The People
vs.
John Malloy and John Gain.

Court of general Sessions, Part I.

Before Judge Gildersleeve.

March 1, 1896.

Indictment for burglary in the third degree.

Micheal L. Coyle sworn and examined. I live at 2018 Second Avenue and am a liquor dealer at 2125 Third Avenue, southeast corner of 116th Street, it is in the 12th ward; on the 8th of February I had about two hundred dollars worth of cigars in my store; to the best of my knowledge it was halfpast two on the morning of the 8th of February when I left my store, I locked up my premises and when I returned at twelve o'clock the next day I found the cellar door broken open and the window of the storm door broken, the side entrance on 116th Street. If a person got through the glass of the storm door they could not get immediate entrance to the house then but if they had time enough they could have forced another door and got in.

David W. Erskine sworn. I am an officer of the 12th precinct, I saw the defendants on the morning of the 8th of February on the northeast corner of 116th Street and Third Avenue, which was a liquor store; about four A. M. I was on the southeast corner and heard a noise of breaking of glass, I stopped for a moment to locate it and looked across the street, I saw the man up against the window, I immediately ran across the street and when within a few feet of Gain he discovered me and ran away, he was facing me and I was facing him, he ran east toward Second Avenue and at the same moment within a distance of eight or ten feet from him over towards the storm doors I saw the form of a man in the window and he began to run away and I went and grabbed him, I discovered it was Malloy, he had his head and body half in the window, the glass was broken, before I got over to him he had dropped down outside, I immediately arrested him and at the same moment there was a horse and sleigh with two men in it containing milk cans, I called to them to follow the man running up the street and have him intercepted, they immediately put the whip to their horse and followed him until he was intercepted, I then arrested Cain, the window that I saw the defendant Malloy in was facing Third Avenue about five feet from the ground, the window was broken I examined it afterwards and found that it was large enough to admit a man's body, I had seen Malloy before and knew him, when I first saw Cain he was about eight or ten feet from the storm door, standing up against the wall, he was eight or ten feet away from where Malloy was, up to that time I had not seen them together at any time.

Burton M. Pettit sworn. I am a milk man and remember the morning of the 8th of February, between four and half past four I went through 115th and 116th Streets, I first saw the prisoner Cain standing under a lamppost in 116th Street about two hundred feet away from the storm door, I next saw him at 114th and 115th Streets and Third Avenue, a citizen had hold of him, I saw him running from the northeast corner of 116th Street toward Second Avenue, I went up and took hold of the lappel of his coat and Officer Erskine shortly arrived.

John Malloy sworn and examined in his own behalf testified: I remember the night of my arrest, I lived in 106th Street near 3rd Avenue, I know where Coyle's liquor store is and have been going there these last four years, on the evening of my arrest I was tight and went up to get a drink, he used to keep open all night once in a while, I went to this storm door which was a little open and which I broke with my elbow because I was tight, the officer came over to me and said, you are trying to get into the place, I did not have my head and shoulders in, I bumped up against the pane of glass and broke it, I had no intention of breaking in to steal anything.

Cross Examined. I am a brass moulder but was not working at that time. Cain lives in Brooklyn. I met him at the corner of 117th Street about four o'clock, I was after coming from the Bowery and asked him to go and have a drink. We heard some noise inside of Coyle's place and I went around the other way to get in the back door and knocked at the storm door, I was not there more than two minutes when the officer came.

John Cain sworn and examined. I live at 57 Sackett Street Brooklyn and remember the night of my arrest, I had no intention of breaking into Coyle's place that night. I think I saw Malloy two or three times before I was arrested, I met him in Brooklyn but I was not acquainted with him, I met him this night in New York and he asked me to have a drink.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of an attempt to burglary in the third degree.

Edmund S. Wilson, being duly sworn, deposes and says :
That he resides in the 153 Jay Street, Brooklyn in the County of Kings and State of New York, and is 35 years of age, and is an expert appointed by Josiah K. Brown, New York State Dairy Commissioner ; That on the 1st day of October, 1885, in the store occupied by him, No. 110 Eighth Avenue street, in the City of New York in the County of New York and State of New York, one Francis J. Markham, against the form and statutes in such cases made and provided, and in violation thereof, and against the peace of the people of the State of New York, had in his possession, with intent to sell the same for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, a number of pounds of a substance, product, manufacture and compound, which was not Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, but had been made by manufacturing, mixing and compounding with and adding to a small quantity and proportion of natural Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of animal fats or animal or vegetable oils, and was a manufactured oleaginous substance not produced from Milk or Cream ; that it had been and was colored with some coloring matter whereby the same was made to resemble Butter.
the product of the Dairy, and was so colored thereby, in semblance of and resembled Butter, and did resemble Butter
the product of the Dairy ; that the said Markham offered said substance, product, manufacture and compound for sale as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream at such time and place, with intent to sell the same as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, and did sell some considerable portion thereof, to wit, 1/2 pound as and for Butter, the product of the Dairy, and represented the same to be Butter at such time and place ; that the said substance, product and compound was not natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, and was not Butter the product of the Dairy, and was not made exclusively from Milk or Cream, or both ; that it contained some substance for the purpose and with the effect of imparting thereto a color resembling that of yellow Butter, and was in imitation and semblance of natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk or Cream of the same, and was colored by some substance to resemble yellow Butter, and was in semblance of natural Butter ; that the same was a substance known as Oleomargarine ; that it had been made, manufactured and rendered after April thirtieth, 1885, out of some animal fat, or animal or vegetable oils not produced from unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, in imitation and semblance of natural Butter, produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, by mixing, compounding with and adding to a small quantity of Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of some animal fats or animal or vegetable oils not produced from Milk or Cream, with design and intent to render, make and produce an article, substance and human food in imitation and semblance of natural Butter. That the same was not manufactured, or in process of manufacture on April thirtieth, 1885, but has been rendered, manufactured, compounded and mixed since April thirtieth, 1885, as deponent is informed and believes ~~That the tubs in which the same was contained did not have the words "Oleomargarine Butter"~~

~~upon the top or side thereof, and such words were not burned in or painted thereon with permanent~~
~~black paint, in a straight line not less than one half inch in length, where deponent could see such brand ;~~
~~that no printed label, bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter" was delivered therewith to the purchaser thereof.~~

Deponent further says that on said 1st day of October 1885 he went to the said store of said
Markham in said City and County, and told said Markham that he wanted to buy some Butter ; that said Markham ~~showed deponent a number of pounds of the said Oleomargarine hereinbefore mentioned,~~ offered the same to depo-nent for sale, and sold the same to deponent ; that he so sold to deponent 1/2 pound thereof, and deponent then paid to him therefor the agreed price thereof, amounting to the sum of $ 0.10 ; that, as deponent believes and charges, the said Markham at the time of so offering and selling the same, well knew that it was Oleomargarine, and had been manufactured and colored as hereinbefore stated ; that he did not tell deponent at any time that the said Oleomargarine so sold to deponent was not Butter, the product of the Dairy ; that ~~deponent saw the tubs in which the said Oleomargarine was contained, and no~~
~~printed label bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter," was delivered by said~~ Markham October 7th to deponent with the Oleomargarine sold to him ; that on 1885, deponent delivered a sample of such Oleomargarine, so purchased by him as aforesaid, to E. G. Love a chemist of the city of New York N. Y., and caused the same to be analyzed by such chemist, as shown by the annexed certificate of such chemist.

Wherefore, deponent prays that a warrant may issue for the arrest of the said Francis
J. Markham and that he may be dealt with as the law directs.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Francis J. Madalham

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Francis J. Madalham —

(Chap. 458, Laws of 1885, § 3.) of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows :

The said Francis J. Madalham.

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twentieth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, at the City and County aforesaid, one half pound of a certain oleaginous substance and compound, not made nor produced from milk or cream (a more particular description of which said substance and compound, and of the ingredients and matters of which the same was made and produced, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), unlawfully did sell, and cause and procure to be sold to one Edmund D. Wilson, for butter, the product of the dairy ; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SECOND COUNT : (Chap. 246, Laws of 1882, § 1.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Francis J. Madalham —

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows :

The said Francis J. Madalham.

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit : on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold, at retail, to one Edmund D. Wilson, one half pound of a certain substance, not butter, commonly called oleomargarine, and did then and there falsely represent the same to the said Edmund D. Wilson. — to be butter ; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

THIRD COUNT: (Section 430, Penal Code.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Francis J. Markham -

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said

Francis J. Markham -

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell, and cause and procure to be sold, to one

Edmund S. Wilson, as an article of food one half pound of a certain substance in imitation of a certain article of food, to wit: butter, without disclosing such imitation by a suitable and plainly visible mark or brand; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

FOURTH COUNT: (Chap. 238, Laws of 1882, § 3.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Francis J. Markham -

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said

Francis J. Markham -

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, a certain parcel containing one half pound of a certain article and substance in semblance of butter, not the legitimate product of the dairy, and not made exclusively of milk or cream, but into which divers oils and fats not produced from milk or cream, entered as component parts (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), the same being then and there an article and substance required by law, in case of retail sales in parcels, to be sold from a tub, firkin, box or package, distinctly and durably stamped, branded or marked upon the top and side with the words "Oleomargarine Butter" only, where it could be plainly seen, in Roman letters, burned in or painted thereon with permanent black paint in a straight line, and not less than one-half inch in length, and wherewith the seller was then and there required by law, to deliver to the purchaser, a printed label, bearing the plainly printed words "Oleomargarine Butter" only, in Roman letters not less than one-half inch in length, in a straight line, unlawfully did then and there sell and cause and procure to be sold at retail to one Edmund S. Wilson - — from a certain box which was not then and there stamped, branded or marked as aforesaid, and did then and there unlawfully omit to deliver therewith to the said Edmund S. Wilson, a label of the kind and description aforesaid, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

FIFTH COUNT: (Chap. 215, Laws 1882, § 2.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Francis G. Markham -

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Francis G. Markham,

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold to one

Edmund S. Wilson, one half pound of a certain article and substance in semblance of natural butter, and known as oleomargarine or imitation butter, the same not being the legitimate product of the dairy, and not being made exclusively from milk or cream, or both, with salt or rennet, or both, with or without coloring matter or sage, but into which divers oils, and animal and other fats, not produced from milk or cream, had been introduced (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SIXTH COUNT: (Chap. 458, Laws of 1885, § 2.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Francis G. Markham -

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

David E. Markstein

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show, but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. When I first accepted the scheme proposed by defendant, I believed that he was engaged in an honest business - It was only after I had lost my money that I was convinced that the scheme was dishonest. Since the indictment I have made enquiries as to defendant's antecedents & find that his character is excellent & that his family are excellent people. My investigations in this respect now lead me to believe that defendant's scheme was rather unfortunate than dishonest, & I now believe that he was guiltless of criminal intent in this transaction with me. For this reason I ask leave to withdraw ~~this~~ complaint against him.

We notice that owing to a misunderstanding he had left his old firm. Engel said Markstein's connection with them had, as he expressed it, been "O.K." and as the fellow was well related there we engaged him to represent us in the South. On reaching New Orleans he sent us a bogus order and a request for more money.

We sent the money but discovered the difficulty with the order in time to avoid shipping the goods.

As our suspicions were aroused we refused all further demands for funds and concluded as Markstein was so far away to let both him and the matter drop.

By his misrepresentations to a wholesale extent at the time of hiring out and his dishonest

MANHATTAN WATCH CLUB CO.
OF NEW YORK,
Nos. 320-324 BROADWAY,
bet. Pearl & Worth Streets.

A Solid Gold Watch within the reach of everybody.

We offer the public the following inducement in procuring a solid gold AMERICAN NEVER WATCH, with your choice of an Elgin, Waltham, or Springfield movement.

Our system is that forty-five persons constitute a club, each member paying one dollar per week, which makes forty-five dollars coming into our hands every week, that sum just paying for one solid gold watch guaranteed to be worth $45.00. The members names composing the club are placed in a box from which one name will be drawn each and every week for forty-five weeks, that members name whomsoever it may be, is entitled to receive his watch and whose name will be withheld from the future drawings in that club of which he is a member, and at the end of forty-five weeks every member will have received his watch when the club dissolves.

The members name last appearing will receive a handsome chain worth $15.00 as compensation for having waited until he received his watch.

Every member on drawing his watch will be required to furnish satisfactory references or security if demanded, that he will continue to pay the remaining unpaid balance at the rate of one dollar per week or more if he wishes.

The advantages of this plan are threefold. Firstly: The payments are so easy as scarcely to be felt by anyone. Secondly: We have the privilege of enjoying the use of your watch before it is paid for. Thirdly: Our system being based on cash principles, you are not charged installment prices as the price of each and every watch is guaranteed.

The watches are all warranted heavy solid gold cases, American stem winding movements, Elgin, Waltham or Springfield make.

The watches can be selected from our well assorted stock the same as any cash customer, and every watch is fully warranted to keep correct time for two years - a record being kept of the same.

We have continually on hand a full assortment of Diamonds, Watches and Jewelry of all description and sell all goods at wholesale prices.
