duly George E. Oram
being further sworn ~~deponent~~ deposes and says that on the 7th day of June 1886, he personally visited the premises occupied by said Alfred Noyes, George Warren Elliott Lee and Alexander Shaw and referred to in the foregoing affidavit and there saw said Noyes, Warren, Lee and Shaw and had dealings and conversation with them in substance as follows, that is to say: Deponent went to an iron grated door at the entrance of the basement of No. 26 West 30th Street, and there first saw Alexander Shaw, who asked deponent what he wanted. Deponent replied, "I want to cash this ticket," holding up at the same time a ticket referred to in deponent's affidavit of the 7th inst. against John Doe and Richard Roe.

The said Shaw replied, "You have got a winner." Deponent said "Yes." The said Shaw then opened the iron gate and admitted deponent. Deponent went into the back part of said basement, where Alfred Noyes, George Warren and Elliott Lee were behind the counter or desk, while a number of other persons were in front making bets on horse races. Deponent went to the opening in front of the desk and handed Elliott Lee a ticket upon which was recorded a bet made on June 5th in the said place, upon the horse Royal Arch. The said Lee then addressed the said George Warren as "Jack" and said "Come here," and handed the said ticket to the said Warren. The said Warren looked at the said ticket, and the said Lee opened a book upon which the said bet was recorded, and made a mark upon said book with his pencil. The said Warren tore the said ticket in two and then opened the money drawer and counted out $25, and said "Here you are, Royal Arch twenty five." Deponent received the said $25. over the counter from the said Warren.

Deponent handed the said Alfred Noyes a five dollar bill and said, "I bet five dollars straight on Freeland, fourth race." The said Noyes placed the money in the drawer and called out "Thirty-five to five, Freeland straight." The said George Warren recorded the bet in a book, while the said Elliott Lee recorded the same upon a paper or ticket hereto an-nexed and marked "Exhibit B," and handed the said paper with the said bet so recorded to the said George Warren and handed it again to the said Alfred Noyes, who handed it to deponent.

Deponent further says, that the said Alexander Shaw did follow deponent into the back room and was there ~~where he~~ where he could see whatever business was going on, and the said Shaw did afterwards open the door and allow deponent and others to pass out, and deponent saw the said Shaw fasten the door and also unfasten the door and admit others in and out.
Deponent further heard the said Shaw say to Anthony Comstock, after the officers were in charge, "We do a commission business here." As deponent passed out he showed the said Shaw his ticket and said he had bet $5. on Freeland. The said Shaw after allowing deponent to pass out closed and fastened the ~~door~~ door. In a few moments afterwards deponent returned and said to the said Alexander Shaw, "I guess I will take a little more on Freeland." whereupon the said Shaw again opened the door and admitted deponent, and after deponent was inside the said Shaw said to deponent, "I don't think much of Freeland." Deponent further says, that he heard the said Noyes ask the said Shaw why he let deponent in, and the said Shaw replied, "He had a winning ticket and I thought he was all right." The said Noyes said, "I would not let him in any how."

Facts for Prosecution.

Catharine Brille the Complainant says that about 2 P. M. on the afternoon of the ~~2nd~~^{2nd} day of May, 1886, while alone with her two children aged 3 years and a baby in her arms in her room, the defendant came in, and after having locked the door said I am going to kill your husband, and I want you to stay with me, and if you don't I'll wait till your husband comes in and then there will be a row.

He ^{then} took out a revolver and placed it at her throat, and again said if you don't stay with me I'll kill you, and he showed ~~her~~ a stiletto, and said I'll put this in your stomach. After this she managed to escape, and went to a neighbour's and told them all about what the defendant had done ^{and} asked Rocco Parente to take care of her place until she went and got a policeman. She went to the station house, and when she returned the defendant was on the roof, where the police officer arrested him. The policeman has the stilts. She knows the defendant as he at one time boarded with complainant.

Defendant was perfectly sober at the time, and does not live in the house. He had been there before and offered to take liberties with complainant.

Age 10 years with intent to commit a felony by attempting to commit upon him the detestable and abominable crime against nature, under the following circumstances, as deponent is informed and for the following reasons truly believes.

That deponent has been informed by William Whitty deponent's brother, that about the hour of 5.30 P.M. on the above date as he was standing in company with a companion Thomas Sheridan age 11 years on the corner of 41st Street and 8th Avenue, they

That the said William Whitty succeeded in releasing his hands from his grasp, whereupon the defendant opened the door of the berth and permitted the said William Whitty and Thomas Sheridan to escape -

Wherefore defendant charges the said J. M. Doe with ~~conspiring~~ with intent to commit a felony and prays that he may be apprehended and dealt with according to law.

BRIEF FOR THE PEOPLE.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE.

The prisoner is indicted for an assault in the second degree upon a small boy named William Whitty, aged 10, by taking him into a closed booth and trying to make the boy suck his penis; on June 7th, 1886.

EVIDENCE FOR THE PEOPLE.

JOHN MIRROQUE: - Aged 14, lives at 306 West 41st Street.
On June 7, between 5 and 6 P.M., as witness was standing on corner of 41st Street and 8th Avenue, his attention was attracted to a crowd of boys around a booth and fruit stand on that corner. Witness went and peeking in the booth, saw the prisoner, whom he fully identifies, with his pants unbuttoned and his penis hanging out, grasping William Whitty by the back of the neck with one hand and pushing William down in such a position as to bring his mouth in close proximity with the prisoner's penis. Witness saw the prisoner rub his penis on the lips of the boy while holding him in this position. While the prisoner was still holding the boy, witness went to the door and tried to open it, and finally did succeed in opening the door.

WILLIAM WHITTY: - Aged 10, lives with his mother Sarah at 648 8th Avenue. Father is dead. On June 7th, 1886, at about 5 P.M., in company with another boy, Thomas Sheldon, aged 11, witness was passing the fruit stand of the prisoner at the corner of 41st Street and 8th Avenue. The prisoner hailed them and asked them to come into the booth. They went in and the prisoner then sent William Whitty out for a pint of mixed ale. Thomas Sheldon remained in the booth with the prisoner. Witness returned to the booth with the ale. The prisoner then bolted the door, took his penis out, and taking Sheldon by his hands, put one of his hands around the neck of Sheldon and tried to get Sheldon's mouth down to his penis. Witness tried to pull Sheldon away. The prisoner finally let go of Sheldon, and taking hold of witness pulled him down until the boy's mouth came in contact with his penis. The prisoner then tried to force his penis into the mouth of witness, but witness closed his teeth. The prisoner rubbed his penis through the boy's lips several times. While this was going on, Sheldon was kicking at the door to get out. The prisoner then put his penis into his pants and buttoned them up. Witness had been in the booth on other occasions, and while there the prisoner had taken them on his knee and tried to unbutton his pants from the waist.

THOMAS SHELDON: - Aged 11, and lives at 330 West 42nd Street. Will corroborate the statement of the foregoing witness.
