N e w Y o r k , February 4th 1889.

A P P E A R A N C E S :

For the People Assistant District Attorney, W. T.
Jerome.

For the Defendant Mr. James F. Higgins.

JOHN HARLOW? a witness called on behalf of the People, sworn, testified:-I am a grocer by occupation and was such on the 8th of September last. I had some trouble with this defendant Thomas Connor on the 8th of September. I had not known the defendant before, but I had seen him about two weeks before the assault .Q. Now state to the jury the circumstances of the trouble you had with the defendant and how it came about ?A. He came into my store on the morning of the 8th of September for milk, I suppose, he did not ask for the milk; I was in the back room when he came in and as soon as I went to come out of the room back of my store he came up to me and gave me a strike on the breast. Before he struck me he did not say anything whatever to me; he simply made an attempt to strike me on the breast with his fist. I could not do anything to him and he at once ran out of my place. He returned to my store again in about five minutes after this. When he returned I was in the back room and I started to come out of it; as I came out he came towards me, pulled out a pistol, pointed it at me and said he would shoot me now. I jumped back behind a partition in the room. I waited there about two minutes and then I looked in through the glass door and I saw that he had left. I then went out and made a complaint against him to a police officer and he was arrested. That is all I know about it.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q. Where is your grocery store? A. My store is at No. 434 W. 32nd Street in this city.

Q. Did the defendant strike you a violent blow in the chest when he struck you? A. I don't know; he gave me a blow; I was so frightened that I did not know much about it.

Q. You are sure he did not fall against you?

A. No sir.

Q. This occurred at a quarter to six in the morning?

A. Yes sir.

PETER HAGAN, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am an officer of the municipal police . I arrested the defendant Thomas Connor on the 8th of September last at 440 West 32nd Street. When I arrested him he was in a liquor store.

Q. State to the jury all you said to him, and all you did and what he said to you in reference to this matter?

A. Somebody came to the station house and made a complaint against him and I was sent down there to look for him. I found him in a liquor store and I told him I wanted him to come to the station house with me; I took him to the station house. I did not have any conversation with him . The complainant was at the station house and made a complaint against him.

Q. What did he say ? A. The defendant said he did not know anything about the matter; he said that on the way to the station house.

Q. What did you say to him that led him to say this to you ? A. I asked him if he done it .

Q. Done what ? A. If he pointed a pistol at this man . He said he did not know anything about it . He said the same thing at the station house . I searched him and found a revolver on him loaded with powder and ball; there were five chambers loaded .

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I did not know the defendant before I arrested him that morning . The character he bears in the neighborhood is good as far as I can learn. His character as to peace and quietness is good .

Q. At the time you arrested him what was his condition as to sobriety ?

A. Well, he had been drinking but he was not drunk.

THOMAS CONNOR, a ~~wit~~ defendant , sworn, testified:

I live at No. 445 West 32nd Street in this city and have lived there for thirty years. I was a soldier in the war for three years and received an honorable discharge. I never was in anyb trouble in my lifebefore and this is the first time I was^{ver} upon the witness stand . I dd not know the complainant before the occurrencehe has spoken of . I knew he had a placeof business there, as my family buys the^{er} groceries at his store. Ire- member the morning that this thing happned but I dont ~~know~~ know the date . I went to hisstore that morning for milk at about quarter to six; it was quite dark.

Q. Now when you went into thestore statewhat occurred?

A. I went in there about quarter to six and I was in a hurry to go to work. I ran against a man that was inside the door and he ran back . I put the pitcher on the counter. I did not know what was the matter with the man. He went to a littlebox and he kept looking at me ad I ran back as far as the door. When I ran as far as the door he had something in his hand, and I ran over^{as} far as my house. I stopped a while at the house and then I thought of the milk pitcher which I ^let on the counter in this man's store.

Q. You say the complainant ran back and looked in a box; what kind of a box was that ? A. KIt is a blue box; it ^{was} back in a sort of a kitchen . I couldnot exactly tell what kind of a box ~~it~~ was .

Q. What did you do then ? A. Whn I thought of the pitcher I went back; I took the revolver with me; I did not go inside of the store with the revolver but I stood on the sidewalk. I did not have the revo lver when I went there the first time. I stood at the door of his store with the revolver and I was going to go in for the pitcher but I was afraid and so I went home a- gain. The complainant did not close the door on me and I did not try to get inside. I saw the complainant the second time I went there but I dont know that he said any- thing to me . I bought this revolver to protect myself; I live on the second floor of a tenment house and there is always somebdy sleeping in the hall. The hall door of the house was not kept locked at nights. This is a pretty hard neighborhood and there are gangs a- round there .

JOHN HARLOW, the complainant, recalled :

Q. Whn the defendant struck you in the breast did you go to any blue box in your store ? A. No sir .

Q Haveyou any blue box ? A . No sir .

Q Did you open any box at all whn he struck you ?

A. No sir .
