CITY AND COUNTY
OF NEW YORK, ss.

John M. L. Doran M.D.
of No. 51 West 9th Street, 42 years Physician being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 12th day of July 1881 at the premises above said In the day time City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent With intent to deprive the true & lawful owner the following property, viz:

Three Hypodermic Syringes
One Microscope
One case of surgical knives
One tapping instrument
Being in all of the value of Sixty Dollars

the property of L. Deponent and that this deponent

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by William B. Towle (now Lee) for the reason: That deponent is informed by Mary Towley who is deponent's employ as a servant, that on said day said said Towley came to said premises and asked to see the doctor (meaning deponent) where said Mary replied he was not at home said Towle said he would wait for him and asked said Mary if he could have a note for him, where she replied

06 12

he called and showed him into deponent's office in said premises and after waiting a short while said man he could not wait any longer and left said premises when deponent arrived at said premises he found the said property gone.

That deponent is further informed by said man that said female was the only person who entered said premises up to the time deponent came home when he missed said property and that before said female entered said premises said man saw said property and after he left said premises he missed it.

Deponent fully identifies said female as the person who saw said premises on said day and charges her with the larceny of the aforesaid property.
