vs.
Kate Clancy .

{ Court of General Sessions, Part 1 .
{ Before Judge Martine.

August 14, 1888.

Indictment for Grand Larceny in the second degree.

Lawrence Connolly sworn and examined. I live 334 Third Avenue and lived there on the 26th of June, 1888; I have seen the defendant before and know that she has been living at 334 Third Avenue, the first time I ever seen this woman was about eight or ten weeks ago, she was working there as chambermaid, I had a room there on the second floor back, she cleared up my room and attended to it the same as to the others, I never saw her in my room; when I left my room I left it locked; on the 26th of June I had seventy dollars and a diamond ring in my pocket between the hours of eight and one o'clock; there was two ten dollar bills, five or six five dollar bills and some ones and twos; the ring was small with a little diamond on top, I do not know what the value of it was, I did not buy it, it was left in my charge, it was worth ten dollars anyhow; this property was in my pantaloons pocket on the 26th of June, my pantaloons were lying upon the chair at the side of the bed in my room, I had it between the hours of eight and one o'clock and about one o'clock I missed my money, missed my clothes, they were taken down off the chair, I put it in my pants pocket about eight o'clock in the morning, I left them upon the chair at the side of the bed I was sleeping in; the ring was in the same pocket that my money was in.

I am a waiter, I slept till about half past twelve or one o'clock and when I woke up my clothes were pulled down of the chair and forty cents of small change that was in my pocket I saw lying upon the floor, the first thing I missed was my pocket-book that I put in the top pocket of my pants, it was lying upon the floor and the money taken out of it, the ring was inside a bill; when I got up and missed it I went downstairs and inquired was any person in my room that day, I found there had been no person coming into that house upon that day, I went then to the Station House and reported it and an officer met me about six o'clock; Officer Wade was speaking to me on the outside and he went upstairs, I went to the Station House between three and four o'clock and the officer came about half past six. He told me to stay outside on the stairs and that he would go into the kitchen to speak to Kate; when he went into the kitchen Kate came out of the hallway, I was standing upon the stairs, she had this money in her hand, she picked up the mat that was at the foot of the stairs, a carpet, she stopped at the carpet, I caught of her by the wrist, called for the officer at the door and he took it out of her hand, I saw her stoop and when she stooped I caught hold of her by the wrist, she was going to put this money that she had in her hand under the carpet, I saw her lift the carpet, she did not see me, it was dark. This is a basement restaurant and there is furnished rooms upstairs, there is no hall door going into the restaurant; it was at the foot of the stairs running from the first to the second floor that she came, the kitchen is on the first floor and she came out of the kitchen toward these stairs, I was standing alongside the stair that went up in the hall, I was upon the stairs and she could not see me; this money was rolled up in a napkin, a napkin of white and red stripes, the napkin now shown me is like it, I found seventy dollars in money in her hand; among the bills were two ten dollar bills, one was an old brown bill, pretty much worn and the other was a new bill, I think that the money now shown me is the money that was found in her hand, I believe it is and in this money are the two bills I speak of; when I took the money from her she did not say anything, not a word, she was crying, I have never found the diamond ring.

Cross Examined. I cannot swear positively that the money belonged to me because I had no private mark on it, I worked for this money, I had it quite a good while. I did not ask this woman for a drink of water on the day I lost my money, I never made any proposition to her; the defendant was not examined by the lady in Court before she came out into the hallway, Mrs. Murray searched her to find the ring, she said she did not know anything about the ring, I was sober the night I went to bed, I am not in the habit of getting intoxicated, I have worked every night this last two years as a waiter in this restaurant 334 Third Avenue. I never told the Defendant that I would get square with her.

Mary Murray sworn. I live at 334 Third Avenue and was there on the 26th of June, I remember the arrest of the defendant, Connolly had charge of our restaurant and works from six in the evening till seven in the morning, he goes upstairs to bed, that morning he came down between twelve and one o'clock and told me that somebody had taken his money, I went upstairs and I told me mother that Lawrence had been robbed of his money, Kate Clancy was there at the time, I said it was too bad, that he worked very hard for his money and I was going down to the Station House to report it, Kate Clancy made the remark that I ought to do that, I said I guessed she knew about it just as well as anybody else, there had been no strangers in the house that day; she said she would not do such a thing as that, to go into the room where a young man is sleeping. My father keeps a place down in the Bowery and I told him about the case and he told me to report it to the Station House; the officer came upstairs between six and seven into the back kitchen and he asked her if she took the money and she said no. He told her to dress herself and come to the Station House, he gave her a chance to go outside to dress herself and Lawrence came in with her, had her by the hand and showed the money, which was in a napkin, I could not positively say whether she had it or he had it, I was so excited at the time, I helped to count the money and it was seventy dollars; the officer told me to search her for the ring, I did not want to do so at first, he asked me again, I took her into the bed-room off the kitchen, she undressed herself and looked for the ring but we did not find it,, she said she was not guilty. There were in the house on that evening my mother, father and sister and there might be one or two men upstairs, lodgers, I think Kate Clancy had been in our employ about a month.

Cross Examined. There were other lodgers in the other room at the time the complainant was sleeping there I could not positively swear that all these men were out of their rooms, the complainant sleeps every day, or I should have said, the cook sleeps every day, I could not positively swear that one of these boarders was not home intoxicated.

Charles J. Wade sworn. I am an officer of the 18th precinct and arrested the defendant at 334 Third Avenue on the 20th of June between six and seven o'clock in the evening upon the complaint of Connolly; we went to the house together, I said, "you had better remain in the hallway and let me speak to the defendant", I went into the kitchen and there was an old lady there, I believe Mrs. Murray's mother, Mrs. Murray came in the room, I asked Kate if she knew anything about this robbery and she said she did not, she got very much excited, I said, "I have got to bring you to the Station House, you had better go and dress yourself"; she walked out of the door and in about one minute after I heard a rumpus in the hallway and Connolly came running in with Kate by the hand and the money was in Kate's hand rolled up in a napkin, I took the money from her hand and counted it in the presence of Mrs. Murray, I brought it with them to the Station House and the Sargeant counted it and there was seventy dollars: she denied her guilt to me positively.

Kate Clancy sworn and examined in her own behalf, testified: I worked at this house 334 Third Avenue a month and three days, I am married and have seven children; on the 24th of June which was Sunday Connolly came out of his room, it was very hot and he asked me for God's sake to give him a drink of water for he was parched with drought and he says, "I will pray for your body when your feet is in heaven"; I said, "that is a very funny saying indeed for a man", I went down stairs to get a glass of water, there was no water and I brought him up a large schooner of milk and he drank it, I went down and got a second glass, he drank that and put the glass on the chair next to the lounge and got hold of me by the left shoulder and led me into the room. I said, "Connolly, what are you doing?" He said, "never mind, Kate, it will only take five minutes." I said, "shame on you, you call yourself a Catholic being to church, offering yourself to a poor woman like me." He said, "never mind Kate, the holier the day the better the deed." I drew my right hand and hit him on the bottom of the stomach, he said, "God damn your Protestant face, I will be even with you, mind if I don't." He never spoke to me from the 24th until the 26th and whenever he would pass upstairs he would grind his teeth at me. On the 26th Mrs. Murray called me to go down and serve the lunches at the counter and at a quarter past one Connolly came in and made the alarm that he was robbed. She said, "Kate, have you been to Larry's room?" I said no, she said, "somebody has been into Larry's room and nobody has been there but you, I dare say you know something about it", she said she would put in the hands of a detective. The officer came in the evening and said to me, "you know all about this robbery, we will forgive you all if you give the money up and the ring." I said, "I have no money" and Mrs. Murray put her hand in my pocket and took out a dollar bill and a five and two cent piece. The officer said, "you are my prisoner", I said "very well, you are taking an innocent woman", I was working in my stocking feet and I went upstairs to get my boots, Connolly jumped on me like a tiger and said, "you damned thief, I have got you now", and with that he stooped down and put his hand underneath the carpet.
