?

A. Not all the time, the Officer came in and saw her half stripped.

Q. You forgot to tell us that?

A. I thought you had enough.

Q. You forgot that he broke in the door?

A. He did not break in the door. I sat on the side of the bed and paid her money and got nothing in return, she put the money
in her stocking.

15

Q. You then came out?

A. Yes Sir,
Q. And bid the lady "good night"?

A. After we came out, we stood in the Centre room and then went about our business.

Q. One might have been her husband and the other, her brother?

A. Yes sir, she called them "hen" that night

Counselor Friend, I pre-sume that the evidence that has been produced by the people can be taken jointly. The first and most important feature that must be shown, to maintain a complaint for a violation of Excise, where that violation of the Excise Law consists of disposing and selling liquor in a place unlicensed; to prove prima facie, and affirmatively that the place is unlicensed establishment; that knowing that it was so unlicensed that liquor was disposed of there, for all that appears before you, the proprietor may have a license for that place. It is incumbent on the people to show that the place is unlicensed - I move to dismiss the complaint for a violation of the Excise

18

18)

Law-- Mr. Stocking-- We will call a witness-- Mr. Chien-- Why, you have closed your case; we are arguing on your case-- I submit that if I am right, the Court will be with me; if I am wrong the Court will be against me. Then you rest your case,
you cannot reopen
it.

Court-- You raise a good point, still the Counsel knows that before a Police Court, it is an inquiry, not a trial, and that the Judge at any stage of the proceeding can ask questions; even if the District Attorney, or any citizen rests
his case-- The Law
says the License

29

Q. Should be in a conspicuous place, did you see any License?

A. No Sir, could you see it, if it were there?

A. I could see it; When I made the raid, I asked her if she had a Signor License, and she refused to answer my question, and the Officer said to her, "Why, do you not answer?" she admitted she had no License Re-cross.

Q. Where did you look for the License?

A. On the back of the cigar case and on the wall, I saw the Signor License

Q. Do you know in whose name 21 the Legal License ~~it~~? was?

Q. A

I do not.
Do you know in whose name the license is?

I did not see the name.

Q.

Did you look
all about the place?

Q. A

Yes Sir,
Will you swear positively there is no Liquor License there?

I will positively
swear to that.

Q.

Did you look
inside the case?

I did not make an examination, on the lot it was not conspicuously displayed; it was not on the place. I took pains to look for it.

Q.

How many cases have you been a

22

Witness in?
Mr. Stocking - I object, it is

Q. immaterial. How many cases have you been

A. a couple of

Q. a hundred.
You is this the first case of the kind you have been a witness

Q. in?
No Sir,
Q. Have you had ten (10) cases of this kind?

A. I think I have

Q. had. How many cases have you been in, in which there was no
force, violence? etc this the first case of force violation you have ever been in?

A. I cannot remember - if I had my
(77) record I could see

23

Friend, In regard to the Disorderly House, I think at this time it is just, that reference should be made to the manner in which the Society, or the Officers of the Society go about obtaining evidence for the purpose of prosecuting keepers of alleged houses of ill fame and alleged Disorderly Houses; from what I know of my friend here, Mr. Stocking, I am sure if he used the means taken to obtain evidence just like this, he would put his foot down in Con=demnation of the manner in which they proceed;
the fact of the matter
is that in their efforts to maintain good morals in tenement
houses they have established an espionage on

Q4.

These houses; in this instance they struck the wrong place, they had no right to go ~~there~~ to this house, as it is not a tenement house; it is a store sub-divided, it was a large store, with no connection with the rest of the building, no way to get in or out except through the front door, What illegal act have they proven? I submit we ought not to be asked to go on our defence. I ask you is it an illegal or a disorderly act, for a man to go into a place with a woman, in an inner room, and there where there is no eye witnesses, go through the performance described by this witness -

Court - you mean to say

Friend - That formation is no Crime. Yes Sir, it is no Offence, they say that they went into this room and paid a ($1.)
Dollars and that the Jury laid down on a benches, on two distinct occasions, is that such Disorderly Conduct, they do not connect this man in any way with receiving the money and for that performance I submit that we should not be put on our defence,

Court - I will hear the Defence Friend - We rest our case.

Court - The plea that you make is as ingenious as it is ingenious, for the nature of the Charge and the offence alleged, is one that is always done in private - These men have meritours

25

26 relations with women they seldom do it in public, so I have heard that secrecy is one of the elements of that offence. The fact that they went in there and found this woman acting in authority; selling the regard; allowing the two (2) strange men comparative strangers to her, to go in, the back room; her having three women there, why three women in, so small a store, the fact that she allowed these two strange men to go in there, that one of these women, put a dollar in, her stocking, exposing her person and the fact that these two men, who have eyes, could not see

24

The License. The Law says the License must or shall be in a Conspicuous place so that every one can see it, the fact that they did not see the License, though they saw the United States License for the Sale of Segars, causes me to hold her on hundred Dollars in the Disorderly House

case and one hundred
