DAVIDGE FERTILIZER CO.,
121 FRONT ST.
DAVIDGE BRANDS
ESTABLISHED 1876.

My dear Mr. Christianson:-

New York, June 14th, 1893.

In July 1890 an employee in our office - one Charles Ricketts - was discharged for dissipation. He was very efficient and we believe this to be his one fault in business. An examination of his accounts after his discharge, however, divulged the fact that he had forged several checks (perhaps six) amounting in all to some $500. He was arrested and plead guilty and was sentenced to seven years and six months in states prison. The maximum punishment for forgery of his grade in Aug./90, when he was sentenced, was ten years; but I am told that it has since been reduced to five years. His record in prison is, I am told, excellent. He has a family to support and he claims to be anxious to provide for them and to indemnify or to make restitution to the banks and ourselves who lost by him. I believe him to be sincere. I was the complainant on behalf of the banks, and I have written to Gov. Flower and to Recorder Smyth. The Gov. answered, that the matter should receive his attention; but I have received no reply from the Recorder. Yesterday I met Detective Maddern, who said that he had just been summoned by the District Att'y, to report what he knew of Ricketts. He ascribed this to my application for clemency. Hearing from you of your acquaintance with Judge Fitzgerald, am I asking too much, when I request your offices through Judge Fitzgerald with Recorder Smyth on Rickett's behalf? I repeat, that I believe Ricketts is penitent and is anxious to make amends. I should like therefore to aid him in doing so. He has served since Aug. 1890.

Yours very truly,

Wm. B. ...

Mrs Williams of No 335 East 32nd Street.
 Occupation. I am a widow and live with my sister at the above number. She has a liquor store there, and I assist her in the business.
 I know the defendant for 8 or 9 years, and he is an honest, industrious and sober young man. I remember the 28th day of July, 1890. That was the day defendant was arrested. He had been in my sister's place this same day, at about 2 P. M.
 He came in with a young man named John Mc Guade and another young man, I do not know his name but would know him if I should see him. I can not say the exact time when they came in, but I do know that after they had a glass of beer, the defendant, in reply to my request to play on the accordion, said after looking at the clock, that it was 2 o'clock, that he was going for his tools, and therefore had no time. In about 4 or 5 minutes after they came in they all went out. The defendant was sober when he came in and also when he went out. The reason why I asked the defendant to play on the accordion is because he is a very nice player and all the neighbors like to hear him. I know of my own knowledge that this is the first time the defendant has been arrested, and he is known by all the neighbors as a decent, respectable young man.

Emilie Williams

Patrick Finn of No. 337 East 38th Street.
Occupation, telegraph messenger.
American District. Have been employed there on and off for the past 9 years.

I have known the defendant James F. Roach for about 9 months. I remember Monday the 28th day of July, 1890. The defendant was arrested on this day. He was arrested at First Avenue and 19th Street. I was with him at the time of his arrest; John McQuade was also there. About one o'clock on the afternoon of July 28th. McQuade and I were standing on the corner of Second Avenue and 32nd Street, when the defendant came up. We stood a while on the corner, and then McQuade asked defendant if he could treat, and the defendant said he did not have the money but if we would go to Mrs Williams's place, his name was good for a drink. We left the corner and went to Mrs Williams's place and had a drink of beer, I do not know what the time was when we reached her place, but after we had got the drink, Mrs Williams asked defendant, who is known as a good player on the accordion, to play, but the defendant said he had no time, as it was then 2 o'clock and that he had to go for his tools at 13th Street and Avenue C. We then left the saloon; this was some five or six or six minutes after we had drank the beer. Went down 32<sup>d</sup> Street to First Avenue and then down the Avenue to 19th Street, where the defendant was arrested. We did not go into Boylans Saloon, and I know that the defendant did nothing to the complainant and had never seen him until the time of his arrest. When the officer arrested Roach and told us what for, I asked him to take complainant and defendant into Boylans and see what he knew in there about it, but he refused to do so. At the time of the arrest, I noticed the complainant and he appeared to me to be drunk.

Patrick Finn

I concur in the correctness of the foregoing statement.

John C. McQuade

James F. Roach defendant 323 East 22<sup>d</sup> St. lived there 9 years and is 23 years old. Was working for John Fuller 349 E. 78th St. at the time

 Jeremiah McCarty 203 E. 20th St.
 Was arrested on Monday July 28th at about 3 P.M. at the corner of First Ave and 19th St. John McQuade and Pat Finn were with him at the time of his arrest. at the time of his arrest defendant was on his way to 13th St bet.
 Ave. B. + C. for his tools. On the Saturday before Mr. Fuller stopped work on this job and after he had paid the defendant told him that he would have work on Madison St. which would start on Wednesday on Thursday of the following week.
 After having been paid off he discovered that Fuller had locked his tools up in what the men call the locker and he could not get them until Monday. On Monday he left his home at about 1 P.M. intending to go down after his tools but first walked to the corner of 32<sup>d</sup>

St. and Second Ave. where he found Funn + M<sup>c</sup>Quade standing. McQuade asked defendant to treat them defendant said that he had no money but if they would go down to Mrs Williams place his name would be good for a drink there.
 Saturday defendant had received $11.00 from Fuller out of which he paid $4.00 at home for food $2.50 for a pair of pants $2.00 for a pair of shoes $1.00 to a Mr. Conway money owed and 45 cents for a drink when they got into the saloon kept by Mrs Williams defendant noticed by the clock over the bar that it was 2 P.M. after having a glass of beer Mrs Williams asked him to give them some music on the accordion but defendant said that as it was 2 o'clock he had no time as he had to go to 13th St and Ave. B. for his tools. M<sup>c</sup>Quade, Funn and defendant then left and walked down 32nd St. to 7th Ave. then down to near 19th St. where he was arrested and charged by complainant with having taken

Police Department of the City of New York,

Precinct No. 10

New York, August 11, 1886

This article's that I have this day examined Mary Pittman aged 10 years, residence 199 Elizabeth St. who it is alleged is the victim of rape committed by Giuseppe Brinnacino aged 13 years, residence 44 Elizabeth St. Mary Pittman is a white married girl, not married, showing recent blood spots. Her hymen has been lacerated.

It is my opinion, that her genitals have been forcibly entered recently.

I have also examined Giuseppe Brinnacino. He has arrived at puberty. There are recent blood spots upon his shirt and drawers.

Police Department of the City of New York,

Precinct No.....

New York, ..... 188<sup>8</sup>

The delicate fold of mucous membrane connecting the jawbone to the penis has been recently lacerated. This laceration has been caused by some act of violence such as might be the case ~~as~~ with forcible attempts to introduce the erect organ into the female opening.

Respectfully Submitted

Mr. F. Schwab M.D.

Mary Kerwin (now present) a female child of the age of ten years. - in that he the said Giuseppe Romano did on said day at about 6 o'clock P. M., take the said child Mary Kerwin in a water closet situated in the yard of number 199 Elizabeth

 Joseph Thomas. whose real name is Francis Fitzgerald.

City and County of New York ss:

Ellen Fitzgerald being duly sworn says that she is the mother of the defendant above named who will attain the age of twenty years on the 25th day of November of the present year.

That for the past twelve years our family have resided at No 23 Varick Street in this City.

That defendant has always resided with his parents, has never absented himself from home and that at about the age of 16 years he left the public schools and sought work, having now labored at various duties for about four years last past.

That his first work was in the capacity of a District Messenger boy at which he remained for about one year - after that he continued for about another year assisting an elder brother named Edward in the Grocery business at the corner of Beach & Varick Street New City; the business being discontinued being the cause of his then seeking & obtaining further employment with one William Becker of Cor Canal & West Broadway, engaged in business of putting in Elevators and with the latter also remained about one year and his business getting quiet, said Becker obtained a position for dependant with one William H. Jones, a Saloon Keeper at West Broadway between York and Beach streets as an assistant Barkeeper and upon my request after being there about nine months he left, as I did not like him to be confronted all the day with Liquor & come in contact with the people who generally frequent Saloons - after a few days of idleness he was called upon several times by a German who desired to have him assist him in vending vegetables around the City and at the first days work, he was arrested and charged with the crime herein

That during all the years and time of his labors the defendant was a good and faithful son. That the free money he earned during the four years of his working, he brought home to me. ~~the full sum~~ ~~in the same condition as the~~ ~~of money~~, he received from his several employers. That he was always sober and steady and I always instructed him to get into good company and to ~~not~~ avoid evil ways. This is his first time of arrest since that during the celebration upon the election of Grover Cleveland President of the United States my boy was locked up for making a bon fire in this city and was discharged by the police justice upon examination.

City of New York vs William H. Jones being duly sworn says that I reside and do business (saloon) at No. 154 West Broadway between York and Beach St. in this city. Am aged about 37 years born in this city and have always resided here. For 17 years I was employed by Joseph H. Merri & Co Tea Merchants.

That I am well acquainted with the defendant herein, he having ~~been~~ been in my employment for about nine months, commencing work about the month of November 1889, as an assistant barkeeper about my place. I gave him work upon the recommendation of one Wm Becker who spoke well of the boy & who informed me he had worked for him and found him a good and honest boy.

That about the month of June of this year the defendant quit me and my service and of his own free will.

Deponent further says that during the time he was in my employ, I had every occasion to learn and study the young man. I have entrusted him with money and valuables and he <sup>had</sup> free access to everything about the place - and if he had, at any time any bad intentions he could have taken property away from me to value of several hundred dollars. I had full confidence in the boy and would give him work tomorrow if I needed any body.

So far as I know the defendant did not drink any spirituous liquor while in my employ, and to what cause or other the defendant being now charged with a crime, I am unable to ascribe the fault to. I have known several members of the defendant's family for about two years last past, and have always <sup>heard</sup> each and every one of them well spoken Becker being duly sworn says as follows.

I reside at No 38 Randsam Street and have been located at next to the corner of Canal Street and West Broadway in said City for the past six years when I carry on the business of Elevators repairing the same and placing new one in buildings.

I am acquainted with the defendant's family and have known the several members thereof during the past eight or nine years and they are regarded as a respectable and law abiding residents and citizens in the community. I am acquainted with a number of people who are also well acquainted with them and upon all occasions they have been well spoken of.

as an assistant in my business during the latter part of the year 1888. I employed the defendant and he remained in my service and pay for about one year's time terminating his labors about the latter part of the year 1889. at which time work with me getting slack I was forced to let him go.
 When he did leave my service I recommended ~~to~~ him to Com. Jones who at my suggestion and request gave him employment. - During all the time that said defendant was in my service I found him to be an industrious & hardworking faithful and honest lad and never had occasion <sup>to</sup> find any fault with him. I had implicit confidence in him and at various times he collected considerable sums of money for my account and upon each and every occasion made a correct and truthful report and return.
 Deponent further says that at this time were the defendant at liberty - he would willingly give him employment in and about his business notwithstanding.

standing the charge for which he is now before the Court for sentence having pleaded guilty to an attempt of grand larceny.

Save the one time of arrest as mentioned in his mother's affidavit, outside of this case, I have never known the
