the property of Deponent

and that this deponent
has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by from his person Daniel Gallagher (now here) for the reason that on said while deponent was in Oliver Street and had the aforesaid property in his hand, this defendant snatched the same from deponents hand and ran away with said watch and chain. Wherefore deponent charges defendant

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Samuel Gluck

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The goods in question were given to me on memorandum by Mr. G. Brenauer of No. 1083 Second Avenue and I in turn delivered them to the defendant upon memorandum. As Mr Brenauer held on for the goods, I accordingly looked to this defendant and upon his omission to account, therefore I began this proceeding. Since then Mr Brenauer has reached the conclusion that the defendant did honestly lose the goods, and is averse to continuing any prosecution and from such information as I have received this defendant has never been before guilty of or even charged with crime, but has always lived an honest life with old and respectable parents of whom he is the chief support.

Mr Brenner and myself have agreed to share the loss between us, and respectfully request the dismissal of this charge which we cannot in good conscience prosecute.

Leah Brenner being duly sworn says that he has read the fugitive affidavit of Mrs. Freda and so far as it relates to this defendant the same is true to assist the defendant, and as evidence of defendant belief in his innocence he has bailed him out.

deposes and says, that on the 8 day of August 1893 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

One diamond ring of the value of fifty five dollars ($55.00)

the property of Gabriel Brenner and in deponent's care

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by by the following reasons to wit: The defendant represented to deponent that he had a purchaser for the said property and that if he did not effect a sale he would return the said property to deponent.

Deponent believing the representation to be true gave the defendant the said property. The defendant has on several occasions demanded the return of the said property or the money. The defendant received money for the same but the defendant has failed to return the said property.
