As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. The defendant hired a furnished room from me at ~~two dollars per month~~ and has lived there for two months. I always found her honest and trustworthy and am satisfied that she must have been drinking or else she would not have taken my property. It is her first offense and as she comes from a very respectable family and is a respectable girl herself I ask permission to withdraw my complaint - She pawned my things and gave up the ticket at once - There must have been some special cause

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Henry Rothman

(Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8,
as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 3.)

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said

Henry Rothman

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the seventh day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, at the City and County aforesaid, one pound of a certain oleaginous substance and compound, not made nor produced from milk or cream (a more particular description of which said substance and compound, and of the ingredients and matters of which the same was made and produced, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), unlawfully did intentionally sell, and cause and procure to be sold to one Thomas R. Fagan, as and for butter, the product of the dairy; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SECOND COUNT: (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 3).

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said

Henry Rothman

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did unintentionally sell and cause and procure to be sold to one Thomas R. Fagan, one pound

Henry Rothman,

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the said seventh day of March, — in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell, and cause and procure to be sold, to one Thomas R. Gray, one pound of a certain compound product and manufacture made in whole from animal fats and animal and vegetable oils, not produced from unadulterated milk or cream, which said compound product and manufacture had been before then, and was then and there colored with coloring matter, whereby the same did then and there resemble butter, the product of the dairy (a more particular description of which said compound, product and manufacture, and of the fats and oils from which the same was so made as aforesaid, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

NINTH COUNT: (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 3.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said

Henry Rothman,

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell, and cause and procure to be sold to one

Thomas R. Gray, one pound.
