Court of Oyer and Terminer

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Maurice Ward

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment accuse Maurice Ward

of the crime of Perjury, committed as follows:

Heretofore, to wit: on Tuesday, the seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (the same being the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday of the said month of November), there was held a general election throughout the State of New York and in and throughout the said City and County of New York;

And on the day and in the year aforesaid, and at the said election, the said Maurice Ward, late of the City and County, being a resident of the Twenty sixth Election District of the Eighth Assembly District of the said City and County, and a voter entitled to vote at the said election in the said election district, for the purpose of voting at the said election, did personally present himself at the duly designated polling place of the said election in and for the said election district, the polls of the said election in and for the said election district being then open, and to and before Thomas M. Mahan, John A. Dunphy and Charles J. Rague then and there being the Inspectors of Election of the said election district, at the said election, at a meeting of the said Inspectors of Election then being duly held in the said polling place for the purposes of the said election.

And the said Maurice Ward did then and there desire and require of the said Inspectors of Election that he might select a person for the purpose of assisting him to receive and prepare his ballots, and who should be allowed to pass within the guard rail of the said polling place and receive his official ballots, and enter one of the voting booths of the said polling place, with him, and there assist him in preparing his ballot.

And thereupon he, the said Maurice Ward was then and there in due form of law sworn, and did take his corporal oath, by and before the said Inspectors of Election, touching his right to select such person to assist him in receiving and preparing his ballots as aforesaid, they, the said Inspectors of Election, then and there having full and competent power and authority to administer the said oath to the said Maurice Ward in that behalf.

And the said Maurice Ward being so sworn as aforesaid, upon his oath aforesaid, before the said Inspectors of Election, then and there feloniously, wilfully, knowingly and corruptly, did falsely swear, declare and say, that by reason of defective eyesight
 he, the said Maurice Ward was then and there unable to receive or prepare his ballots without assistance.

Whereas, in truth and in fact he, the said Maurice Ward was not by reason of defective eyesight then and there unable to receive or prepare his ballots without assistance, as he then and there well knew.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say that the said Maurice Ward in manner and form aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, knowingly, corruptly and falsely, did commit wilful and corrupt perjury; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

BARNEY MOORE, testified that he lived at 1876 Third Avenue. He is a licensed vendor and peddler of fruit. In his business he uses a horse and wagon. He stables on 99th Street, between 2nd and 3rd Avenue. It is on the South side. It is a one-story, frame building. Mr. Kelly stables there also. On the night of November 30th he left his horse and wagon in the stable about half-past 4, and fed the horse. About half-past 8 he, the witness, went to the stable, and the horse was there, at that time, all right. He, the witness locked the stable at half-past 8, and left the horse in the stable and the wagon outside in the yard. He returned to the stable the next morning between 5 and 6 o'clock, and found that the horse and wagon were missing. also the lock that he left on the stable door. He, the witness, had known White, one of the defendants, for a month or so. None of the defendants worked for him, the witness, and none of them had authority to take the horse or wagon. The value of the horse and wagon was $50.

He saw the horse and wagon at a livery stable since the robbery,---the next morning, at 11 o'clock. He found his wagon, also, next morning, at the station-house door. It was broken. The livery stable was in 35th Street, opposite the station-house. He saw Officer Binning in the police-court with the defendants.

ROBERT J. BINNING testified that he is an officer connected with the 21st Precinct. On November 30th, about a quarter to 11, he arrested the three defendants. They were in a peddler's wagon, driving down Third Avenue at a furious rate, and he, the witness, shouted to them to stop, and chased them, and they ran into an Elevated Railroad post, and that stopped the wagon, and he, the witness, arrested White, and another officer arrested the other two. He, the witness, made a charge of reckless driving against White, and disorderly conduct against the others. He, the witness, put the horse in the livery stable and the wagon in front of the station-house. The complainant identified his property---the horse and wagon. He, the witness, asked the defendants who owned the horse and wagon, and they said they didn't know. He, the witness, had no further conversation with the defendants. White, however, said they got the property from some "fellow."

White said to one of the other defendants, "Now, don't give this duck any information."

In

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

The next day he, the witness, went to the complainant's stable, and found the staple pulled out and the lock was gone. He, the witness, had no conversation with the defendant Burns, but, upon investigation, learned that Burns worked steadily, and that his parents were respectable people, and he had never before been in trouble. The defendants were not intoxicated at the time of the arrest.

BARNEY MCCORE, the complainant, being recalled, testified, that he had been stabling at that place since May 15th. He always had a lock for the door, but sometimes his boy would leave it open. He saw White about half-past 4 on the day of question, in the lot, with a can of beer with some other boys. He could not recognize the other boys. He, the witness, never ordered White or the other boys to do anything with the horse or wagon.

THE DEFENSE.

THOMAS BURNS, one of the defendants, testified that he lived at 1883 2nd Avenue, between 97th and 98th Street. with his mother. He was never before in trouble. He had been employed in the barber, the towing and the cracker business. He worked for Thomas McShane, 1885 2nd Avenue, barber, learning the barber business, for two years . He also worked for Mullen & Corkery, in the ice and coal business. He got on the wagon, referred to, in 2nd Avenue between 96th and 97th Street. White was already in the wagon, driv-and Fitzgibbons and Mathews got in the wagon with the witness. The horse was going in the direction of downtown. The reason he, the witness, got in the wagon was, because White asked him to take a ride. White said, "Come on, and take a ride in the wagon." White was speaking to all three boys. Then he, the witness, got into the wagon, and remained in it until it broke down, by striking against the Elevated Railroad post. The Policeman then came over and made the arrest. On Thanksgiving Day he, the witness, asked to get off at 5 o'clock, and he then went home and took his brother's supper to him, at Madison Avenue and 86th Street--the railroad depot. He, the witness, remained with his brother about an hour and a half, and left about 8 o'clock. He returned home, and left, again, about 20 minutes to 9, and went to the candy store on 2nd Avenue, and bought some candy, and when he came out he saw White. He had known White 3 or 4 years. He, the witness, is 16 years old, but gave his age as 19 in the police court because he was not then certain as to his exact age, nor, in fact, is he now. He, the witness, willingly accepted White's invitation to take a ride, and did not know who owned the horse and wagon. He met White at 9 o'clock. White drove down 2nd Avenue to 68th Street and through to 3rd Avenue. He, the witness, did not ask White where he was going. Mathews and Fitzgibbons got on at the same time that he, the witness, got on the wagon. He, the witness, was in the back of the wagon and the others in the front, and he did not hear all that was said by the others. At 58th Street they stopped the wagon and sent a boy for a package of cigarettes. Mathews went in for the cigarettes. When they stopped, a lot of "ragamuffins" ~~went~~ got on, but ran away at 29th Street. He, the witness, saw Mathews at 24th street, where the wagon broke down. He, the witness, told the police justice that White asked him to take a ride. The police officer was present at the time.

In

RE-DIRECT-EXAMINATION

the witness testified that he did not hear the policeman cry out to them to stop, because the boys in the wagon were holloaing. He guessed at the time; he did not have the time with him. He said, from the first, that he was invited to take a ride. White and the other defendants did not attempt to sell the wagon. They only stopped to get the cigarettes.

JOSEPH FITZGIBBONS, one of the defendants, testified that he was 19 years old, in March. He is a conductor on the 5th Avenue stage line. He had never been convicted of any crime. He, the witness, recollected November 30th, being in company with Burns and Mathews, between 96th and 97th Street, near the 2nd Avenue Railroad Depot. He, the witness, first saw White coming down in the wagon, but he did not know who owned the wagon. He, the witness, got into the wagon between 96th and 97th Street. White hollered, "Come on, and take a ride," and he, the witness, and two other boys on the sidewalk jumped in the wagon and rode down. He, the witness, asked White where he was going, and he said, "just to take a ride." White made this remark twice.

White said he was going down to 79th Street. He, the witness, and Mathews and Burns got a-talking, and did not know they had gone down so far; and he, the witness, when he noticed that they were at 58th Street and Third Avenue, said, "I've got 5 cents, and I am going to get off and go home." White said, "We'll turn around soon. Buy a box of cigarettes." And he, the witness, sent Mathews for the cigarettes, and he returned and got in the wagon, and that stopped the horse and wagon outside of the cigar store, and then a lot of ragamuffins rushed into the wagon, 6 or 7 of them,---clim^{ed} in the rear end of the wagon. About 29th Street the wagon struck an Elevated railroad post, and broke the wheel. White then took the horse and brought him around the corner, and he stood there, and the policeman came over and said, "Was you in this wagon?" And he, the witness, said, "Yes." And then the policeman said, "I want you," and he took the witness. Then Burns came up with the cigarettes and the policeman arrested him, too. Nobody attempted to dispose of or sell the horse/and wagon. He, the witness, did not drink anything that evening. All the defendants appeared to be perfectly sober.

In

the witness testified that he gave the name of John Gorry in the police-court. That was his first father's name. He gave that name because he did not want his right name to be in the police-court. His stepfather's name is Fitzgibbons, and his, the witness's, name is Gorry. He, the witness, had known White about a year. He was in the habit of seeing him once or twice a week. He, the witness, did not know who owned the horse and wagon, but he had seen them before. He, the witness, had not been working on the day of the occurrence. He had been out of work about three weeks. He, the witness, rode down 2nd avenue to 68th Street, and across that Street to 3rd Avenue, and down 3rd Avenue. He, the witness, did not get off at 58th street, because White told him, the witness, he was going to turn home every block, but he went on, down to 24th Street, when the wagon struck the post and was broken. None of the defendants said anything in court, when asked what they had to say.

ADOLPH LEVENE testified that he lived at 53, 107th Street. and was in the real estate business. He, the witness, was acquainted with the defendant, Burns, but not with Fitzgibbons. He, the witness, knew the defendant, Burns', character to be good.

THOMAS MCSHANE testified that he resided at 1885 2nd Avenue. He is a barber. He had known the defendant Burns about eight years. Burns had been in his, the witness's, employ, on and off, about 2 or 3 years. He had been an apprentice. Burns' reputation for honesty was good.

Hon. Frank Smyth,

Dear Sir:-

On September 25th '93, the Merchants & Manufacturers' National Bank of Detroit, Mich. drew their draft No. 66175 on this Bank for $50., in favor of H.S. Robinson & Co., and by them endorsed over to the order of Robert E. Roberts of this City, who it appears never received it, and the draft in some way got into the hands of a young man by name of Wm. Wright who had it cashed by one John Christensen of 382 Eighth Avenue, after having been certified by this Bank. The boy was arrested and brought before the Grand Jury, and sent to the Elmira Reformatory on the 12th inst., and the draft is now in the hands of the Clerk of the Court. As this draft has been certified, thus becoming an outstanding obligation of this Bank, it is necessary that it be returned to us, so that we might make the proper entry, and in this way wipe it off our books. Mr. Roberts the payee, who is a commercial traveller, is now on a trip through the South and will not be back for some time, and on the 8th inst., a day or two before he went away, he showed
