of No. 184 Grand Street, aged 53 years, occupation Manufacturer being duly sworn.deposes and says, that the premises No 184 Grand Street, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a two story and attic brick building and which was occupied by deponent as a Manufactory and in which there was at the time no human being, by namewere BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly opening the door leading from Grand St into deponent's store on the 1st floor of said premises by means of false or skeleton key.on the 7th day of August 1889 in the Night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:Six firemen's Caps. and a number of shirts about eleven. together of the value of about seventeen dollars.the property of Deponent and his copartner Thomas Anderson.

and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by Joseph Lesser and Max Rosenthal.

(both Norwhe)for the reasons following, to wit: That at about the hour of 6.30 O'clock P.M. August 7th deponent locked and securely fastened the doors and windows of the store at said premises and left said premises leaving said property therein. and when deponent returned to said premises on the following Morning August 8 at 8 O'clock A.M. deponent found a number of firemen's

0048

Caps and shirts. Dependant notified the police of his loss on the same morning. Dependant is informed by Detective Sergeant John McCauley and Stephen O'Brien that they the said detectives found in the barber shop of James P. Cantalupo at no 84 Suffolk St. a number of firmens caps. they the officers then arrested the defendant Lesser. When he Lesser admitted to them the Officers that he Lesser had been into dependant place on several occasions and had taken firmens caps and shirts. and that he had given the firmens caps and shirts to the defendant Ruenthal for him Ruenthal to sell. and that on the morning of the 5th of August he Lesser had entered dependant place. and had taken twelve caps and eleven shirts. and had given all the caps to Ruenthal to sell and that he Ruenthal well knew that said property had been stolen. Dependant is further informed by the said Cantalupo that all of caps found in his barber shop had been brought there by the defendant Ruenthal.

Wherefore dependant charges the said defendants with being together and acting in concert with each other. and burglariously entering said premises as aforesaid and feloniously taking stealing and carrying away said property.

The People v. Abraham Levy (Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Gildersleeve.
Monday, Sept. 23. 1889.

A jury was empanelled to determine the question as to the sanity of the defendant.

Allen Fitch, sworn and examined by Mr. Davis.

Q What is your name, doctor.

A Allen Fitch.

Q You are a physician and surgeon.

A Yes sir.

Q Do you hold any public position.

A Yes, sir, I am the examiner of the insane for the Department of Charities and Correction.

Q Do you know this defendant, Abraham Levy. A. Yes, sir, I have examined him several times.

Q You have examined him.

A Yes sir.

Q As to his mental condition.

A I have.

Q Do you find him, is he now sane or insane. A. I find him insane.

Q And do you believe, doctor, from your examination of him, and considering his present mental condition that he could make a defence to this charge, even if he had one.

A No. I do not believe that he could make a defence or advise his Counsel.

Q You do not believe that he could explain his defence to his Counsel rationally so as to enable his Counsel to defend him.

A I know he could not.

By the Court. Q He could not understand the proceedings.

A I do not think so at all. I think he is suffering from primary dementia or a condition of insanity called pubescence, probably due to masturbation to a great extent. He is very much excited, being irrational, incoherent, sleepless at night, with delusions of grandeur and self importance. He tells me that he is married to a very beautiful woman he has never seen, and that he hopes to be President of the United States. His delusions change from time to time of self importance and grandeur one on top of the other until it is simply a matter of incoherency and irrational rambling.

Matthew D. Field, sworn and examined by Mr. Davis.

Q Dr. Field, you are a physician and surgeon. A. I am, yes sir.

Q Do you hold any public position. A. I am the examiner in lunacy for the Department of Charities and Correction.

Q Do you know this defendant.

A. I have seen him on two or three occasions.

Q Have you made an examination of him as to his mental condition.

A. I have, yes sir.

Q Is he at present sane or insane.

A. He is insane.

Q What is his special form of insanity at present. A. Well, I should call it the insanity of pubescence.

There are three or four classifications you might give it. You might take one classification: it is insanity that occurs in young men having passed puberty and generally associated with masturbation, and is manifested by the physical evidence of bad circulation. They have these general ideas, grandiose ideas, silly bombast in all actions. He is very much excited, and has been, they tell me, ever since he has come to the Tarubs. I saw him first the 3^d of September and twice since I think.

Q Doctor, he is charged here with a crime. Is his mental condition such as to enable him to explain his defence rationally to his counsel if he had one. A No sir, I do not think he could rationally commit an offence. I think he is as thoroughly irrational as any person you could find.

By Counsel Q From your examination, doctor, can you tell us how long he has been afflicted thus.

A O no, but some time probably.

By Mr. Davis Q Is his form of insanity dangerous - is it dangerous to others.

A He would be dangerous to property; he would tear and destroy. His silly ideas of bombast that might lead him to do all sorts of things, such as falling in the street;

0069

that sort of offence. I do not think he would probably take human life, but he would frighten with
By the Court ^{his first & probably everything he saw at large} & had he capacity to understand the proceedings necessary to his trial.

A No sir. I think not.

The jury rendered a verdict that the defendant was insane.

The Court committed him to the Hudson River Hospital for the Insane at Poughkeepsie.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, AGAINST

Dominico Soreng

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Dominico Soreng

of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said Dominico Soreng, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the second day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one Rocco Montanari, of the proper moneys, goods chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said

Rocco Montanari,

That a certain paper writing in the words
and figures following, to wit:

"Five years after the ratification of a Treaty of Peace between the Confederate States and the United States the Confederate States of America will pay to the bearer on demand
Fifty Dollars. Richmond, Va. 14th 1864

L. Devine

Emerson

For Register

For Treasurer"

0090

which he the said Dominico Sorensen then and there produced and delivered to the said Rocco Montanin, was then and there a good and valid bill of paper money, legal tender of the United States of America, and of the value of fifty dollars.

And the said Rocco Montanin

then and there believing the said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Dominico Sorensen and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said Dominico Sorensen, the sum of forty nine dollars and seventy five cents in money, lawful money of the United States of America, and of the value of forty nine dollars and seventy five cents, and a quantity of medicine of the value of twenty five cents, of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Rocco Montanin.

And the said Dominico Sorensen did then and there feloniously receive and obtain the said proper moneys, goods, chattels, and personal property, from the possession of the said Rocco Montanin by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Rocco Montanin of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said paper money which he the said Dominico Sorensen as aforesaid then and there produced and delivered to the said

Rocco Montanin was not then and there a good and valid piece of paper money, legal tender of the United States of America, and was not of the value of fifty dollars or of any value, but was then and there wholly worthless.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Domenico Sorengo to the said Rocco Montanin was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as he the said Domenico Sorengo at the time of making the same then and there well knew

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said Domenico Sorengo in the manner and form aforesaid, by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Rocco Montanin then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

Dear Sir,

I have examined Wilhelmina Meidecker, aet 10. I beg to state that I find on the right labium majus, six venereal sores, chancroidal in character, while the left labium majus is thickly studded with ulcers of the same kind. The lymphatic glands are enlarged in the right groin. The hymen has been ruptured. I would advise hospital treatment for this child.
