The People
 vs.
 Catherine Connolly
 Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree.

Court of General Sessions. Part I.
 Before Judge Cowing. Dec. 27. 1883.

Michael Murren, sworn and examined, testified. On the 25th of Oct. I lived at 213 West Forty ninth St.; it is a boarding house. I am a single man. Mr. Higgins keeps the boarding house. Miss Foley is the boarding mistress's sister. I occupy a room on the top floor. I boarded there about three months. The prisoner came on Sunday. I lost my property on the Thursday after she came. I was working all the time. I used to see her mornings and evenings. Miss Foley and no one else attended to my room. On the 25th of Oct. I lost $57.25 in money consisting of five ten dollar bills and half dollars and quarters. It was in my vest pocket which hung upon the wall. I am a day laborer. I went to work that morning and I left my money in my clothes in the room. I know nothing about who took that money. I told Miss Foley I lost the money. I saw the prisoner a month after in the Court room. I did not see her in the house after that Thursday; she left when the money went; she left her clothes after her and her wages also.

0836

Cross Examined. I am a hod carrier and work in 130th St. I got the five dollars from a young man who works in a brick yard to pay his wife's passage to the old country; he gave it to me the Monday night before it was stolen. I was going to pay the passage the first wet day that came I had the five ten dollar bills in my hand on Wednesday night, and during all this week this money was in my vest which was on the wall. There were two beds in my room. A young man named Rorney slept along with me. Cairns and McGoyle slept in the same room. They are in the city somewhere working. There are perhaps sixteen boarders in the house. My room door was not locked. The prisoner could not be found till a month after and that was the reason she was not arrested. Kate Foley, sworn. I was living with my sister Mrs. Higgins in October last; she keeps a boarding house at 213 West Forty Ninth St. Catherine Connolly came there as a cook. I employed her; she came a Sunday afternoon in Oct. I know Micheal Mulran; he was living in the house at the time and occupied the back room on the top floor. I attended to his room exclusively and no one else had any right to go there. I agreed to give the prisoner eight dollars a month and she could stay a week until I would see how I liked her and her wages would be raised accordingly. She came on Sunday and left on Thursday about 4 1/2 o'clock. I heard of the complainant losing his money the night she left; he told me about 6 1/2 or seven o'clock; she did not ask for her wages and she left her clothing there. The next time I saw her was in the Court house. About 11 o'clock in the forenoon of the day on which she left I was looking for her and could not find her. I went to the Kitchen and asked her where she was? She said she had been up stairs making beds on the top floor. I told her that could not be so, for I made all the beds myself. There were three rooms on the top floor and beds in each. I made them all at 8 o'clock in the morning with the exception of one where the man was in bed. I had no conversation with her after her arrest. Cross Examined: I did not see the prisoner in the room of the complainant, but she told me she was up stairs; This was 11 o'clock in the day. Sarah Jennings sworn. I live 1192 Second Avenue and am engaged in the shoe business. I remember Thursday the 25th of Oct.; the prisoner came to my place about 8 o'clock and asked for a pair of shoes and she gave me a two dollar bill and I gave her half a dollar ^{out for it}. She asked me if I could keep her for the night and she stayed two or three weeks; she went once to a place and then came back. I saw she had two ten dollar bills and other money besides; she counted it on the table in my house - a roll of bills; she told me she had her money in the bank and got it out. Catherine Connolly, sworn and examined in her own behalf testified. I am 27 years old and have been in New York six years living out as a servant girl. I went to Mrs. Higgins Sunday and left on Thursday. I was not in the complainant's room and did not take his money. The reason I left was because she imposed too much work on me. I went away without her paying me money and left my clothes. The money the woman saw me have was my own money. I intended to go back for my clothes. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

0837

0838

on the 16th day of December 1883 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz: One Gold Watch and chain of the value together of Fifty Dollars and good and lawful money of the United States like or notes of values and denominations, as follows: One of Ten Dollars, one of Five Dollars and one of One Dollar, together of the value of Sixteen Dollars.

in all of the value of Sixty-six Dollars, the property of Deponent and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by Joseph Connolly, now here, for the reasons following, to wit: At about seven o'clock on the evening of said day deponent left said apartment, locking said door and taking the key thereof with her in her pocket. At about 9 o'clock deponent returned to said premises and found said door open and missed from said room said property which she had seen before just before she went out. Deponent is informed by Anne Donahue that at about half past eight o'clock on said night she saw 0850

coming down the stoop leading from said first floor to the sidewalk a man strongly resembling said Connolly in size, general appearance, complexion and dress. Deponent is also informed by Officer Thomas Moran of the 8th Precinct Police that, being informed that said Annie Donahue had seen said Joseph Connolly as above stated, he the said officer arrested said Joseph Connolly in bed in a room at No 188 Varick street at about 11 O'clock on said night and found lying in the same bed in which said Joseph Connolly was the iron drill here shown, and that he took said drill to said premises No 2 Congress Place and placing the sharpened end thereof in the indentures in said door and the casing thereof, found that said drill exactly fitted said indentures.
