Charles Johnson
of No. House of Detention Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 27th day of May 1880 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away from the possession of deponent, And from deponent's the following property, viz: Good and Lawful Money Consisting of one bill of the denomination and of the value of One Dollar, the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Little Bradley

Now here from the fact that while deponent was in company with the prisoner in the premises 336 Water Street, She deliberately thrust her hand into an inside pocket of deponent's coat which contained said property and took therefrom the property in question and tore the pocket in her effort to carry said property away that the said money had been abstracted therefore by the said Annie Brown; that deponent kept in company with the said Annie Brown until he met Officer William Clarke whom he asked to arrest said Annie Brown; that when deponent arrived at the 18th Police Precinct Station House he examined his pocket book and found it entirely empty; that deponent was informed by the said officer Clarke that he had found upon the <sup>Station House while searching</sup> floor of the said Annie Brown the sum of One hundred and fifty dollars in notes or bills, consisting of One One hundred dollar bill; Five, ~~Five~~ dollar bill; and Ten, Five dollar bill - now her own - and which money is fully identified by deponent as his property.

Deponent further says that the said Annie Brown told deponent, after she was arrested, that she would return the aforesaid money if deponent would let her go - Deponent therefore charges the said Annie Brown with the said larceny from the person of deponent.

Anna Thompson of No 315 E 111th Street being duly sworn says that on the 28 day of May 1880 Edward Butler came to her apartments on the 3<sup>d</sup> floor of said premises and left a pair of pantaloons. That about ten minutes thereafter he returned and wanted to leave some packages which she refused and ordered said Butler to take said pantaloons away. That said Butler took some papers out of said pantaloons pocket and placed them in a table. The papers are annexed and are identified by Carmichael the Complainant as part of the property that was stolen from him as described in the within affidavit.

Being Cross Examined. He lived at my home. He commenced living there about two months ago. He left there about four weeks ago. I did not see him when he came to my home with the clothes. I ordered him out, he came then in a rage & had been drinking. "I go out by days work to support myself." I worked for Mr. David Wood family. I worked one day for him last week & got 10 shillings. I took work in the same last week.
