Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

Plaintiffs,

against

Patrick P. Goonan

Defendant.

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse the above-named defendant of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows :
(Chap. 215, Laws of 1882, § 2.)

The said defendant, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the eleventh day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-ninety-two, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully expose for sale and cause and procure to be exposed for sale, a large quantity, to wit: one hundred pounds, of a certain article and substance in semblance of natural butter, and known as oleomargarine or imitation butter, the same not being the legitimate product of the dairy, and not being made exclusively from milk or cream, or both, with salt or rennet, or both, with or without coloring matter or sage, but into which divers oils, and animal and other fats, not produced from milk or cream, had been introduced (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SECOND COUNT : (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 7, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 2.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said defendant of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows :

The said defendant, late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully keep and offer for sale and cause and procure to be kept and offered for sale, a large quantity, to wit: one hundred pounds, of a certain article, substance and compound in imitation and semblance of natural butter produced from pure unadulterated milk, or cream of the same, the said article, substance and compound, so sold as aforesaid, being rendered, manufactured and produced out of divers animal fats and oils not produced from unadulterated milk, or cream from the same, the said article, substance and compound not having been manufactured prior to, and not being in process of manufacture on the first day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty six, (a more particular description of which said article; substance and compound, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

THIRD COUNT, (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 3,

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said defendant of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said defendant late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the said eleventh day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty twenty-two, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully have in his possession, a large quantity, to wit: one hundred pounds of a certain compound, product and manufacture made in whole from animal fats and animal and vegetable oils, not produced from unadulterated milk or cream, which said compound, product and manufacture had been before then, and was then and there colored with coloring matter, whereby the same did then and there resemble butter, the product of the dairy, with intent to sell the same; (a more particular description of which said compound, product or manufacture, and of the fats and oils from which the same was so made as aforesaid, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

FOURTH COUNT: (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 8.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said defendant of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said defendant, late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully have in his possession, a large quantity, to wit: one hundred pounds of a certain compound, product and manufacture made in part from animal fats and vegetable oils not produced from unadulterated milk or cream, which said compound, product and manufacture had been before then, and was then and there colored with coloring matter, whereby the same did then and there resemble butter, the product of the dairy, with intent to sell the same; (a more particular description of which said compound, and of the ingredients thereof, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THE PEOPLE
against
WILLIAM N. GRISWOLD.
-----x

City and County of New York, ss.:

2 William N. Griswold, being duly sworn, says that he is the defendant herein. That he resides at No. 2001 Seventh avenue in the city of New York, and has never resided in the 15th ward. That he is the lessee of certain buildings in the 15th ward in said city, and that Mitchell A. C. Levy is the owner of two buildings which he has leased. That deponent originally leased the premises from the then owner, Mr. Thomas Greenleaf, and that the said Levy purchased the property subject to deponent's said lease. That the said lease expires the 1st day of May, 1893, and that deponent has sub-let one of the said houses
3 to Dennis Doyle, and that the other house he leased to one Constant Voylanthe, and deponent is informed and believes that the said Voylanthe sub-leased the property to other persons to deponent unknown.

That deponent has read the affidavit of Dennis Doyle hereto annexed, and, so far as it relates to facts
or events in which deponent was an actor, and so far as it relates to facts of which deponent has knowledge, the said

affidavit is true, and that as to all other matters deponent believes it to be true from the information that he has derived from all sources.

That this deponent has known for some time past that his said landlord Mitchell A. C. Levy has been desirous of procuring from him the property. That at the time referred to in the affidavit of the said Doyle, when this deponent was served with a subpoena to testify as a witness in the proceedings taken against the said Doyle at the instigation of the said Levy, the person serving the subpoena
upon this deponent said to this deponent on leaving the house, "We'll get this property from you yet," and that this deponent knows that the person so serving him and so threatening him was one of the employees of the said Levy.

This deponent never had any knowledge whatever, or information sufficient to found a belief, nor any information, that any part of any premises owned or leased by him in the 15th ward or elsewhere in the city of New York were ever at any time occupied for immoral, improper or disorderly purposes, other than ~~as herein immediately~~ the alleged information which is contained in the letter from the said Levy, which is herein after quoted.
~~stated.~~ On or about the 1st day of January, 1892, this deponent received a letter from the said Mitchell A. C. Levy,
as follows:

New York Dec. 29, 1891

"Dear Sir: Can you not put out those tenants of yours at No. 36 West 4th st. They are running the place
as a disorderly house.

"Just to show you that there can be no mistake about this I enclose you a certified copy of the minutes of the Court of General Sessions showing that your tenant pleaded

0027

ORIGINAL

"guilty of keeping a house of ill fame there.

"You must not allow such business to be carried on
"there. It is not right to do so.

"Respectfully yours,

"Mitchell A. G. Levy."

Enclosed in the said letter was a certificate,
showing that in an action of the People v. Louise Tolletel
she was indicted for keeping a house of ill fame on the 9th day of September, 1891, and that she pleaded guilty
thereto; that judgment against the defendant was suspended,
and the defendant was discharged from custody.

That immediately upon the receipt of the said letter this deponent went to the premises and saw the said
Doyle, and inquired of him as to whether it was true that any of the premises leased by this deponent from the said Levy were occupied for any immoral, improper or disorderly purposes; and that he was informed by the said
Doyle that the house occupied by Doyle was used, as it had been in the past, for a residence and a duly licensed liquor saloon, and was used for no immoral, improper or disorderly purpose; and the said Doyle further informed this deponent of facts which this deponent verified by an-examination, to wit: That the other house was then vacant, except that a care-taker had been left in charge by the tenant thereof, and that the said Voylanthe was not then upon the premises, but had departed therefrom, but where this deponent knew not, and does not now know.

That thereafter, and on the 4th day of January, 1892, in accordance with arrangements made early in December, 1891, this deponent left the State of New York for Colorado and Arizona on important business matters, intending to return some time in March, but not returning until the 20th day of April, 1892. That immediately upon reaching his destination in Arizona, and on or about the 30th day of January, 1892, this deponent wrote to the said Levy a letter, as follows:

"Greenlee District, Arizona,

"Jan. 30th, 1892

"Mr. M. A. C. Levy,

"Dear Sir:-

11

"I should have answered your letter long ago but I have been unable to do so as I have been up in the mountains for some time. I left N.Y. on the 4th of January on very important business. I hope you will excuse delay. Of course I will not knowingly permit the house to be used or occupied in an improper manner. I do not understand this business of Louise Tolletel. I have never heard of the woman, never saw her, and don't know how she came to be located at No. 36. My tenant is a man and his wife, or rather, he is a tenant of the original tenant, If he sub-let it certainly was without my consent or knowledge. As soon as I return which will be about the middle of March I will at once communicate with you, and if there is anything wrong with the occupancy & I will at once take measures to remedy it. I was assured before I came 12

"away that the occupancy was then orderly and proper. I "would not have it otherwise. Pecuniarily I wish I could "get the old tenant out as I could rent the property at a "better figure for the remainder of the term.

"I remain,

" Very truly,

"Your obt. svt.,

"W. N. Griswold."

13

That the said Levy did not answer or acknowledge the receipt of the said letter, nor did he in any wise communicate with this deponent since his said letter of December, 1891. That this deponent was in the Territory of Arizona from early in the month of January until nearly
the middle of the month of April, 1892.

That this deponent is informed and believes that this indictment has been found at the instigation and upon the complaint of the said Mitchell A. G. Levy for his own malicious motives. That the said Levy desires to break and cancel the lease of this deponent of the said premises; and that the said Levy is desirous of disposing of the property to a contemplated purchaser, but the said

City and County of New York, ss.:

DENNIS DOYLE, being duly sworn, says:

That he resides in the 15th ward of the city of New York, in a house leased by him from William N. Griswold, the defendant, and that he leased the said house from said Griswold about the 1st of May, 1890, and that the said lease runs until the 1st day of May, 1893. That this deponent lives in the said house, and has lived there ever since about the month of September, 1890, and that he lives in the said house with his wife, and maintains a duly licensed liquor store upon the said premises, and has since he has occupied them, and that he sub-lets the rear portion of the first floor of the said house as a restaurant.

That no illegal or improper business of any kind is conducted upon the said premises, or ever has been since this deponent first occupied them.
That this deponent is informed and believes that the premises occupied by him are owned by one Michael A. C. Levy, who purchased the property subject to the lease of the said William N. Griswold, which terminates on the 1st day of May, 1893.

4 That on or about the 1st of January, 1892, the said William H. Griswold called upon this deponent and inquired of him concerning the uses to which the said property was put, and concerning the uses to which the neighboring property was put, which is also owned by the said Levy, subject to a lease of the said Griswold, as this deponent is informed and believes; and the said Griswold especially inquired as to whether the premises were occupied for immoral, improper or disorderly purposes; and that this deponent informed him that the house occupied by this deponent was used for the purpose of a ^{residence and a} duly licensed liquor saloon, and was used for no immoral, improper or disorderly purpose; and that deponent also informed the said Griswold that the other house above referred to was then vacant, except that a care-taker had been left in charge by the tenant thereof, and that a Mr. Voylanthe, who is a baker, but the exact spelling and pronunciation of whose name is unknown to this deponent, had left the premises and gone with his wife to Staten Island, and that the said Voylanthe, while he occupied the said house, furnished this deponent with bread for his said saloon, and that

6 this deponent was unable to state from any information that he had as to when the said Voylanthe was expected to return. That thereupon the said Griswold instructed this deponent to notify him immediately, if the premises were occupied by any person for immoral or improper purposes, and to act

for the said Griswold in the matter, and to evict them if they were so found, and to consult with S. R. Johnson, the attorney and agent for the said Griswold; and that the said Griswold informed this deponent that he was about to leave the State for Arizona and Colorado on important business, and would not return for 3 or 4 months.

That the said Levy has on one occasion sought to have the license of this deponent revoked by employing people on Sunday to seek to obtain liquor at his saloon, or during prohibited hours, and that the said Levy caused this deponent to be summoned before the Excise Commissioners, and caused a subpoena to be served on the said Griswold as a witness; and that no action was taken by the Excise Board upon the said complaint, although the same was made about 8 months ago.

That upon the said Griswold's return from Arizona, on or about the 20th of April, the said Griswold called upon this deponent, and inquired of him the reason why the rent for the other premises above referred to had not been paid, and this deponent thereupon informed him of the fact, which was a fact, that the premises had been vacated about the 26th of March, 1892, and that the tenants had sailed for Europe, and the premises were vacant. This deponent further says that they are still vacant, and have been ever since the said 26th of March, 1892.

City and County of New York, ss.:

J. Aspinwall Hodge, jr., being duly sworn, says:

That he is a member of the firm of Wolff & Hodge, attorneys for the defendant herein, and that he is of counsel for the defendant, and has conducted all the proceedings herein on the defendant's behalf.

That an indictment was found against the defendant charging him with ^{the} crime "of keeping and maintaining a "common bawdy house and house of ill-fame;" a second count of the indictment charging him with the crime of maintaining a public nuisance, and a third count of the indictment charging him with the crime of keeping a disorderly house.

That the said indictment does not conform to the requirements of Sections 275 and 276 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, in that it does not contain a plain or concise statement of the act or acts constituting the crime.

That the said indictment does not state what house the defendant is charged with keeping as a bawdy house, or as a public nuisance, or as a disorderly house; but that it states merely "that the said William N. Griswold, late "of the fifteenth ward of the city of New York, in the County "of New York aforesaid, on the fifteenth day of March, 1892,

"and on divers other days and times as well before as afterwards to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common 4 "bawdy house and house of ill-fame unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain."

That there is in said indictment no more particular designation of the locality of the crime than is above set forth.

That in the second count of the indictment the only reference to the said house is in the following terms:

"Said William N. Griswold, late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid etc., at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms unlawfully did keep and 5 "maintain a certain common and ill-governed house, and in his said house for his own lucre and gain etc."

That in the third count of the indictment there is no other description of the said house, or reference to it, than is contained in the following words: "The said William N. Griswold, late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, etc., at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house."

A copy of the said indictment is hereto attached.

6 That said indictment was found against the defendant when he was in the State of Arizona, where he had been for several months prior to the time of the alleged commission of the crime. That upon his return to the city of New York he was arrested, and was released upon his furnishing bail.

That thereafter he duly filed a demurrer to the said indictment, a copy of which is hereto attached.

7 That upon the said demurrer coming on for argument in the Court of General Sessions, it was ordered and adjudged by the Court that the demurrer be disallowed, and the defendant was directed to plead to the indictment; and that thereupon an order was duly entered on the 7th of July, 1892, a copy of which is hereto annexed.

That thereafter the case was called for trial, and is being pressed for trial by the District Attorney, and is likely to be reached upon the day calendar immediately.

8 That the defendant hereby respectfully makes application to this Honorable Court, under Section 527 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, for a certificate to the effect that there is reasonable doubt whether the judgment overruling the demurrer should stand.

And it is respectfully submitted to the court that the crime charged in the indictment is a local crime, in distinction from a transitory one, and, like the crime of arson, and unlike the crime of assault or of larceny, the place where, or the place against which, the crime has been committed must be designated in the indictment.

9 That the law in this regard is clearly stated in Wharton on Criminal Law, Sections 299 to 304; and in the first volume of Starkie's Criminal Practice, page 73; and that it has always been held to be the law in this State that the indictment must so identify the charge that, if the Grand Jury should find a bill for one offense, there could be no possibility of the defendant being put upon his trial in chief for another.

Clearly the indictment herein is faulty in this regard; ~~x~~ for there is nothing to show which of the many houses in the fifteenth ward the defendant is charged with keeping. He may be, and in fact, in this case is, the ~~lessee~~ lessor of more than one house in the said ward.

That a further requirement of the indictment, under the law of this State, is that it must be so drawn that the defendant's conviction or acquittal under it may enure to his subsequent protection should he again be questioned on the same grounds.

A third requirement is that it should be so drawn as to enable the defendant to prepare for his defense in particular cases, and to plead in all.

And it is respectfully submitted that in these last two respects also, and for the same reasons as stated above, the indictment is faulty.

And it is not an answer to this objection that it has been repeatedly held by the courts of this State that to state the Ward in which an offense is committed is sufficient to establish the jurisdiction of the court, as such cases are cases which are not local, as are the cases of arson and of the crime charged in the indictment, and as the objection here made is not to the jurisdiction of the Court, but to the fact that the indictment is not 0039

POOR QUALITY

specific enough.

13 The Court's attention is respectfully called to the case of the People v. Slater, reported in 5 Hill, 401, wherein it was held in Over & Terminus that if the offense charged in the indictment be of a local nature (in that case it was arson), whatever is stated by way of describing the place where it was committed, must be proved precisely as laid; and hence, where an indictment for arson described the building as situated in the 6th ward of the city of New York, being the house of one Peter Lang, known and distinguished as No. 333 Broadway in the 6th ward of the city of New York, and it turned out that the dwelling house was situated in the 5th ward instead of the 6th, although it was otherwise properly described, and although the owner was Peter Lang, yet there was a variance in the pleadings and the proof which entitled the prisoner to an acquittal.

14 So, where the indictment rests upon the lease of a house, it has been held that it must accurately specify the deed, the terms of the lease and the name of the lessee, or give some excuse for the non-specification.

Commonwealth v. Moore, 11 Cushing, 600.

The court is also referred to the case of the People v. Upton, reported in 38 Hun., 107, wherein the particularity of an indictment is discussed in reference to how it should identify the property alleged to have been taken, and wherein it is held that this objection is waived if not taken by demurrer.

POOR QUALITY

15

There is a further defect in the indictment, to wit: that it does not state what relation the defendant holds to the house -- whether he is the owner, the landlord, the lessee, or the agent of one of these.

And the law in this State is somewhat conflicting as to the question of the liabilities in such cases of agents, landlords and sub-tenants, as is shown by the following cases:

People v. Brookway, 3 Hill., 558.

People v. Townsend, 3 Hill, 479.

16

People v. Irwin, 4 Denio, 129.

Lowenstein v. People, 54 Barber, 239.

If the above statement of the facts herein and of the law as it appears to counsel is not sufficient to raise in the mind of the court a reasonable doubt, it is respectfully submitted that the following quotations from leading authorities, both in and without this State, must at least cause a doubt in the mind of the court as to whether or not the demurrer should not be sustained.

The law has been summarized by a leading text writer as follows:

"When the offense is in its nature local, and the place is stated by way of local description, and not as venue ~~merely~~ merely, the slightest variance between the description in the indictment and the evidence will be fatal.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

And again he says:

18 "Neither is it necessary to prove the place laid,
"provided the place proved is within the jurisdiction of "the Court, UNLESS THE OFFENSE IS IN ITS NATURE LOCAL,
"and the place is stated by way of local description."

1 Barber's Crim. Law, 331, 3rd Ed.

19 And, again, it has been held in New Hampshire that the place where a crime is alleged to have been committed must be stated in such a manner as to give the court jurisdiction; it must also be stated with such distinctness that the judgment rendered upon the indictment may be pleaded in bar to a second indictment for the same offense and with such distinctness that the respondent may be fully informed of the charge in this respect as well as otherwise

And the Court adds: "When also the place is matter of "essential description, it must be particularly and truly
"stated, and proved as stated."

State v. Colton, 4 Foster, 145.

1 Stark C.P., 54.

The above quoted case is confirmatory of the case in New York already cited - People v. Slater, 5 Hill, 401.

20 But, finally, a case ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ directly in point in this State is reported. It was held at Oyer & Terminer that, in an indictment for wilfully cutting wood or timber upon the lands of another, it is necessary to describe the lot or close on which the trespass was committed; and when this was omitted, ALTHOUGH THE TOWN AND COUNTY WERE NAMED, the indictment was held bad.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

The opinion is written by Balcom, P.J. He says:

"The lot or close from which the wood or timber in question
"was cut and carried away is not described in the indict"ment. I am of the opinion it should have been described "therein, with a reasonable certainty. Thomas W. Waterman
"may have owned or possessed several pieces of land in the "town of Binghampton at the time it is alleged in the in"dictment the offense was committed. The lot or close,
"in which it claimed the offense was committed, should be "described in the indictment, so the prisoners may come to "the trial prepared to show, if they can, that Waterman
"neither owned nor had possession of the same, when the "wood or timber was cut and carried away; or that they had
"leave to cut the same, in other words; so they may know
"the precise charge against them; and prepare their defense
"thereof."

vs.

William M. Griswold

-----X

Hon. John R. Fellows,

District Attorney.

Dear Sir :-

The indictment charges the defendant with keeping and maintaining a house of ill fame, specifically, on March 15, 1892, with a general allegation of "on other days and times as well before as afterwards."

It appears by affidavit of defendant as matter of fact that he was in Arizona from January until the middle of April 1892. The defendant is a mining broker of this city, and was the ~~licensee~~ ^{lessee} of the premises 36 W. 4th Street, originally leasing them from the then owner, Thomas Greenleaf, who sold them to M.A.C. Levy subject to defendant's lease, which lease expired May 1st 1893.

The indictment herein was found upon the personal complaint of Mr. Levy who, it is claimed on behalf of the defendant, was desirous of getting possession of the property for the purpose of improving it, and who, as matter of fact, had brought dispossess proceedings against Doyle, the sub-tenant of Griswold. Mr. Levy on December 29th 1891, sent a letter to the defendant asking him to put out the

POOR QUALITY

tenants of the house 36 West 4th Street, and enclosed a certified copy of the minutes of the General Sessions, showing that a tenant plead guilty to keeping a house of ill fame, but against whom judgment was suspended. Upon inquiry at the house, the defendant ascertained that the premises were vacant and in charge of a care-taker, and he accordingly left for Arizona, where he remained until April 20th 1892. On January 30th 1892, while in Arizona he wrote to Mr. Levy informing him of the condition of affairs.

Mr. Griswold by affidavit denies any intention of letting for improper purposes, or that he had any knowledge thereof, and other affidavits are also submitted.

Insomuch as the nuisance complained of has been abated, Mr. Griswold's lease has expired, his connection with the property has ceased, and in view of his standing and reputation in the community, I cannot see that any useful public purpose would be subserved by the prosecution of this indictment, and, therefore, recommend its dismissal.

That deponent has read the affidavit of Dennis
Doyle hereto annexed, and, so far as it relates to facts
or events in which deponent was an actor, and so far as it

4 affidavit is true, and that as to all other matters deponent believes it to be true from the information that he has derived from all sources.

5 That this deponent has known for some time past
that his said landlord Mitchell A. C. Levy has been desirous of procuring from him the property. That at the time referred to in the affidavit of the said Doyle, when this de-
ponent was served with a subpoena to testify as a witness
in the proceedings taken against the said Doyle at the instigation of the said Levy, the person serving the subpoena
upon this deponent said to this deponent on leaving the house, "We'll get this property from you yet," and that this deponent knows that the person so serving him and so threatening him was one of the employees of the said Levy.

6 This deponent never had any knowledge whatever , or information sufficient to found a belief, nor any information , that any part of any premises owned or leased by him in the 15th ward or elsewhere in the city of New York
were ever at any time occupied for immoral, improper or disorderly purposes, the alleged information which is contained in the letter from the said Levy which is herein immediately stated. On or about the 1st day of January, 1892, this deponent received a letter from the said Mitchell A. C. Levy,
as follows:

New York Dec 29. 1891
"Dear Sir: Can you not put out those tenants of
"yours at No. 36 West 4th st. They are running the place
"as a disorderly house.

"Just to show you that there can be no mistake about
"this I enclose you a certified copy of the minutes of the "Court of General Sessions showing that your tenant pleaded

"guilty of keeping a house of ill fame there.

"You must not allow such business to be carried on
"there. It is not right to do so.

7

"Respectfully yours,

"Mitchell A . C. Levy."

Enclosed in the said letter was a certificate,
showing that in an action of the People v. Louise Tolletel
she was indicted for keeping a house of ill fame on the 9th day of September, 1891, and that she pleaded guilty
thereto; that judgment against the defendant was suspended,
and the defendant was discharged from custody.

That immediately upon the receipt of the said letter this deponent went to the premises and saw the said
Doyle, and inquired of him as to whether it was true that any of the premises leased by this deponent from the
said Levy were occupied for any immoral, improper or disorderly purposes; and that he was informed by the said
Doyle that the house occupied by Doyle was used, as it had been in the past, for a residence and a duly licensed liquor saloon, and was used for no immoral, improper or dosorderly purpose; and the said Doyle further informed
this deponent of facts which this deponent verified by an-examination, to wit: That the other house was then vacant,
except that a care-taker had been left in charge by the
tenant thereof, and that the said Voylanthe was not then
upon the premises, but had departed therefrom, but where
this deponent knew not, and does not now know.

That thereafter, and on the 4th day of January, 1892, in accordance with arrangements made early in December, 1891, this deponent left the State of New York for Colorado and Arizona on important business matters, intending to return some time in March, but not returning until the 20th day of April, 1892. That immediately upon reaching his destination in Arizona, and on or about the 30th day of January, 1892, this deponent wrote to the said Levy a letter, as follows:

"Greenlee District, Arizona,

"Jan. 30th, 1892

"Mr. M. A. C. Levy,

"Dear Sir:-

"I should have answered your letter long ago but I have been unable to do so as I have been up in the mountains for some time. I left N.Y. on the 4th of January on very important business. I hope you will excuse delay. Of course I will not knowingly permit the house to be used or occupied in an improper manner. I do not understand this business of Louise Tolletel. I have never heard of the woman, never saw her, and don't know how she came to be located at No. 36. My tenant is a man and his wife, or rather, he is a tenant of the original tenant, If he sub-let it certainly was without my consent or knowledge. As soon as I return which will be about the middle of March I will at once communicate with you, and if there is anything wrong with the occupancy & I will at once take measures to remedy it. I was assured before I came

"away that the occupancy was then orderly and proper. I
"would not have it otherwise. Pecuniarily I wish I could
"get the old tenant out as I could rent the property at a
"better figure for the remainder of the term.

"I remain,

" Very truly,

"Your obt. svt.,

That the said Levy did not answer or acknowledge the receipt of the said letter, nor did he in any wise
communicate with this deponent since his said letter of December, 1891. That this deponent was in the Territory of Arizona from early in the month of January until nearly
the middle of the month of April, 1892.

That this deponent is informed and believes that this indictment has been found at the instigation and upon the complaint of the said Mitchell A. C. Levy for his own malicious motives. That the said Levy desires to break and cancel the lease of this deponent of the said
premises; and that the said Levy is desirous of disposing
of the property to a contemplated purchaser, but the said purchaser is unwilling to accept a conveyance with the lease of this deponent outstanding.

That the said property was leased by this deponent upon very advantageous terms from the said Greenleaf under the terms of the ten-year lease above referred to, and that the said Levy well knows that he can let the said premises for short leases at very much more advantageous terms than the rent now received by him from this deponent.

That this deponent has never allowed any improper business to be carried on ~~the~~ in the premises aforesaid; and that before leaving this city in January last he instructed the said Doyle, and his attorney, S. R. Johnson, to notify him immediately if the premises were occupied by persons for improper purposes, and to evict them if they so found it occupied.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS,

THE PEOPLE

against

WILLIAM N. GRISWOLD.

City and County of New York, ss.:

DENNIS DOYLE, being duly sworn, says:

2

That he resides in the 15th ward of the city of New York, in a house leased by him from William N. Griswold, the defendant, and that he leased the said house from said Griswold about the 1st of May, 1890, and that the said lease runs until the 1st day of May, 1893. That this deponent lives in the said house, and has lived there ever since about the month of September, 1890, and that he lives in the said house with his wife, and maintains a duly licensed liquor store upon the said premises, and has since he has occupied them, and that he sub-lets the rear portion of the first floor of the said house as a restaurant.

That this deponent is informed and believes that the premises occupied by him are owned by one Michael A. C. Levy, who purchased the property subject to the lease of the said William N. Griswold, which terminates on the 1st day of May, 1893.

4 That on or about the 1st of January, 1892, the said William N. Griswold called upon this deponent and inquired of him concerning the uses to which the said property was put, and concerning the uses to which the neighboring property was put, which is also owned by the said Levy, subject to a lease of the said Griswold, as this deponent is informed and believes; and the said Griswold especially inquired as to whether the premises were occupied for immoral, improper or disorderly purposes; and that this deponent informed him that the house occupied by this deponent was used for the purpose of a ^{residence and a} duly licensed

5 liquor saloon, and was used for no immoral, improper or disorderly purpose; and that deponent also informed the said Griswold that the other house above referred to was then vacant, except that a care-taker had been left in charge by the tenant thereof, and that a Mr. Voylanthe, who is a baker, but the exact spelling and pronunciation of whose name is unknown to this deponent, had left the premises and gone with his wife to Staten Island, and that the said Voylanthe, while he occupied the said house, furnished this deponent with bread for his said saloon, and that for the said Griswold in the matter, and to evict them if they were so found, and to consult with S. R. Johnson, the attorney and agent for the said Griswold; and that the said Griswold informed this deponent that he was about to leave the State for Arizona and Colorado on important business, and would not return for 3 or 4 months.

That the said Levy has on one occasion sought to have the license of this deponent revoked by employing people on Sunday to seek to obtain liquor at his saloon, or during prohibited hours, and that the said Levy caused this deponent to be summoned before the Excise Commissioners, and caused a subpoena to be served on the said Griswold as a witness; and that no action was taken by the Excise Board upon the said complaint, although the same was made about 8 months ago.

That upon the said Griswold's return from Arizona, on or about the 20th of April, the said Griswold called upon this deponent, and inquired of him the reason why the rent for the other premises above referred to had not been paid, and this deponent thereupon informed him of the fact, which was a fact, that the premises had been vacated about the 26th of March, 1892, and that the tenants had sailed for Europe, and the premises were vacant. This deponent further says that they are still vacant, and have been ever since the said 26th of March, 1892.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK
AGAINST*William N. Griswold*

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment accuse

William N. Griswold(Sec. 822, Penal Code.)of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE
OF ILL-FAME, committed as follows:The said *William N. Griswold*late of the 15th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the fifteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and on divers other days and times, as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill-fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in said house divers ill-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well as in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said*William N. Griswold*on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offenses on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

William N. Griswold

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

(Sec. 825, Penal Code.)The said *William N. Griswold*late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the fifteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- two, and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep and maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in his said house for his own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT:

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

William N. Griswold

(Sec. 822, Penal Code.) of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said William N. Griswold, late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the fifteenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- two and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in the said house and place of public resort, for his own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in his said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit, and yet continues to permit, by reason whereof the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are habitually disturbed, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided. and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
