PEOPLE, ON MY COMPLAINT.

versus

Eawata Mrs Cu

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. The defendant being an old man with a large family depending on him for support, and his wife being an invalid I desire that the Court may allow me to withdraw my complaint

The People } Court of General Sessions. Part First.
 Patrick ^{vs} Curry } Before Judge Cowing. April 13. 1881 Jointly indicted with John McCue for assault and battery.
 George W. Schoedermann, sworn and examined testified. Where do you live? No 101 Charlton St.
 What is your business? Matchmaker. Where do you carry on your business? No 513 Broadway, St. Nicholas hotel. Do you recognize this prisoner? Yes sir. Did you see him on the 2nd of March? Yes sir, on that Sunday. What time of day? About six o'clock. In the afternoon? Yes sir.
 Where were you? I was on the sidewalk. Of what street? Of Greenwich St. Who was with you?
 My little son. And were you walking through the street? Yes sir. Tell the jury what happened to you there? About that time I took my little son; we were going to take a walk, going towards Christopher St. To go to Hoboken and when I came within half a block these five or six young men ^{were} meddling with each other on the sidewalk. I did not speak even to my boy, I told him to be quiet. I could not go out of the way; the street is all full of trucks there. So I went to start ahead and went through them; when I got in the middle of them this young man (the prisoner) struck me on the neck; he was the only one on the right hand side of me, the others were on the left hand side. The others went after me to show fight. I defended myself as good as I could and then I ran. Then I got in the middle of Leroy St. They gave a signal and there was 25 or 30 of them and there they had me and they tried there best with bricks and everything to do me as much bodily harm as they possibly could. The prisoner was the first one who struck me. I gave the notice to the policeman and when I went towards Hudson St. a policeman came on slowly. I told him the story and he took me to the station house and reported there to the Captain, and he sent out men to find the assailants. They got me the next morning and showed me McBane. I identified him and I identified the prisoner too. What were the injuries that you sustained? I got a very heavy deep cut on the right temple and on the forehead and on the back of the head. I had a big black spot on the left shoulder. Cross Examined. Is it not true that you were passing where this young man was, and he accidentally pushed up against you and you struck him in the ear and knocked him down? No sir, he showed a plain intention to hit me. What was it attracted your attention, what were they doing? Hitting each other in the face. Did you notice the condition of this prisoner, whether he was drunk or sober?

No, I did not. Is it not true that in passing by he accidentally shoved up against you? No sir. Did you strike him in the ear and knock him down? I knocked him down twice. You left him down, too, didn't you? Yes, of course. And you went off round the corner and then the other men that was there they followed you, is not that true? Not those alone. They with some others? Yes sir. And these injuries that you speak of you received in Leroy St. in another street, is not that so? Part of them. Did you receive any injury at all from this prisoner here at the bar? Yes sir. Where did he strike you? Here on the neck. Did he strike you before you struck him? Yes sir. I did not want to strike him at all. I shoved him back after he struck me and I went off then, but he followed me and I had to turn round and defend myself and he followed me again. What you call defending yourself is knocking him down twice? Yes sir, he followed me every time; he followed me in the street. You were walking along with your child? Yes sir.

Patrick Curry, sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified. How old are you? Twenty one. Where do you live? No 613 Greenwich St. What do you do for a living? Drive a horse and cart. For whom? Mr. Shields. For how long have you been working for him? The last six years. Whereabouts was this where this row occurred? Right in the middle of the block. Where do you live? No 613 Greenwich St. How far was it from there? Right outside my own door. Tell the Court and jury now what condition you were in that afternoon and how this occurred as far as you are concerned? I was the worse for liquor. I did not know what I was doing, I was fooling outside my own door and this gentleman happened to be passing by I kind of bumped up against him accidentally and did not mean it, had no harm in it, and the first thing I knew, he hauled off and hit me and knocked me down. I got up again and when I got up he hit me the second time and knocked me down again. Then I got up I thought it was time for me to do something. I raised my hand, I did not strike him, and he went on about his business. He then go, I looked at him going away. He went up to the corner, turned the corner of Leroy St. and I did not know anything more about it after that.

Cross Examined. I was drunk. I had two more young fellows with me, Crawford and Connors I have seen John McBee but I did not see him the day this man was assaulted.
Dennis Shields testified that the prisoner was in his employ six years. That this character for peace and quietness, was good, and that he supported his mother.

0108

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy.

He was sent to the penitentiary for thirty days.

Court of General Sessions. Part - F
 April 13. 1887. Indictment for Keeping a disorderly house.

Maggie Hogg, sworn and examined. I live at 118 Christopher St. with my father and mother.
 I know the prisoner since last September; three girls brought me down to him and told me it was their uncle; two of them are here, Gracie Leonard, Katie Joy and Agnes Garland; one is in the house of the Good Shepherd; the prisoner's place is 211 Spring Street; it is a gun shop and a shooting gallery; the prisoner was there on the 29th of September. On the first day I went down there with the girls, the prisoner did not say anything at all; he just commenced fooling around me and I told him to stop it, and the other girls that was down there said he would not do anything to me; he went to put his hand up my clothes. That was all that was done that day. I went there about four or five days after that with one girl - Katie Joy; the prisoner was there; when I went in there we sat down; we commenced talking. So he says to me, he asked me for something. I told him "no," he had no business to ask for that. So he went and locked the door; he sat me on the bench and then he picked up my clothes; he done something to me.
 Do you mean that he had connection with you? Yes sir. There was the other girl? She was sitting down on the chair. In the same room? Yes Sir. That is all that happened that day. Was there any other people in there that day? No sir. I did not go there again till a good while after that; it was a week or two when I went there again. I did not go alone; I went down with girls most of the time I went down. Agnes Garland went with me this time; she is now in the House of the Good Shepherd. There was two young men down there and the prisoner. There was nothing done there that day - only the two young men and the prisoner were sitting together, and one of the men came over to ask me for something. I got up and I walked out; the other girl went with me. I went there soon again with the same girl; two of those other girls was with me there; it was in the morning; the prisoner was there and no one else was there. Nothing was done there at that time; we just got up and went out; the prisoner had connection with the other girls that day, first with Katie Joy and Maggie Deegan. I was there and saw it. Did the prisoner pay them any money at that time? Sometimes he gave money. This time he did give money. I went there the next day after that with two more girls; the prisoner was there; that was all was done then. It was in the evening when I went there, and then we stayed there a little while; there was two young men came in. They locked the doors and shut up the store then. Then the two young men came in he put the shutters up on the store, closed the store and turned the lights down. That was done then? The same as before. Did you have connection with any one? Yes sir, with the prisoner. And who did the other girls have connection with? The two young men. Was there any money paid? No sir. It was two or three weeks after that I went there again alone. I saw the prisoner; there was no one else there. Nothing was done that day. I done some work for him. I went with my little brother two weeks after that again; the prisoner did the same as before. I went there pretty often; on some of these occasions other young girls went with me and young men that he knew came down there; sometimes they would be there and sometimes not. After I went down there that time a young man that was down there had some thing to do with the other girls - had connection with them. Sometimes there was money paid and sometimes there was not. Did these young men pay money? They would ask it of him and he would give it to us, and the young men would say they would pay it back. Did they give you money sometimes?

Yes sometimes, 25-cents. All this has been since last September. I stopped going there four or five weeks. I stayed there all night twice and another girl was there; the prisoner stayed with me. I did not get money on those occasions. Cross Examined. I ran away from home three times altogether; the prisoner brought me home once. My mother did not know I was working down there for the prisoner. I did some washing, cooking and cleaning up there.
I did not know any of the other girls until I went there. I did not bring those girls there to see me. I saw the prisoner drive them out twice while I was there. My mother told me when I was away from home she found a letter I had written. I wrote it to a man who worked in a Museum, but I never sent it. I threw it away under the bed. In that letter I said to him I was away from home, I wanted to go to Baltimore with him; his name is Brock. I don't know where he lives, I knew him when he worked in the Museum, 298 Bowery. I went around there. He asked me and another girl to write to him when he went away. I don't know what made me write the letter. I can read and write. I saw five girls altogether down in the prisoner's place in Spring St. After he chased

Katie Joy and Gracie Leonard out they came in again. There is one bed in the prisoner's place. I had connection with two different men in that place - two young men who used to come down there, in the prisoner's room, which is back of the store; it is a large room. I did not know the young men before I saw them down there. They went down there to shoot with guns. Mock, the prisoner, was in the back room. I went to bed with the men and the prisoner stayed in the room all the while; the men paid me. Sometimes when the men did not have it they would ask him for it, twice in this place, two different young men; one time the young men paid me and one time the prisoner paid me. Sometimes the young men ~~could~~ have something to do with other girls. Then you went in the back room had connection with those men and Mock paid for that, did he? Yes sir. I was there four or five times when the men had connection with the girls; it was the same men over again and the prisoner. This was in November; the prisoner was present every time I ^{was} and the other girls had connection with men. You say that he drove some of these girls out, do you know why? Because they would not let him have some connections with them. I never ran away from home until after I knew the prisoner; he asked me to go and live with him; the prisoner was the first person that ever had connection with me. Gracie Leonard sworn I live at 58 Grove St. with my mother. I know the prisoner about a year. I have been in his place in Spring St. I knew Maggie Hogg three years ago; the first time I was to the theatre she was there too. I saw Maggie in the prisoner's place about two months after I went, some time last summer. I was not there when Maggie Hogg was seduced. I saw the prisoner at his place; he brought two men, one was a Spanish man and one was a Jew man ^{to me}; they had connection with me in the back room; they both gave me 50 cents each. I had connection with Mock, but I don't know how many times; the prisoner was there on each occasion when the men paid me money. I have seen there Agnes Garland, Maggie Hogg, and Katie Fry. Cross Examined I was about twelve times there altogether. I always did bother the prisoner for money. I did not threaten him one day that I would make trouble if he did not give me money. I never heard any of the other girls threaten him. Maggie Hogg cleaned house for the prisoner and so did Agnes Garland. Mr. Mock paid me money and I got money from two men.

Katie Joy, sworn and examined. I know the prisoner, I live 439 Canal St. with my father and mother. I will be 16 the 29th of this month. I have known the prisoner since last August. Gracie Leonard first introduced me to Maggie Hogg in Herley's theatre. I have met them at the prisoner's place in Spring St. I did not have connection with men there, only with Mock, "Pop," the prisoner; he used to make us call him "Pop." I saw girls have connection with him about twelve or thirteen times and once with other men. Cross Examined. I have seen there Mary Garland, Agnes Garland, Maggie Hogg, Gracie Leonard, Maggie Deegan and Mattie Watson. I have never had connection with any men but Mock; he paid me 25 cents; he used to give us some bread and meat when we went down there. Maggie Deegan sworn. August Mock

Keeping a disorderly house.

Maggie Hogg, sworn and examined. I live at 118 Christopher St. with my father and mother. I know the prisoner since last September; three girls brought me down to him and told me it was their uncle; two of them are here, Gracie Leonard, Katie Joy and Agnes Garland; one is in the house of the Good Shepherd; the prisoner's place is 211 Spring Street; it is a gun shop and a shooting gallery; the prisoner was there on the 29th of September. On the first day I went down there with the girls, the prisoner did not say anything at all; he just commenced fooling around me and I told him to stop it, and the other girls that was down there said he would not do anything to me; he went to put his hand up my clothes. That was all that was done that day. I went there about four or five days after that with one girl - Katie Joy; the prisoner was there; when I went in there we sat down; we commenced talking. So he says to me, he asked me for something. I told him "no," he had no business to ask for that. So he went and locked the door; he sat me on the bench and then he picked up my clothes; he done something to me. Do you mean that he had connection with you? Yes sir. There was the other girl? She was sitting down on the chair. In the same room.

 Yes Sir. That is all that happened that day.
 Was there any other people in there that day?
 No sir. I did not go there again till a good while after that; it was a week or two when I went there again. I did not go alone; I went down with girls most of the time I went down. Agnes Garland went with me this time; she is now in the House of the Good Shepherd. There was two young men down there and the prisoner. There was nothing done there that day - only the two young men and the prisoner were sitting together, and one of the men came over to ask me for something. I got up and I walked out; the other girl went with me. I went there soon again with the same girl; two of those other girls was with me there; it was in the morning; the prisoner was there and no one else was there. Nothing was done there at that time; we just got up and went out; the prisoner had connection with the other girls that day, first with Katie Joy and Maggie Deegan. I was there and saw it. Did the prisoner pay them any money at that time? Sometimes he gave money. This time he did give money. I went there the next day after that with two more girls; the prisoner was there; that was all was done then. It was in the evening when I went there, and then we stayed there a little while; there was two young men came in. They locked the doors and shut up the store then. Then the two young men came in he put the shutters up on the store, closed the store and turned the lights down. What was done then? The same as before. Did you have connection with any one? Yes sir, with the prisoner. And who did the other girls have connection with? The two young men. Was there any money paid? No sir. It was two or three weeks after that I went there again alone. I saw the prisoner; there was no one else there. Nothing was done that day. I done some work for him. I went with my little brother two weeks after that again; the prisoner did the same as before. I went there pretty often; on some of these occasions other young girls went with me and young men that he knew came down there; sometimes they would be there and sometimes not. After I went down there that time a young man that was down there had something to do with the other girls - had connection with them. Sometimes there was money paid and sometimes there was not. Did these young men pay money? They would ask of him and he would give it to us, and the young men would say they would pay. Would not let him have some connections

you? Yes sir. There was the other girl? She was it back. Did they give you money sometimes?
 Yes sometimes, 25-cents. All this has been since last September. I stopped going there four
 home three times altogether; the prisoner brought
 some washing, cooking and cleaning up there.
 I did not know any of the other girls until I
 see me. I saw the prisoner drive them out twice
 written. I wrote it to a man who worked in a Museum, but I never sent it. I threw it away
 was away from home, I wanted to go to Baltimore
 in the Museum 298 Bowery. I went around
 there. He asked me and another girl to write

Katie Joy and Gracie Leonard out they came in again. There is one bed in the prisoner's place. I had connection with two different men in that place - two young men who used to come down there, in the prisoner's room, which is back of the store; it is a large room. I did not know the young men before I saw them down there. They went down there to shoot with guns. Mock, the prisoner, was in the back room. I went to bed with the men and the prisoner stayed in the room all the while; the men paid me. Sometimes when the men did not have it they would ask him for it, twice in this place, two different young men; one time the young men paid me and one time the prisoner paid me. Sometimes the young men ~~could~~ have something to do with other girls. Then you went in the back room, had connection with those men and Mock paid for that, did he? Yes sir. I was there four or five times when the men had connection with the girls; it was the same men over again and the prisoner. This was in November; the prisoner was present every time I was and the other girls had connection with men. You say that he drove some of those girls out, do you know why? Because they would not let him have some connections with them. I never ran away from home until after I knew the prisoner; he asked me to go and live with him; the prisoner was the first person that ever had connection with me. Gracie Leonard sworn. I live at 58 Grove St. with my mother. I know the prisoner about a year. I have been in his place in Spring St. I knew Maggie Hogg three years ago; the first time I was to the theatre she was there too.

 I saw Maggie in the prisoner's place about two months after I went, some time last summer.
 I was not there when Maggie Hogg was seduced.
 I saw the prisoner at his place; he brought two men, one was a Spanish man and one was a few men ^{to me}; they had connection with me in the back room; they both gave me 50 cents each. I had connection with Mock, but I don't know how many times; the prisoner was there on each occasion when the men paid me money. I have seen there Agnes Garland, Maggie Hogg, and Katie Fry. Cross Examined I was about twelve times there altogether. I always did bother the prisoner for money. I did not threaten him one day that I would make trouble if he did not give me money. I never heard any of the other girls threaten him. Maggie Hogg cleaned house for the prisoner and so did Agnes Garland. Mr. Mock paid me money and I got money from two men.
