of Twenty Eight dollars - Said property being in value of Thirty Eight 50/100 Dollars, the value of thirty eight 50/100
the property of deponent

was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by

Dennis Madden
(now here) for the reasons following:
That on the evening of June 30th the said property was contained in the pockets of the clothing then worn by deponent when deponent went to the Pier where said Steamer was lying deponent missed the said property - Deponent was informed by George Whinnah that at 12 o'clock P.M. on the first day of July the said defendant presented the said passage Ticket vs.

Robert Mc Guinness

An application has been made in behalf of bail in this case for his discharge.

It is unlikely that the case can be tried for the present, and as I have reason to believe that the defendant would appear if called for trial, I am willing that he be discharged on his own recognizance.

Police Court—First District.

of No. 199 Mulberry Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the Night of the 21 day of June 1880 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away from the possession of deponent, And from deponent's the following property, viz:

The Gold Watch And Chain And a pocket book Containing bills of various denominations to the amount of sixteen dollars United States issue And Collectively of the value of One hundred and Sixty Six Dollars,

was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Thos. McFar alias Stretch And Richard Gilman and Richard Bogy. That deponent was asleep on the stoop of the aforsaid premises (where deponent resides) on the night in question when the defendants approached him and took from <sup>out of</sup> his pocket of his vest the watch the chain being attached thereto; And took from an inside pocket of deponent's vest the pocket book and money which it contained that deponent is informed Deponent is the defendant in this by Mr John Carroll that he saw the aforesaid defendants around this deponent and saw them acting together open deponents vest and put their hands upon his clothing and into the pockets of deponents pantaloons and vest and after they had rifled and searched deponents clothing they went away all of which deponent believes to be true. Therefore deponent charges said defendants with so taking stealing and carrying away from deponents possession and from the aforesaid property
