Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County } ss.
of New York,

of No. 143 E, 58th Street, aged 57 years, occupation Living stable keeper being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 16th day of December 1891 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the night time, the following property, viz:

One overcoat and one pair of fur gloves together of the value of thirty dollars

(#30.00)

the property of in the care and custody of deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Peter Galagley (murder) from the fact that at the hour of 8.30 o'clock A.M. said date deponent missed said property from the stable 142 and 144 E 58th St.

deponent is informed by John Buchanan that at the hour of 5.45 o'clock A.M. said date he saw this defendant go into said stable and there after found this defendant old overcoat lying behind the office door of said stable. deponent is further informed by of 189

Police Justice

John K. O'Leary a clerk employed at the Penn office at no 726 10th Avenue. That on the 17th day of this December this defendant purchased an overcoat in said Penn office and on the 18th day of December this defendant purchased a pair of gloves in said Penn office.

Defendant further says that he has since seen the property purchased by this defendant in said Penn office and fully identifies said property as the property which was in defendant's care and custody.

Wherefore Defendant charges this defendant with feloniously taking stealing and carrying away said property from said store.

How Dear Sir:

I write to your Honor to bespeak your utmost leniency on behalf of Officer Gallagher.
I have known him since his boyhood and I have known him as an officer in this ^{large} neighborhood where there are very many very rough characters that an officer has to deal with. - Officer Gallagher has always ^{been} ~~was~~ brave, efficient and willing to do his duty. He never shirked it.

- The old woman whom he arrested is known to one of the clergymen (Father McNamee) of this parish - (he having for many years officiated at the Church in Barclay St) - and he has told me she was an exceedingly eccentric old lady - with splendid ability at using her tongue in scolding &c. &c.

and that persons not knowing her well, would readily imagine her under the influence of drink. — Your honor knows that the hardest kind of a prisoner for an officer to take to the Station house — (especially such a long distance as for the City Hall from Oak St) — is a woman of this kind. I have seen many cases of it down here. They kick and wriggle and squirm and frequently do themselves the most injury. They purposely excite the pity of bystanders by pretending to be hurt more than they really are and ^{by lying on the sidewalk} screaming and free use of their gift of tongue quickly draw a sympathizing crowd who exasperate the officer by their interference and tantalizing remarks. — Hoping you will take into consideration this appeal which I make to you freely and spontaneously I am respectfully

Court of General Sessions of the Peace of the City and County of New York.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

John Tigerdren

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment accuse

John Tigerdren
of the crime of Selling Intoxicating Liquors and Wines as a Beverage on Election Day, committed as follows:

The said John Tigerdren, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the third day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety one, the same being a day on which a General Election was held throughout the State of New York and in the City and County aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, and within one-quarter of a mile from a certain polling place there, where the said election was then being held, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit: One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell as a beverage to one John Tigerdren and to certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid by this indictment further accuse the said

John Tigerdren
of the crime of Keeping Open on Election Day, a place licensed for the Sale of Strong and Spirituous Liquors, Wines, Ale and Beer, committed as follows:

The said John Tigerdren, late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, the same being a day on which a General Election was held throughout the State of New York, and in the said City and County, being then and there in charge of, and having the control of a certain place there situate, which was then duly licensed as a place for the sale of strong and spirituous liquors, wines, ale and beer, the same being within one quarter of a mile from a certain polling place there, where the said election was then being held, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, the said place so licensed as aforesaid, unlawfully did not close and keep closed, and on the said day the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did then and there open, and cause and procure and suffer and permit to be open, and to remain open, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the Peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

tub and he picked that up and stabbed me twice right over the eye. Then he drew his clenched fist and struck me in the face closing my eye completely. Then he knocked me down and kicked me repeatedly. There was another man watching the whole proceedings. He ran out as fast as he could and a man ran out after him. I was taken to the Hospital and my wounds were dressed. It was discovered that one of my ribs was broken.

The certificate from the Doctor at Bellevue Hospital was read certifying that the witness came to the hospital suffering from a fractured rib.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

I am positive that the defendant was drunk on the day he came to my premises. I was perfectly sober. I had not been drinking. I had no trouble with my husband on that morning. I am positive of that fact. My husband was at home while this man was beating me, but he was asleep on the lounge. This man had frequently called on my husband to get money from him. I didn't say anything to wake my husband up while the defendant was assaulting me.

MICHAEL J. McMANUS, a witness for the People, being duly sworn, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the 18th. Precinct. I arrested the defendant John Grant on the 3.

21st. of November. Officer Ryan brought him in at about half past one. I took the defendant around to Bellevue Hospital and took him before the complainant. She identified him as the man who had assaulted her. When I saw the woman in the hospital one of her eyes was closed. There was a scar on her face and a couple of scratches on her head. I asked her if this was the man who assaulted her and she said yes. The defendant acknowledged to me how he hit the woman in the eye.

DEFENSE.

JOHN GRANT, the defendant, sworn. testified:

Nine years ago I was convicted of petty larceny and served one year in prison. I have never been in trouble since that time. I am acquainted with Stella Fay and I also know her husband. I remember the 21st. day of November. I was arrested on that day. I went to the premises occupied by the Fay family at about eight o'clock in the morning and stayed there 20 minutes. This woman's husband and myself went out. We came back about 20 minutes after that and I stayed there for a couple of hours. When I went in there at 8 o'clock in the morning I found this man and his wife fighting. He was beating his wife. I separated them. I got in between them and pushed them apart. Afterwards when I went in the house she was drunk and lying on the floor. I went out on the street and met an officer. Then she came out and told the officer I had struck her and I was arrested. I did hit the woman with my fist in the eye. I did not stab her with the fork as she has testified to. All I did was strike her with my hand when I was separating her from her husband. I didn't knock her down and kick her in the ribs as she has testified to. I have known her husband for about 20 years.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

- Q What did you do after you struck her in the eye? A I walked out into the kitchen.
- Q You left her quietly sitting on a chair? A Yes, sir.
- Q Before you struck her in the eye did she have a black eye? A No, sir.
- Q Did she have any cut on her face? A Yes, sir. She had a scratch where her husband grabbed her.
- Q Did you see it there? A Yes; in the morning.
- Q Did you have anything to drink there that morning?
