The People
 vs.
 William West } Court of General Sessions, Part I
 Before Judge Gildersleeve, Dec. 16, 1884.

Victor Dehan, sworn and examined, testified through the interpreter. Where do you live?
 No 154 Thompson St. And your business is what? I am with my father who has a boarding house and a lodging house. Do you know the prisoner? Yes sir. When did you see him first to your recollection? It was on a Friday evening, he came and hired a room. That was the first time I ever saw him. He was with a woman whom he said was his wife; he passed the night at the house. On Saturday evening he came again with his wife and hired a room and his wife came at two or three in the morning and went into the room. The next morning it was Sunday morning about half past eight he came with another man, a white man and both looked a little as if they had passed the whole night drinking and they were very noisy; so they wanted to go up to the room. I said, they have no right to come up to the room, it is only for a night they hired the room. Besides, I said that I hired the room only for him and his wife and the other man had no right to go up to the room. We had put him out three or four times every man he came in, and the fourth time we put him out again he was asking me to give him his money back. I said he had the room for the night and he cannot have the money back. Then he was out in the street some one came to the door and I went to open the door, and the moment I opened the door he jumped at me and cut me with a razor. I could not say if it was a razor or anything else, but the doctor said that it is a cut from the razor. He tried again to cut me, but I shut the door and went into the room. He went to the Police station and made a complaint and gave a description of the man and he was arrested on a Friday, the week following. I was sick then. I was not present. The wound was on the left arm. I cannot stretch out my arm yet; it did not bleed much; the doctor said it was poison. Dr. Caro was attending to the wound. It is forty two days since it happened. I did not strike or kick him or do anything before he "slashed" me with the razor or knife. I did not see him till he rushed at me.

Cross Examined. My father has kept this lodging house five years. The prisoner paid me for the room on Friday night; he left about eleven o'clock at noon with his wife on Saturday. He paid for the room on Saturday night; he came at 9 o'clock Saturday night and engaged a room for himself and wife and paid for it and went away; they paid 75 cents; the wife came at three o'clock Sunday morning. We have one club in four house because sometimes people come in who are very noisy and rough and we have to put them out; we only use the club when they show fight. I was obliged to put the prisoner and the man who was with him out because they both were about to go into the room by force. There is no drinking saloon connected with the house. Louis Marchand sworn. I was in the office and I saw the colored man (the prisoner) on the side walk, and at the time the door was open he rushed to the door and cut the complainant. I am employed in the same house. The complainant did not do anything to West before he cut him. Cross Examined. I have been employed in this house eight months. Ask him does he play chambermaid in that concern? Yes sir. I did not see any club used. I did not hear the prisoner ring the bell that morning. I saw him when he was walking in front of the house.
