The People vs, against Michael W. Jordan

Deposition of Mrs Catherine Jordan taken at 506 West 20th Street in the city of New York pursuant to stipulation and the order thereupon made dated January 26th 1887

Catherine Jordan being duly sworn says: I am the wife of Michael Jordan and reside at 506 West 20th Street in the city of New York and am the mother of the defendant above named. I am sixty years of age, and am now confined to the house, by reason of sickness and have been unable to go out for more than six weeks last past. On the 29th day of April 1886, I was at my home, as above given, my attention has been particularly called to that date for on the following day my son the defendant was arrested charged with the theft of an overcoat from offices in Pine Street New York. At that time April 29th 1886 my son the de defendant, was out of employment, he had great difficulty in getting employment, because he is very near sighted, and had had a great deal of trouble with his eyes, and about that time he very frequently was late in coming down stairs, and to breakfast. On the morning of April 29th 1886 Michael the defendant did not come down stairs from his room before half past ten, he slept in that room the night before to my knowledge and did not leave the house before coming down to breakfast. I know these facts because the only door from his room leads through my bed room. Michael the defendant was in the kitchen of his home, my house No 506 W. 20th Street, from the time he came down stairs about half past ten o'clock A.M. April 29th 1886, until after one o'clock, engaged in reading the newspaper, conversation re Michael the defendant has always lived at home, he is twenty eight years of age and he has never been very strong or robust.

On the day of Michael's arrest the 30th day of April 1886, the fact of his being at home on the day previous and not going out of the house before one o'clock, was at once spoken of by myself and the members of my family who knew the fact. Those members of my family who know the truth of the foregoing are my daughter Martha, and Miss Rose Valley who was visiting my family at that time from Boston.

Michael had no occasion to my knowledge to go down town before the 30th the day he was arrested, and the way he came to go down town that day was that my son in law James Y. Bauls, wrote a letter to Michael regarding a situation for him, which came to the house that morning the 30th; my oldest son James J. Jordan, ^{then} gave Michael money to buy a new hat, and he went off, down to Mr Bauls's office in New Street to see about the situation mentioned in the letter.

I am perfectly clear about the times and dates mentioned in this deposition because of all the circumstances attending Michael's going down town on the 30th of April 1886; on the day when the theft is charged April 29th 1886 Michael the defendant wore a well worn pea jacket and vest, and a well worn derby hat, on the day of his arrest he wore a green striped coat and vest and a new derby hat. I testify positively that on the 29th day of April 1886, and until One o'clock after noon ^{of this day} the defendant was at 556 West 20th Street New York and was not down town or in the vicinity of Pine
