the above case. Deponent knows that upon two or three occasions said Cheever has drunk to excess, and when intoxicated seemed and acted crazy and as if he did not know what he was doing. Defendant has often done business and made collection for deponent and deponent has upon all occasion found him honest and reliable, and has had every opportunity of knowing the reputation of said defendant, in as much as defendant was a City' salesman, and during the time mentioned lived in the immediate vicinity of deponent.

WILLIA CHEEVER being duly sworn deposes and says; that the right name of the defendant in the above entitled action, is Charles A. Cheever, and that deponent is the wife of said Cheever, and has been acquainted with him for almost four years last past, and that she has been married to said defendant for a little upwards of three years, and that during all such time the defendant has been a kind, loving and faithful husband at all times, providing for her support and maintenance, and that during all such time since she has been acquainted with defendant he has never been arrested or charged with any crime, until the present one. That for about three weeks previous to the time of defendant's arrest, he had been confined a greater portion of the time to the house, by an abscess on his leg, and that he was treated by Dr. McKay of No. 30 West 10th Street, and that during such time the defendant was out of employment and was compelled to pawn his watch, and that on the morning of defendant's arrest the deponent gave to defendant her watch, which he had previously given her, for the purpose of pawning the same, in order to meet the necessary expenses of housekeeping, in as much as defendant was not then ^{able} to resume his work, as City salesman.

Deponent further says that just previous to leaving the house, defendant was complaining of the pain which he endured on account of the abscess, and took a portion of morphine for the purpose of deadening said pain, and that he left the house a little after eight o'clock on said morning, and the next deponent saw defendant was after his arrest.

Deponent further says that the defendant has always been industrious and steadily employed, with the exception of the time during the sickness hereinbefore referred to, and that his earnings has been applied in the support of deponent and maintaining the expenses ~~and~~ their home, and that the only complaint deponent was ever able to make against the defendant was that upon a very few occasions, he has drunken liquor to excess, and when under the influence seemed to be perfectly wild and delirious.

CHARLES A. CHEEVER being duly sworn deposes and says; that he is the defendant above named and gave the name of Johnson after his arrest, and as soon as he realized the position that he was placed in, for the purpose of concealing his identity, as he had never been arrested or charged with any crime before, and did not wish to disgrace to fall upon his wife and friends.

Deponent further says that he is Twenty-nine years of age, and before coming to the City of New York, about four years ago, was in the employ of Claflin, Larrabee & Co., of Boston, as travelling salesman, and while in this City he has been engaged as such salesman for Passavant & Co., at No. 320 Church Street, until the time when he was taken sick with the abscess referred to in the affidavit of his wife hereto attached, and that on the morning of his arrest he was suffering severe pain and took some morphine, and as he was feeling very blue and despondent, being compelled to pawn his wife's watch to meet necessary household expenses, he commenced to drink liquor, and after taking five or six drinks of whiskey, he became almost unconscious and did not realize that he was committing the offense for which he was arrested, until after his arrest. Deponent says he is truly sorry and repentant, and begs this Honorable Court to extend such mercy as to him may seem just and proper.
