at the City of New York, in the County of New York,

John Porter (now deceased) did violently and feloniously make an assault upon and beat and ill treat this deponent, a married woman of the age of twenty nine years, with intent, and against the will of deponent, to forcibly ravish and carnally know this deponent, under the following circumstances, to wit:

That about half past ten o'clock on the said night of the 25th day of August 1880, deponent and her brother, James Leary, were on Second Avenue near 14th street waiting for a car, and after waiting a while, deponent concluded to go to the 3rd Avenue for a car, then deponent and her said brother turned and started to go through 14th street for that purpose, deponent's brother walking a short distance in advance and had turned into 14th street when deponent was suddenly assaulted from behind by the said John Porter who took hold of deponent's shoulder by the neck, and threw deponent with great violence on the sidewalk, said Porter saying to deponent at the time words, in substance, that he would have carnal knowledge of deponent; that said John Porter then placed his left hand over deponent's mouth and pulled up her skirt with his right hand and then took out his private parts and put them against deponent's body; that deponent offered all the resistance that was in her power by kicking and 0310

making as much noise as was possible for her to do, and by putting her left hand over her private parts, whereupon the said John Porter struck deponent's right hand three or three times with his fist in order to compel deponent to take her said hand away and he failing to do that, said John Porter did strike deponent several blows in the face with his fist and threatened to take deponent's life if deponent did not quietly submit to his desire; that deponent's brother then came up and compelled said John Porter to desist and to get off of deponent's body. Therefore deponent prays that the said John Porter may be dealt with as the law directs.
