City and County of New York ss: David J. Walsh being duly sworn deposes and says that he is 17 years of age and resides with his parents at No 520 East 16th Street in the City of New York as Tenants of Mr and Mrs Dunster. That deponent has been in the employ of J. D. Lynch at 1123 Broadway, New York City for about one year and when leaving said employment, deponent received a recommendation from Mr Lynch as to Character which is hereto annexed, and which has not been recalled by either Mr Lynch or his brother up to this time. That deponent has never been arrested before or charge with any crime or misdemeanor and has never been in any trouble. Deponent went to School before he worked for Mr Lynch, and he is now a regular attendant at the church of the immaculate Conception Corner of 14th Street and Avenue A in Lain City and has been such a ~~ten~~ attendant ever since he can remember.

That deponent went to the various pawn shops in this City where the various articles that were taken by him had been pawned with Detective Charles Wait of the 18th precinct, where most of the articles were recovered, and deponent did all that he possibly could to make restitution, and to see that Mr. Lynch recovered his property and Mr. Lynch was recovered nearly all said property.
He further says that he received a salary of $5. per week from Mrs.
Lynch as a salesman, and he at first gave away articles to friends in exchange for others, they were all small pilfered things, and it was not until after two weeks after he left the employ of Mr. Lynch that he was arrested. Deponent voluntarily left the employ of Mr. Lynch because he only received $5. per week and Mr. Lynch wanted him to do cherty work, such as mop up the floor, clean windows, clean the cellar, run the furnace in the cellar, and also act as salaman. If Depoerent wanted to steal, or keep on stealing he could have staid there; but he left, and four days after that on the 29th day of November 1888, Mr. Lynch gave him the annexed recommendation of good character.

0085

Depoerent has been going to church every Sunday since, to the ~~Massa-~~late congregation in 14th Street, and went to Mass on Christmas morning, and the affidavits of Michael E. Dunster verified January 14th 1889 are true and correct as to Depoerent, and he will be a good young man from now on.

Q. All Whom it may Concern.

I would introduce to your view and to your kind consideration for a time Mr. Joseph Grieb whom I have been acquainted with for the past five years and always found him to be an ~~Exemplary~~ Exemplary young man from the general view of the average. By drinking, loquacious or using profane language or hanging around. Come to my palms. But, emerging from. By hand into sunlight. we find him to-day a hard worker and a faithful one always to be found at work and ever ready when duty calls him to obey his Employer or those who may be over him as much so that to-day his commands the respect of ever and all that are his companions in the shop where he is employed, from day to day and has been employed for the past three years and they are his standard bearers as to his truthfulness his character and to his standard as a man and are ready at any moment to testify as to his integrity and to uphold his honor as it is about to be tested from him.

Admiring with all truthfulness that there is a man that prompts the writing of this above and not knowing in whose hands this may chance to fall so that as it may we cannot detract neither can we blacken the record of this every day life with those who lead the every day walks of life with him to supply their every day wants for life and sustenance.
