CITY AND COUNTY } ss. In the name of the People of the State of New York; To the Sheriff of the County OF NEW YORK, } of New York, or to any Marshal or Policeman of the City of New York, GREETING:

Whereas, Complaint in writing, and upon oath, has been made before the undersigned, one of the Police Justices for the City of New York, by William Cruesby of No. 19 East Houston Street, that on the 7 day of February 1888, at the City of New York, in the County of New York,

George J. Hart and Nathan Hart did keep a room in premises 101 110 Broadway for the purpose of gambling in violation of

R. J. Bragg

WILLIAM ORMSBY, of No. 37 E. Houston

Street, being duly sworn deposes and says

That on the eighth day of February 1888, in the City of New York, George S. Hart and Nathan Hart, did keep a room at No. 40 Broadway in the City of New York, to be used for gambling Deponent further says that in pursuance to instructions given him by Thomas Byrnes, Esq. an Inspector of Police in the City of New York, on the eighth day of February 1888, he went to said room at No. 40 Broadway in said City and found therein a large number of persons.

Deponent further says that there was a blackboard affixed to the wall of said room; and deponent further says that from time to time said Nathan Hart called out certain words and figures purporting to be quotations of stock and also placed the same upon a blackboard.

And deponent further says that the said persons whom, upon his entrance to said room, he found therein, were engaged in listening to said calls by said Nathan Hart and in observing said pretended quotations as they from time to time appeared upon said blackboard.

And deponent further says that having entered said room, and having observed said blackboard, at ten o'clock and thirty minutes on said day he handed one H. J. Sheridan Ten Dollars in lawful money of the United States who thereupon made out a paper which pretended to be an order to sell ten shares of an alleged stock called Lake Shore at 91 1-8 the said 91 1-6 being the last quotation of said stock which appeared upon said blackboard.

Deponent further says that thereupon said Sheridan handed said paper together with the money by him received of deponent to the said Nathan Hart, and received from said Nathan Hart in return a paper of which the following is a copy; which said paper said Sheridan then gave this deponent.

And deponent further says, that subsequently and at twelve o'clock and forty five minutes of the same day when said alleged stock known as L & M was quoted and recorded upon the blackboards as selling at 59 1-2 at the New York Stock Exchange, the deponent handed the said writing to said Sheridan who handed it to said Nathan Hart and received from said Hart the sum of <sup>5</sup>Seven Dollars and fifty cents which he thereupon delivered to deponent.

And deponent further says that during the time when he was in said room he saw numbers of other persons filling out similar papers, delivering them to either said George S. Hart or to said Nathan Hart, together with money, and receiving in return therefor papers similar to those which the deponent received.

And deponent further says that he did not deliver to said Harts, either or both, any stock nor receive any stock from them, nor was he asked for any stock by any person. Nor did he see any stock delivered to or received by any of the persons engaged in transactions similar to those in which the deponent engaged, but that the whole business then and there conducted by the said George S.
Hart and Nathan Hart was in receiving orders and ~~Nathan~~

Stock Exchange as from time to time they appeared upon said blackboard.

And deponent further says that he had no intention to buy or sell any stock, and that he does not believe that the said George S. Hart or Nathan Hart had any intention to sell or buy any stock, but to settle differences on the fluctuation of the stock market as they appeared on the said blackboard.

And deponent further says that as far as he was able to observe the whole business carried on by said George S. Hart and Nathan Hart was the settlement of differences upon orders to buy and sell stock according to the fluctuations of the market <sup>made</sup> for stock by the New York Stock Exchange as from time to time they appeared upon said blackboard, without any intention on the part of the persons so engaged to deliver or receive any stock.

WHEREFORE deponent prays that the said George S. Hart and Nathan Hart then and there kept said rooms for making bets and wager contracts upon the fluctuations of stock as they appeared upon said blackboard and for gambling in violation of section 343 of the Penal Code of the State of New York.

WHEREFORE deponent prays that a warrant may issue against said persons, that they may be dealt with according to law.

of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz:

One bundle of leather of the value of fifty one dollars and seven cents

the property of Frank E Kilpatrick in the care and custody of deponent as express driver and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Patrick Healey (now here) from the fact that deponent missed said property from a wagon in deponent charge at the Hamilton Ferry and deponent was informed by Officer John J. Maloney of the 4th Precinct Police that he found the aforesaid property in the defendant's possession and deponent has since seen said property and identified the same as the property taken stolen and carried away as aforesaid by the marks on said property
