COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS, PART I.

vs

BEFORE JUDGE COWING.

ANTONIO MAZZA
and ROSE MAZZA.

Monday, October 10, 1893.

Indictment for assault in the first degree.

A Jury was empanelled and sworn:

FRANK BACH, sworn and examined by Assistant District Attorney Osborne:

Where do you live? 114 Eliza st. street; I have lived there about four months. What is your business? I am a grocery store at 111 Broadway; I have been employed there for one year. Did you ever see the two defendants before? I saw them when they came to lodge in the house where I am lodging. Did you see them on the 31st of August, 1893? Yes, I saw them that day at noon. Where did you see them? On the door of the house, I am the janitor of 112 Eliza st. street, in the City of New York. I saw the woman at the door of the grocery store at 111, and the man was inside the door one step. They have had the grocery store there about three months. How long have you been janitor at Eliza st. street?
I went there six days before they came. When you saw them in the store where were you standing? I was coming from my work and going to my home, it is necessary to pass by that store in order to get to my home. I came from my work at noon to get my dinner and found the door of my home locked. I thought that my wife was out, I knocked at the door three or four times, my wife from the inside asked who was there, I answered it is me. Then she asked me twice, "Is that Frank?"
I answered yes; then she opened the door and immediately she sat down on the sofa. After I heard what my wife had to say I went to see the prisoner. I said to him, "What do you want from my wife?" I told the prisoner what my wife told me. My wife told me that the woman prisoner went to see my wife twice with a knife in her hand. The prisoner said to me, "I have got nothing to do with you." I said, "I know that you have got nothing against me but it is a shame that both you and your wife go and quarrel with my wife." I said, "Remember that another time, once before, I saved you. You wanted to kill a man, and I was the means of you not being arrested because I took out of his hand a razor." When I told him this he called his wife, Rose, to go and get a knife. She went inside but I did not see her go inside. At this time he was on the steps of his door and I was on the side-walk. When I heard him calling for a knife I said, "You ought to be ashamed of quarreling always with a knife, you are like those brigands that was once in Italy." In this moment she came outside and I saw her making a movement behind her dress. She was then behind me. The prisoner caught hold of both my hands when I turned my face to see what the woman was doing. He caught me so (showing) and put both of my hands up to his mouth, wanting to bite me. He opened his mouth. When I saw the movement of his mouth to bite me I extracted my hands and got clear, and he immediately put Whillermewuundolgingcke by the neck he put a knife into my body, up here (pointing to the mark almost under the right arm). The knife was about a foot long. It was a butcher knife. How far did he stick it into you? In the lungs, 12 inches in the lungs, the doctor said so. I was 130 days in the hospital and then I was brought home. While I had a doctor at home I visited also the doctors at the hospital, I could not remain in the hospital as I had no money to pay for it.

Mr. Osborne: Instead of calling a doctor the attorney for the defendant , to save the People the trouble, kindly consents to admit in evidence this certificate of the doctor.

"St. Vincent's Hospital, August 31, 1892. Frank Bach is a patient in this hospital, suffering from a stab around the thorax, and is unable to appear in Court. H. F. Collings, House Surgeon."

By Mr. Osborne:

Were you taken to the hospital on an ambulance? Yes, I could not walk. She did not stick you more than once, did she? Only once.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Where did you learn Italian? In Austria. I came to this country first in 1878. How long was it that you were janitor of 112 Elizabeth street? I went as janitor on the first of June; the defendants were not there then, they came on the sixth of June. Were you in the habit of going into the store? I only went in there when I wanted to say something. I did not go in every day; in the evening, while walking on the side-walk, many a time we had conversations together. Was it your habit to visit that store or your wife's. I went sometimes, but the greater part my wife went. On the 31st of August, 1892, you say that you went into the store of the defendant, I understood you to say that you entered the store? I did not go into his store, I was stopped on the side-walk. Were you outside the sill of his door? I was not opposite his door, but I was opposite 112, the door leading into the house. Where was the exact place that you went up to the defendant and told him about this conversation that your wife had spoken to you about? It was opposite 112, on the side-walk. Did they not have their store in the premises 112? It is 112 also, but it is on one side, it has got nothing to do with the entrance to the house. They only come into the yard to pour water or something else. There is this distance, from here to here, (showing) between the entrance to the house and the entrance to the grocery store. Then was the defendant Antonio in that place, between the entrance to the house and the grocery store, when you saw him when you came for your lunch? He is 112 and then there is a big box for coal, and then comes his door, and where I spoke to him was opposite 112; it was not opposite the door of the grocery store. He was talking to one of his countrymen at the time, I do not know who he is, I never speak to Italians, the man that he was speaking to was a Italian tailor. On the door of their grocery store? No, not on the door of the grocery store but on the door leading to the house 112; the female prisoner was on the grocery store door. How long had you been in with your wife just before coming out to speak to the defendant? About fifteen or twenty minutes. I asked him what he and his wife wanted from my wife. Is it not a fact that you rushed up to him and said that his wife was a whore? No. And that the defendant, Antonio, was what is called in Italian "Cornuto?" I never heard such words before, it was the man that continually called his wife a whore. You do not know what that word means, "Cornuto?" "Cornuto" is not a grammatical expression. Do you mean to say that you have heard the defendant calling that to his wife? Many a time I heard the prisoner call his wife a whore on the street, also when he ran after her with a knife in his hand. Where were you when you heard the defendant say to Rosa, his wife, "Go in and get a knife," and when he answered you and said he would have nothing to do with you? Yes. And that was all, according to your statement, that led up to this quarrel? Yes. Is it not a fact that you called the defendant, at that time, all sorts of names and threatened, held up your fists before him and cried out, "You son of a bitch, I will kill you? No, he said so at the time but it is not true. And also called out obscene words to the wife? No. What is the number of the store? It is all one house, it is 112. There is one entrance to the house? Yes. Is that next to 114? Yes. I did not see the woman, but she came out very soon; to the best of my knowledge she came out of the grocery store. The place where you stood, was that opposite 112, or opposite the coal box, or the entrance to the store? Just in the centre of 112. How far out on the sidewalk, or was it in the door of 112? About two feet away from the door where he was standing.

FRANCO PARRONCHI, sworn and examined:

Where do you live? 61 Elizabeth street; I am a musician, I play in Huber's Museum, 14th street. Do you remember the day of the quarrel and fight between Bach and the defendants? I can't exactly say the date, but I remember the quarrel, it was between 12 and one o'clock. Was it about the 31st of August, 1892? Yes. I was on the street nearby. How far were you from 112 Elizabeth street? When they commenced talking I was about twelve feet away from them. Where did the quarrel occur, the first part of it? Outside the door of the small house, to the best of my belief, 112. Did you see Frank Bach come up and speak to the prisoner Antonio Mazza? I did. At that time did Frank Bach have anything in his hand, any weapon or any kind? None of the men had anything in their hands. Did you hear the conversation which took place between Frank Bach and the defendant, Antonio Mazza? I could see that they were exchanging angry words but I could not exactly hear what they said. I was passing and I saw the prisoner and the complainant talking in an angry way. Then I saw them catching each others hands, they clinched. While they were clinched the woman came out of the grocery shop rapidly. I saw her come near the complainant, and he said "I am killed," putting his hand behind him. I saw the woman with a big knife in her hand, the knife was about a foot long. Do you know either of the parties to this quarrel? I know both of them by sight. I live also in Elizabeth street, I now, in #31 Elizabeth street and I was on my way home to dinner. Have you any business relations with these parties? None at all.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Were they clinched for any little time? I saw them clinched but only for a short time, at the first glimpse I thought they were sky-larking; then I saw that they were not playing but in earnest. Did you try to separate them? It is not my business and I did not take any hand in the matter. Were you afraid to jump in and try to separate them? Certainly, I was. They commenced the words at 112 and then they moved, pulling each other, to the centre of the side-walk; while on the side-walk I heard the words, "I am dead." Did you see the party strike the other? No, they did not exchange any blows; they did not exchange any blows because the prisoner was held off the hands of the complainant. Where were you born? Florence.

ANNIE GOLDSTEIN, sworn and examined:

Where do you live? I live in #9 Forsythe street now; on the 31st of August, 1892, I lived at 112 Elizabeth street. Do you remember on the 31st of August seeing a struggle and fight between Frank Back and these two people here? Yes, I was in my house and I was looking from my window, 112. Do your apartments face on the street? Yes. Are you a married woman? Yes. I have no family. As I was looking through the window I saw that man (the prisoner) pulling the complainant's hands up to his mouth, and he spoke in Italian to that woman, I do not know what he said, and she came out with a knife. It was a big butcher knife; while the prisoner had hold of the complainant the woman came out with the knife and stuck it in the complainant's back.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Where was the woman standing at the time you saw these people grappling together? She was standing by the step, looking on. Where was her husband at the time, opposite the grocery store, or where? No, this was 112, right by the stand, there is stand between the grocery store door and 112. Was not there a coal box between 112 and the grocery store? Yes, they were about the coal box. The woman came out through the hall door; she did not come out the grocery store door. How did you know the man was speaking to his wife? I heard him speak to his wife, she went out and came out by the back door with the knife. Did he call out in words that you could understand? No.. Do you live with your husband? Yes, he is a cloak operator. The woman came out through the hall.

MORRIS FELDMAN, sworn and examined:

Were you born in Germany? In Russia; I have been in this country five years. Did you see this fight between these two people and Lach? Yes, I was in the yard and I was washing myself. There was hulloeing on the street. I went out and I saw the prisoner holding Mr. Lach right on the neck. The man said a couple of words to the woman in Italian, I did not.

understand them. I saw she brought out a knife under her apron and stuck the complainant in the side. Did the woman come out of 112 with the knife or where did she come from? From the store, she was on the side-walk, she stuck him right in the side. How near was the woman to the prisoner when he spoke to her and told her to get the knife or whatever he did say to her? About three or four feet. Did you see him turn around to address her? Yes. Did the complainant have any knife in his hand? He did not have anything. What is your business? I am working in a clothing store, I do not work much because I have been sick. Is the prisoner a friend of yours? No, neither is the complainant. You work for a living, do you? Yes, I am a married man; I live now in 85 East Broadway, I moved last week.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

You are familiar with these premises, 112 Elizabeth Street? Yes, I used to live there. The woman came out from the store. She did not come out from 112? No, from the store. You do not speak Italian? No. Did you understand what the prisoner said? It was done so quick what he said in Italian, she brought out a knife and stuck the complainant. Can you swear of your own knowledge, that he spoke to his wife? Yes, he spoke and he looked at her. I heard the language but I did not understand it. Was there more than one person yelling? Only one person, Mr. Bach.

ALL A BUSHKOWSKY, sworn and examined:

Where do you live? 112 Elizabeth Street; I live now at 9 Forsythe Street. I moved from Elizabeth Street last Wednesday. When you lived in Elizabeth Street did your rooms face on the street? No. Did you see the fight that happened there that day? Yes, I stood before the door, in front of the door. In front of the door of 112? Yes. Do you live with your husband? Yes, he is a salesman in Baxter street. Just tell us exactly what you saw? I seen the house-keeper go to the Italian and ask him, what is the matter with my wife in the morning? "What did you have with my wife in the morning?" The prisoner got him by the back of the neck and the prisoner said something to his wife, I do not know what he said; then she came out with a knife and stabbed the complainant in the back. I did not see any more. Then the woman came out did she come out of the grocery store of 112? Out of the grocery store.

YETTA FILLER, sworn and examined:

Where do you live? I live now at 83 East Broadway, on the 31 of August, 1892, I lived at 112 Elizabeth street. Do you live with your husband? Yes. Does your husband work for a living? Yes. Did you see the fight in front of 112 Elizabeth street? I was in the yard washing, it was half past twelve and I heard a noise on the street and I came out. I came out front and I seen the prisoner and the other man. The prisoner had the other man by the neck. He said something in Italian to his wife, I could not understand what it was, and she went into the store and came out with the knife and stabbed the man on the right side. Did she come out of 112 or did she come out of the grocery store? Each was standing in front of 112, she came out of the grocery store.

MARIA RAO, sworn and examined:

Where do you live? 114 Elizabeth street, I am house-keeper of 112 and 114. You are the wife of the complainant? Yes. Did you live there on the 31st of August? Yes. The woman prisoner here she came to my door in the morning with a big knife, rattled at my door and that is the reason I had myself locked in. When your husband came you talked to him, did you? Yes. Then your husband went out to talk with this Italian, the prisoner here? I did not see that. Did you see your husband talking to the Italian? Yes; I saw that Italian hold my husband with both hands, hold them together and said, "Rosa, bring a knife." He said that to his wife. My husband was looking backward and the Italian wanted to bite him in the hand, my husband grabbed his hand, and the Italian got him around the neck. Then the wife came with the knife and stabbed my husband in the right side. Did you see the prisoner speak to his wife? He said, "Rosa, bring a knife." Did Rosa bring the knife out of the door of 112 or did she come out of the grocery store with the knife? From the grocery store.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Where did the stabbing take place, opposite 112, or opposite the coal box, or opposite the grocery store? At 112, by the door, the two houses are close together. Not opposite the coal box? The prisoner was standing by the stoop, my husband stands below, right by the door.

Mr. Osborne: That is the case for the People:

THE CASE FOR THE DEFENSE:

Counsel: I move that the Court direct the Jury to acquit Antonio Mazza, on the ground that there is no facts connecting him with the crime charged in the indictment.

The Court: Oh, yes, the last witness said he said, "Rosa go and get a knife. If he was holding him then he is concerned in the crime.

Counsel: Note my exception.

The counsel for the defence opened the case to the jury.

Counsel: The defence will admit that she did this stabbing. The defence does not, however, admit the story as told here by the prosecution that there was one of these conversations taking place in front of 112.

ANTONIO MAZZA, sworn, and examined:

You are one of the defendants in this case? Yes. Rosa Mazza is your wife? Yes. Do you know the defendant, Lach? Yes. What happened between yourself and Lach on the 31st of August, 1922? I was talking with two people, two tailors, they had to move from that house, I helped one of them to move a stove. While I was talking to the men the complainant came and said, "What do you want from my wife?" I answered, "I have got nothing to do with your home." He called me a son of a bitch and other vile names, and called vile names to my wife also, and immediately he gave me a blow with his fist on my chest. Then we clinched and I put my shoulder against the coal box and immediately, while we were in that position, he said, "Your wife has stabbed me with a knife," and he let me go. I did not see my wife stabbing him. Did you call out to your wife to go there and stab him? No. Did you tell your wife to go in and get a knife and come out? No.

ROSA MAZZA, sworn, and examined:

Rosa, what do you know about this case? In the morning of the day of this row I had words with the wife of the complainant. She says that we Italians are tinkering people. I said, "Who stinks?" She said, "You Italians." She spit in my face. At twelve o'clock her husband came and found my husband and says, "What have you got to do with my wife?" My husband says, "I am not troubling your wife, the trouble was between your wife and my wife." He called me a whore and called my husband "Carnato." "Carnato" means that his wife has not been faithful to him, it is a very vile expression. He says, "I will not be satisfied before I break your backside and that of your wife also." And then he gave my husband a blow with the fist on the forehead. Then my husband fell at the entrance of the hallway. Bach fell on top of him. I was cutting melons on the coal-box with a knife. I saw my husband down and the complainant on top of him, then I gave him a blow with the knife. Did you believe that your husband was in danger? Certainly, I saw my husband underneath him and I thought that he was going to kill him. Was that the only reason that prompted you to stab the complainant? Yes, because we had a row with his wife and his wife put up her husband and I thought her husband was going to kill my husband. Did Antonio call out to you to get the knife? I only saw my husband when he was on the floor. And I wounded him the complainant ran away and my husband remained at home.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

You think that that man there is big enough and strong enough to throw your man down and get on top of him? My husband is not so strong as he is. You did not think that that great big man was killing your little bit of a husband? No, I did not think that he was going to kill him, but he was punishing him for having caused him some trouble at home..

Counsel: I have two witnesses who will testify that this man was underneath.

Mr. Osborne: I will admit that the two witnesses will swear to that. I mean no reflection on Mr. LeBarbriere and I mean no reflection on anybody. I think the case is in such shape that I can make that concession without hurting the People of the State of New York. I will admit that those two witnesses, I do not care where they come from or what their business is, will testify that they heard the row.

Counsel: Will you admit that they heard this man make threats against this man over the wife, whether it was a threat to kill or not I do not know at the moment, and that they engaged in a quarrel; it was not clinching of the hands, it was a struggle, and in the struggle he was the under man, and that no order was given to the wife to bring the knife and stab the complainant.

ANTONIO MAZZA, re-called:

What is the name of those two tailors? One of them is Giuseppe Mainello, the other man's name is Antonio.

Mr. Osborne: I will concede that they will swear that.

The Court: You do not concede that it is true?

Mr. Osborne: No, I do not concede the truth of it. I will only concede that he will bring two men here who will swear to that.

ROSA MAZZA, re-called:

Did you believe at the time that you took hold of the knife and stabbed the complainant, that your husband was in danger of personal injury? A I did not take the knife, I had the knife in my hand, I was cutting melons. Did you believe that his life was in danger? Yes, sir; because the complainant came from his house to kill my husband.

Counsel: That is our case.

The Jury rendered a verdict of GUILTY of ASSAULT in the 13 SECOND DEGREE, AGAINST BOTH DEFENDANTS.

Judge Martine

Oct 21/94

Court of General Sessions, New York

Sir:-

Will you kindly give ear to the appeal of an unfortunate man - On Oct 13th 1892. I was sentenced to 4 years in State Prison on a charge of assault - On July 18/93 an appeal in my behalf was made to His Excellency, The Governor, begging that he exercise executive clemency in my case. - on the ground that I am an innocent man - With this appeal a statement was sent from my wife - Rosa Marzo - who is serving a like term in State Prison on the same charge - in which she exonerates me from all blame in connection with the cutting (as she also did at the trial) stating the knife was used solely by her, and to protect me from a man who was bent on doing me bodily harm - Had the case been conscientiously pleaded by the Attorney whom I engaged, facts and witnesses would have been presented to you, that should have proved, that only one, and that one my wife, used the knife - in defence of a husband and Father who was in peril of his life -

Reviewing the facts, I would say that so sure as there is a God in Heaven, I am innocent - The man came to my store to harm me - With kind words. I persuaded him to leave, but no sooner were we to the door, when I was struck several times with a fist-falling to the side walk - My wife being in the store and seeing I was in danger attempted protection - unfortunately with a knife - When this unfortunate affair happened I had been 12 years in the country, during which time I was never in trouble of any kind - I was fairly successful in business in a small way, but with this sad affair came disaster and all was lost - In making this appeal to you, I do so with prayer, and hope that you will kindly review the facts of the case, and if possible give such credence to my word that will enable you to deal charitably with my case, asking His Excellency to commute my sentence, that I may be saved the horrors of further imprisonment, and afford me an opportunity to start life again - making provisions for those who will ere long be dependent upon me - I am now 43 yrs of age & since I have been here my conduct has always been creditable, and any inquiries, I feel sure, would be answered cheerfully, by the officials -

I feel positive that if my case was but presented to the Governor, His Excellency would see his way to help me -

Will you not endeavor to secure by granting the time necessary to so present the case?

Solitary cell, and forced brain leads to this letter - Friendless, I feel you will help me, so that the coming year may be spent in my effort to again build up a home, and not languishing in Prison

Sincerely, Anxiously and very respectfully, Antonio Mazza

I saw the defendant talk to Halstead followed them around in the Theatre Alley. I saw them go up the alley together. He started to walk fast, he did not run. I never called out at all. I told an officer on Fulton St near Dutch St. He said it was not his business. I saw another officer on Cliff St. I did not speak to him. At the Ferry House met the police men and the defendant was arrested. I have been arrested six times by the officers of the Society of Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

Officer Chas H. Webb.

I was at Fulton Ferry. A colored boy told me two boys wanted an officer. I went over and they told me the charge and I arrested him. I used no violence. He was very drunk. I had to get the assistance of an officer to put him in the cell. I know Halstead two years: never saw him shine shoes or sell papers.

He asked me if I wanted to make a dollar and I said Yes. He said he wanted me to carry a box. I went down first and he said the box was in the corner. He threw you down, had one hand on my throat, took my privates +
He ran down Theatre Alley to Ann St, down Ann to Nassau through Nassau to Fulton. He was almost running. I never called out. I saw a policeman on Fulton St, opposite Gold St. I never spoke to him. I saw the other policeman on Fulton St, on the corner of Cliff St. I never spoke to either of the officers. I caught hold of him at the Ferry house. I called an officer and he arrested the defendant.

locked and closed said stable for the night leaving said property therein Keppner discovered that said stable had been entered and said property taken therefrom.
Keppner is informed by Officer Joseph
Sullivan that at about the hour of 10 o'clock

Am Oct 19. He arrested these defendants together and in company with each other on W 135th St. and at that time they had a pair of blankets in their possession and told him the Office where they had left the overcoat and admitted to him the Office that they had entered said stable and had taken said property therefrom.

Wherefore deponent charges the said
