} Lenny for Person

This young man now 18 years old, lost his mother when 15 months old, his Grandmother took him and had the care of him till he was 5 years old. his father then married again & took Grant home

The father is a very severe man, he once whip<sup>d</sup> Grant when he was only 8 years old that he had to be put to<sup>bed</sup> & means used to heal the stripes.

His father is a Mechanic & works at 812 Broadway for a Sewing Machine Co. Grant has learned the trade & has worked with or for his father till about a year ago. Grant left his father & since has been with his Grandmother whom he loves much as she is kind to him

The next Grant gives of this case "I was crossing the Park on my way to Washington Market I met a young man whom I became acquainted with only a few days ago when I work at Washington Market. we crossed Broadway & stop<sup>d</sup> at the place where the baker

Pan Cake looked in the window about 5 minutes, then the young man said he had a letter to post & we re-crossed to the p. Office. Mr Leetch the Comp<sup>t</sup> suddenly ran to me & caught hold of me & demanded his watch. I told him I had not his watch, that he might search me, he however held me & called an Officer & took me up stairs & searched me & found the watch in an outside pocket on left side. I did not know it was there, as the Comp<sup>t</sup> offered to let me go if I would give up the watch, which I would certainly have done, if I had known it was in my pocket. Mr Leetch is an employee of the P. O. selling stamps at one of the windows. a respectable man, who corroborates the statement & says he offered to let prison go if he would give up the watch & made the offer 2 or 3 times.
 Mr Leetch also says a gentleman living in Brooklyn whose name & address he has, told him he saw a man put the watch in Grant's pocket

3

Mr. Greetch under these circumstances does not wish to prosecute the prisoner and has signed a release and has put the matter into my hands -

The Grand mother is deeply distressed & a poor sickly woman living and keeping a few boarders at 23 - Clinton place

I have seen the father & he is desirous of having his son go to work with him again & Grant is willing to do so and keep out of the way of company that would get him in trouble again. Grant is a bright smart fellow and I think a good deal in him to make a man of.

I am very solicitous to save him from prison & have great confidence that this writing is sufficient

I would recommend he be discharged on his own recognizance

York on the 15 day of April 1842 I was hired by Mr. George Schmidt of No. 24 & W. 29th St. this City in whose bakery I worked until the evening of my arrest. it was part of my duty to deliver bread &c (which I carried in a basket) in the mornings and my route was along the Boulevard as far as about 90th Street.

It very frequently occurred that a lot of boys and young men from shanties in the vicinity of 80th St and Boulevard would attack me and steal some of the contents of my basket and rarely a week passed by, but that I came home thoroughly braten by these ruffians,

In consequence of the repeated attacks upon me as aforesaid I procured a pistol for the purpose of protecting myself from any further assaults of this kind.

On the morning of Sunday, October 16th 1882 about 11 o'clock I was again assaulted by the ruffians near 80th St, who stole a quantity of betzels from my basket. I managed to escape from them and went to the grocery store corner ~~67th~~ <sup>67th</sup> St. and ~~80th~~ <sup>9th</sup> Ave. for the purpose of delivering some betzels, I met the complainant

ERH

Oliver Kessel, (who I knew by sight having met him in the store on previous occasions) standing in front of the store, I told him of the occurrence. and said that even he had repeatedly taken bretzels from my basket while in the store but as he had taken but one or two at a time I did not mind that, , complainant thereupon laughed at me. and made some remark in the English language which I could not understand and pushed me. I remonstrated with him, whereupon he struck me a violent blow in the face and chest threw me to the ground and kicked me.

In getting up from the ground I attempted to draw the pistol from my inside coat pocket for the purpose of frightening him. I did not level the pistol at him, but while in the act of taking same from my pocket it exploded and the ball struck complainant in the hand.

I became frightened at seeing him hurt, he again struck me knocked me down, but I submitted and allowed him to beat me until several persons in the store run out and took me from him.

The complainant speaks german and english very well while I can speak but little english.

I have never been arrested in my life and have always tried to lead a most honest and unobtrusive life and this is the first time I have ever got into any difficulty. I therefore beg this Court to take all these facts into consideration
