Tried Monday March, 7. 1887.

APPEARANCES

Assistant District Attorney Ambrose H. Parry, for the People
James D. McClelland, Esq for the Defence.

WILLIAM M. GRINNELL, the complainant, duly sworn, testified as follows:- I am an architect by occupation. On the 21st of Feb., 1887, I was walking through 23rd Str. from 5th Avenue to 6th Avenue, to take the elevated railroad. It was about half past 11 o'clock at night. Just before reaching the steps of the elevated station, the prisoner, George Krampert, came up to me and asked me for some money; I opened my coat before going up the steps of the station and the prisoner grabbed my watch and ran across 7th Avenue. I then pursued the prisoner and ran as far as 7th Avenue, when an officer came up and arrested him. The watch cost $160, and the chain, $65 and there was a charm attached to the end of the chain.

CROSS EXAMINED.

This occurred just before I reached the steps of the station. The prisoner walked along with me and solicited assistance. I had been to the University club, at the corner of Lexington Avenue and 26th Street, of which club I am a member; and I had been to a party before going to the club and left the party about 11 o'clock. It was a social gathering and I had several glasses of wine but I was sober at the time of this occurrence.

OFFICER SAMUEL AIKEN, called and sworn for the people, testified as follows:-

I am a police officer attached to the 16th Precinct. On the 21st of February, about half past 11 o'clock, I was between 21st and 22nd streets on the west side of 6th Avenue, and saw the prisoner pursued by the complainant who was shouting "Police" and they took a diagonal direction across 7th Avenue, between 25th and 23rd streets, I caught up to both, the defendant and the complainant, and asked what the trouble was, and the complainant told me that the prisoner had taken his watch and chain. I brought the prisoner to the station house and searched him there, but I did not find any property with him.

-----000-----

CROSS EXAMINED.

I don't know the prisoner by sight. I never saw him before that night. I had no conversation with him.

The prisoner's pedigree was taken by the sergeant, at the desk, not through an interpreter, he gave it himself; he gave his name and age. He said he didn't take no watch, he accused the complainant of having bitten him in the cheek. The complainant was present and heard this conversation in which this young man said the complainant had bitten him in the cheek; I don't recollect what the complainant said to that; I don't recollect whether he said anything or not. I had my eye upon this prisoner from the time I took him in charge.

I am on the police three years and a half. I know it is one of the duties of an officer to watch a prisoner's movements.

The defendant said he worked on the pier - pier 54 North River. .

The prisoner did not say anything about a man addressing him in terms of endearment. He had no blood on his cheek; he had no mark on his cheek. He spoke in broken English.

-----000-----

GUSTAVE KRAMPERT, the defendant, called as a witness in his own behalf, was duly sworn and testified as follows:

I am 18 years old; the 24th of last month I am in this country 5 months. I understand the charge that this man makes against me, Mr. Heintzleman told me.

I was not together with him at the corner of 6th Avenue and 23rd Street, I saw him near 7th Avenue and 23rd

Street. I was on 23rd Street, near the 15th Avenue hotel, and I saw this young man and he walked near me, at my side and then he talked with two young men, that walked behind him, and then he came again to my side and spoke to me. He said first in English, "I love you ", and then in German "I love you," After that he said to me,, "Come home with me." He said he lived in West 23d. street; then I asked him why did he go to the East Side if he lived in West 23d. street. He wanted to take me into a house and touched me on the body. He touched me here (indicating) then he wanted me to go into a house, I didnt want it and tried to get away from him and he went behind me and caught me by the throat and made a great noise. He went by my side down 6th. Avenue and then he caught me by the throat and I run away from him.

It was not between 5th and 6th Avenues, it was between 6th and 7th Avenues that he got hold of me. I commenced to run (it was at 6th Avenue and 23rd Street) and run through 22nd Street.

I did not take the complainant's watch and chain. I have never been arrested before. I have been working in Bush's hotel in Hoboken the first week and then I was working at ~~at~~ trunks and chandeliers. I worked for myself.

I went into different places and sold the chandeliers - bronzed the chandeliers for them. I worked last at pier 54.
I don't know the foreman's name.

I told them in the station house that the complainant had bitten me in the neck; it was not much of a bite.

-----000-----

CROSS EXAMINED.

I worked in Bush's hotel, Hooker; I was waiter there, I worked there a little over a week. When I arrived in this country I didn't do anything for two weeks, I lived on the money I had. I worked at bronzing chandeliers after that. I worked two weeks at the pier; it was during the strike; I went there as a laborer. I lived at the Grand Windsor hotel, Chatham Square, when I was arrested.
I went up to a hotel in 29th Street, the night I was arrested; it is a hotel, a large white house, I don't remember the name, it is in 29th Street. I had my supper at that hotel and after that I was walking around, I didn't know what to do. I have lived at the Windsor hotel, Chatham Square, for two weeks; I had a room there.

I went up to 29th Street to this hotel for my supper

because I need not pay anything up there, I get a check from the cashier; I don't know the cashier's name; every poor man gets it that goes up there; the cashier has a blonde moustache, it is a big hotel. I think it is the Gilsey house. I had 71 cents in my pocket when I went up there to my supper.

I did not ask the complainant for assistance.

-----000-----

WILLIAM GRINNELL, the complainant, recalled:

I have lived in New York for 29 years, and my business is that of an architect and my place of business is at No. 121 East 23rd Street. I live at 165th Street and 11th Avenue and I have lived there for 29 years; I am a trifle over 29 years of age.

I have heard the prisoner's statement in reference to my approaching him and it is absolutely false.

-----000-----

0258

I did not see the prisoner drop the watch on his way to the station house; I think he could drop it without my seeing it.

door open and upon going to the Station house deponent there and then saw and identified all of said stolen property, and was informed by officer, Nishwitz.
Here present that he, said officer, arrested said deponent in the act of attempting to open the door of premises 214 East 83-Street with false keys, at the hour of 11 o'clock A.M. of said day and that he, said deponent, had then all of said stolen property of deponent in his possession and carried in a bag. That the property so found with said deponent is the stolen property of owner.
