and thirty two cents the property of deponent and her husband George W. King and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by

for the reasons following, to wit: That on the above date at about the hour of twelve o'clock P.M. deponent left her apartment and a police officer peculiarly selected and fastened the door, about at or about the hour of five o'clock P.M. deponent returned and discovered that her apartment

had been burglariously entered and the aforesaid property stolen.
 That defendant suspected the said Rye from the fact that he occupied the room on said floor with defendant and the further fact that he was seen leaving said premises with a package on said date; defendant caused said Rye to be arrested by Officer James K. Price of the 25 Police Precinct who informed defendant that he found in the possession of said person a brown leather bag that said bag would represent a portion of the property which was stolen to wit the Black Bull of St. Louis
