Daniel Laffey

Court of General Sessions, Part I
 Before Judge Fitzgerald May 26th 1892.
 Indictment for grand larceny.

James B. Cunningham, sworn and examined, testified:

Where do you live? In Port Harcourt at present.

Your business is fruit dealer? Yes. You have stables in this city where you keep your horses?

Yes, I stable in No. 48 Munroe street. You did have a stable there on the 14th of this month?

Yes; on that day in the stable I had a brass mounted single set of harness; I valued it at thirty five dollars. How long had you had the harness? About a week. Where did you last see the harness? On the hook where I hung it up; it was on Saturday night I hung it up. Then I locked the stable. When did you return to your stables? Sunday afternoon. I found no harness there, and the stable was open when I went there, but there was another man employed in the stable cleaning his horses. I discovered that the harness was not where I placed it on Saturday night. What did you do then? I informed Mr. Cuddy, the man who owns the stable. He told me something and then I went up to the Police Station. I spoke to Detective Haggerty, and then I went down to the defendant's house along with Officer Haggerty. I never had known the defendant before. I saw him after he came out of the lodging house with the detective; the lodging house was on the corner of James street and Park Row; the officer went up there and he came back with the prisoner. Did you talk with him? I did. I asked him about the harness. He said he did not know anything about it. I told the detective to take him in and I would make a charge against him. On the way to the station house the defendant came back to me and asked me would I push the complaint if he told me where the harness was? I told him I would be light on him if he told me where it was. He informed me it was in a South street saloon. We went there in company with the prisoner's father and found the harness and brought it to the station house. I don't remember the number of the saloon in South St. but it is near Catherine slip. The harness was behind the lunch counter. I identified it as mine and he carried it to the station house. It was left there all night and brought to court in the morning. Did you meet a man named Emile Patzig in South St. Not to my knowledge. I might have seen him there, I don't know him though.

I went up to the station and made a complaint against the defendant and he was arrested. I did not talk with him again.
 Cross Examined. The only way I know that the harness was worth thirty five dollars is that I paid that for it. I am not a dealer in harness. I have not seen the defendant around the stable before. I believe he was employed around there, but I do not know it. I believe there is three or four more people occupy the stable beside me. When the defendant said he had taken the harness did he say that he had stolen it? He said he just borrowed it and he intended to bring it back.

Emile Patzig sworn and examined. I work at 204 South Street, it is a hotel kept by Mrs. Stein. I am a bartender there. I saw the defendant before. I guess it was Sunday morning two weeks ago between one and two o'clock. What did he have with him? He had a set of harness. I could not swear it was brass because I did not look at it. He asked me if I would please keep the harness five or ten minutes till one of his workmen came down and got them. I supposed he was a milkman. He laid it down and he went out. I next saw the defendant in the station house when I was notified to go there by Officer Hafferty. I identified him as the man who brought the harness in on Sunday.

 Cross Examined - Did he say where he got the harness? No; he did not say whether he had stolen or borrowed it. Are you sure the front door was closed when he came in? Yes. Was it not about twelve o'clock when the defendant came in? No sir, it was between one and two o'clock. What time did you go on? About eleven o'clock. Did this man have a drink there? No sir. Are you positive he did not have a drink there? No. Is that as true as anything else you have said? Yes. I told him to leave the harness there.

James Hafferty, sworn and examined. I am connected with the Police Department and I arrested the defendant at No. 1 James Street; the complainant Cunningham was with me; the defendant was lying on the bed; it was Sunday about seven o'clock in the evening. I asked him for the key of the stable; he handed me the key. I asked him why he did not go to business? He said he was drunk the night before. I then asked him for the set of harness, and he denied knowing anything at all about them. I asked Mr. Cunningham if he would charge him with taking the harness, and he said he would. On the way to the station house the defendant told me that he would tell me where the harness was provided I would let up on him. I told him that I could not let up on him. I said he would have to see Mr. Cunningham and see what he would say. He told us that we would find the harness at 204 South street. I took the prisoner to the station house, and Mr. Cunningham and his father went there and got the harness. I asked the defendant why he took the harness, and he told me he was going to the races the next day, that he was drunk and that he hardly knew what he was doing. The harness was subsequently brought to the station house and the complainant identified it as his.

Cross Examined. He spoke of borrowing the harness the next morning in Court. Had no conversation with the defendant in the lodging house. I am positive that the defendant said at first that he did not know anything about the harness. He gave me the key of the stable right away when I asked him for it; he had been employed by Tobias Cody, who owns the stable. He did not say anything about the stable being locked as a reason why he left the harness in the saloon.

I was present in the Police Court when the defendant was examined. I heard the usual questions and answers put to him which are put to accused persons there. He said "I am not guilty. I borrowed the harness intending to take the harness as I was working in the stable at the time."

Daniel Laffey sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. On the 14th of May Saturday at half past nine o'clock I went to this stable at night. I was working for the man who owns the stable. I went back to give the horses hay. While I was there, I said to myself, I will be going out tomorrow, that was Sunday, so there could not be any races that day. So I will borrow the harness as long as nobody is around and I will fetch it back again, being as I stable in the next stall. I did not know the owner of the harness, only the two drivers. I did not know Mr. Cunningham. The harness was a light express harness. I said to myself, I will fetch it back the next day. I did not go out that Sunday because I was sick. I wanted to fetch the harness down to O'Brien's stable but it was locked. I went down to the liquor store of Mr. Stein's and left them there a little after twelve o'clock. I did not go in the front door, but in the side door. Did you have a drink there? Yes, there was other men had drinks also; then I left the harness there till morning. My head was aching and I did not want to get up. About three or four o'clock in the afternoon I went in and had another drink. Sunday, the same day. I said, I will call for this by and by. The day bar tender was on, and before I had time to call for them I was arrested. I intended to take them back. Did you take the harness away from that stable with intent to steal them? No sir. I did not. I intended to return them. I was personally acquainted with the two drivers. I would do anything to help them; they were green hands. I loaned them my brushes. I was employed by Mr. Ledy for two weeks. I know him for twenty three years. I got my finger cut off in his stable.

Cross examined. I went to the stable to feed the horses with hay about nine o'clock. I was going to get a horse at O'Brien's stable and I took the harness there. I left the harness at Stein's till morning when I found O'Brien's stable locked. Why did you not take the harness back to the stable from which you took it? I did not want to go back to the stable. for I was going to Steins Sunday because I work in the fish market. I frequently have went to Steins. I was only two blocks away from the stable too. Could you not have taken it back and borrowed it in the morning? Yes. You did not think of that? No. There was no races Sunday. I did not want to go to the races. What did you tell the Officer when he came? I told him I did not know anything about the harness belonging to that man, it was the two drivers I knew. This was Saturday night? Yes. The horse you expected to go out riding with on Sunday was to be found in whose stables? O'Brien's James' Tip. That is the stable you looked in to put the harness in and it was closed?

Yes. You afterwards put the harness in Steins? Yes.

By the Court

You were going to hire a horse? Yes. I was going in an express wagon to Calvary Cemetery. Who were you going to get the wagon from? Mr. O'Brien; he did not hire his horse with harness.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny. The defendant was remanded for sentence.

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

John Dedwith

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

John Dedwith

of the CRIME OF KEEPING OPEN ON SUNDAY a place licensed for the SALE OF STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, WINES, ALE AND BEER, committed as follows:

The said

John Dedwith
late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 9th day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- , the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, being then and there in charge of and having the control of a certain place there situate, which was then duly licensed as a place for the sale of strong and spirituous liquors, wines, ale and beer, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did not close and keep closed, and on the said day the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did open and cause and procure and suffer and permit to be open, and to remain open, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Patrick Lee and

I have examined into the above case and do not think a conviction can be obtained for the reason that it well appears in evidence that the accused was intoxicated and upon his cart in company with one B. Peterson a small boy about 14 years old that the defendant Patrick Lee in sport pulled the slat from the front of the cart, the jolting of the cart or some other reason then caused accused to catch hold of said Peterson apparently in order to save himself. The other defendant Joseph Rush thinking accused to be about to throw Peterson from the cart, not knowing that the slat had been removed ran across the street and jumped upon the tail of the cart and caused the cart to be tipped up. Whereupon accused and Peterson fell out of the cart. the accused back wound upon his head, receiving a concussion of the brain from which he died the following day.

The defendant Patrick Lee was at the time of the accident 17 years of age and the defendant Patrick J. Rush at said time was 15 years of age.

I recommend a dismissal of the indictment.

I live at 109 Greenwich. I am one of the defendants. I am sixteen years of age. I knew Cantfield the deceased for about three years. I first saw him on November 6th at Morris and Greenwich Sts, as he started off with his cart. B. Peterson was on the cart with him. Patrick Lee was with me. I saw Mr Cantfield have a hold of Peterson by the leg and I thought that he was going to throw him out, and I ran over and jumped on the tail of the cart, thinking I could save Peterson. I put my left foot first on the back of the cart and was just about to put my right leg over the tail of the cart when it dumped. I then jumped off. I had no intention of injuring the man and I did not know that the slot was out at the time I jumped on the cart.

I mostly work with my mother, who cleans offices at the office of The Farmers Loan & Trust Co.,

I used to sell newspapers. I met the deceased Wm Cantfield at about 2³⁰ P.M. on Nov 6th 1891. I got on his cart at Morris and Washington St. he got off and went into his house to get a cup of tea; he started from Morris St up through Church St; he said he was going to Broadway; we went to Cor Church and Trinity Place. I saw Patrick Lee come and pull out the slab, and Patrick Rush pulled down the back of the cart; Cantfield caught a hold of my leg, the cart tipped backwards; he started backwards, and fell over the tail of the cart upon the back of his head, and I fell out back first right between his legs; they laid him upon the sidewalk (Henry look, Mrs Cantfield, I ~~was~~ taken to his home, I left him on the sidewalk and went away.

I am in the employ of the Manhattan Railway Co, and have an office on Morris and Greenwich Sts.

I saw deceased come from a liquor store and get on the cart: he started and had proceeded a short distance up church St: he was in the front of the cart. I saw the boys follow the cart: one of the boys pulled the slat the other jumped upon the tail of the cart: the deceased staggered back, and went his hips struck the back of the cart and he fell on the pavement ^{on} the back of his head. a crowd collected and carried him onto the sidewalk.

"My opinion was that it was devilishly prompted them to the act: I did not think that they had the slightest idea of the serious results that would follow. I knew the boys previous to the occurrence: they were then wild and mischievous: since that time they have been very well behaved

Inquest into the death

- of -

WILLIAM CANNIVELL.

Before Louis W. Schultz
Hon. J. C. D. Bessinger, and a Jury.

New York, New York, 18th, 1891.

OFFICER ARTHUR A. CANN, duly sworn:-

I am attached to the New York City Police Department. When we received we found these boys pulling a cart and the wagon this man was in and the boy jumped on behind the cart and dumped it over. We arrested the boy on suspicion; they so-called they pulled the cart and the other boys jumped on behind.

By Counsel for Prisoner:-

Q All you know is from information furnished to you?

A. Yes, sir.

-----c00-----

Dr. FREDERICK G. MERRILL, duly sworn:-

I reside No. 20 Greenwich Street; I was called in to see this man on Friday evening; I found him in a stupor; I was informed that the man was intoxicated and I found him insensible, but I couldn't find any symptoms of his having received an injury to the head, which sometimes is a very hard thing to do in cases of intoxication, unless there are external signs of injury, and in this case as it was I thought that if the man were simply intoxicated it would be well to leave the case until - to leave him alone and to give him a chance to recover from the intoxication, which I did. I did nothing except to leave the man laid down and left quiet and I waited for developments. Later on, in the evening, a couple of hours or so afterwards the lady, the widow of the man came around and said he was about in the same condition; I asked if I could do nothing, except to leave him alone and to leave him to recover from his stupor in the morning and would be satisfied if there was something the matter with him. In the morning when I came to my office I found the man was dead; I also heard what the man had received an injury, and on that evidence I refused to give a burial certificate. That is all I know about the case.

By Counsel:-

Q You examined him - did you look for any external evidences? A. I looked for external evidences, I found none; I did not strip the man; I gave him a superficial examination; I took their word for it, ^{the} man was suffering from intoxication, I was a little bit led in the case and I did not strip him and examine him.

Q You were informed he was suffering from intoxication?

A. Yes, sir.

Q Who informed you of it? A. I think the widow or Mr. Lee.

Q She was there at the time? A. Yes, sir.

-----000----- BRIDGET GANWELL, duly sworn:-

I live No. 14 Murray Street. My husband got into his cart and he passed along up to the corner of Church Street; he had been detained there by the boys, and I didn't see him falling out of the cart, nor did I see them dumping him out. I went up to Church Street not thinking about it and I found a lot of men helping him off the cart; the cart was upset in the street and he was on the street, but the men had him when I came there; they laid him at the corner of Church Street where he sat there for a little while. I asked the men to stand him on his feet and they did stand him on his feet, and with that he came home to the house, two flights of stairs up, he came in and took off all his clothes; I said to him sit down and have a cup of tea; I gave him a pillow to lay down a little while. He complained of his head, rubbing his head, and I didn't think he was badly hurt, because there was no outside injury on to him. I have only one child and she was in school at the time; this was on a Friday. He didn't tell me anything about how he fell off the cart; he didn't tell me anything about the boys pulling out the slat at all;

Q You gave him some tea and put him to bed? A. Yes, sir.

Q Was your husband a drinking man? A. He might take a glass of beer or so; he was a hard working industrious man.

By Counsel:-

Q When you met you say he was taken from where he fell and stood on his feet? A. Some laboring men there helped him.

Q How far is this from your house? A. Not very far from my house.

Q How far, a block? A. A short kind of a block.

Q After you saw him in company of these men did you go home? A. Yes, sir; he went home with me.

Q Did he go home with you? A. Yes, sir; he went right home.

By Mr. Lynn:-

Q Did he say anything in reference as to how he was injured? A. He ~~said~~ said he was hurt; he didn't say who done it or anything.

Q Had he been drinking a drop before he was hurt?

A. He might have had a glass of beer or something like that.

Q What time of the day was it? A. About half past two o'clock on a Friday.

By Counsel:-

Q Is it not a fact, Mrs. Gantwell, that sometimes he would come home in a state of intoxication? A. Well, sometimes.

Q Didn't he ever come in intoxicated? A. Well, yes; he might have come in that way.

-----oOo-----

GEORGE W. SMITH, duly sworn:-

I live No. 32 Greenwich Street. All I know about it is I heard a noise in the street and saw a cart coming up the street, with the old man pulling on a boy with red hair, they had hold of the cart and one boy had a dumping plank in his hand, and the other one jumped on the tail end of the cart, and upset it and the old man fell off the cart on the back of his head.

By Council:-

Q Did you see how many boys were in that cart?

A. There was one in the cart.

Q One boy sat on the edge, and dumped it? A. No, sir; jumped on it, it was a large sized coal cart.

Q Can you tell the condition of Cartwell? A. I never saw him in any but one condition.

Q He was in that condition that day? A. That I cannot tell anything about; there were some ladies dragging him by the arm, trying to hold him.

By Mr. Lynn:-

Q Were the boys further along at that time? A. Yes, sir.

Q The cart was in motion? A. Yes, sir.

Q It had no load on? A. No, sir; except the load he carried.

Q Did you know whether the tail-board was down? A. The tail-board was down in place.

Q Do you recognize either of those boys here to-day?

A. Yes, sir; both of them.

Q Which one - do you recollect had the stick or what?

A. He had it in his hand when I saw it, I didn't see him draw the stick.

Q What was he doing with it? A. He went alongside of the cart; they were carrying on and fooling with the old man.

Q You saw the other one jump on behind? A. Yes, sir.

Q Did you hear anything said by either of them?

A. I was sitting in the office looking at the - looking out of my office window, I couldn't hear a word of any kind passed.

Q Did they attempt to strike him with the stick?

A. No, sir; there was nothing malicious in it.

Q Either in a playful spirit? A. That is what I took it for entirely.

Q The cart jumped then? A. Yes, sir.

Q How did they swing on it? A. Catching on top of it.

Q Resting his foot where? A. Four or five inches from the tail of the cart, to the end of the platform.

Q As he jumped on the cart swung over? A. Yes, sir.

Q Overbalanced? A. Dumped.

Q Did the driver have the lines in his hands at the time?

A. I think the lines were over the manger, over the two sticks where the lines lay on.

Q He didn't have it in his hand? A. I don't know, my impression was they were lying on this manger.

Q The cart was driven along that way? A. No, sir, another man was going up the street having the horse by the head.

Q You don't know that man - you could not identify him here? A. No, sir; he was at the head of the horse and the cart intervened between me and him.

Q This man was driving the horse by the head? A. Leading it.

Q The deceased was on the cart? A. He had hold of the little boy in the cart trying to pull him loose, carrying on with him.

Q Which boy was in the cart? A. I don't know; I don't know whether that was the boy or not, he had the same colored hair.

Q Was either of those boys here in the cart? A. No, sir.

Q It was neither boy? A. Yes, sir.

Q You think that boy in this first sketch is the boy that looks like him? A. I think so by the color of his hair.

Q What was the man doing with the boy? A. He had hold of him by the wrist and was trying to get him to get up of the cart; he was leaning on the front part of the cart.

Q Were the cart driver and the boy in the cart?

A. Yes, sir; they were both in together; the old man fell out and the boy fell in the tail end of the cart; I don't know whether it was this boy.

-----000-----
BY COUNSEL: These boys admit the pulling of the cart and dumping of the cart; they have been in the habit of fooling with this man, but it was done without any malicious intent; they admit jumping on the end of the cart and pulling the clat.

-----000-----
HENRY COOK, duly sworn:-

I live No. 11 Delancey Street; I worked for the deceased; I worked for two years and a half with this gentleman; this was on a Friday afternoon about half past two o'clock; this little boy climbed on the cart and my boss turned on the cart to Washington Street; and as the reins broke and I found it with a snap, and two fellows came across the street and they said we will feel a little bit; these boys used to feel him in the time;
the line was broken and I got the horse by the head and one boy took out the cart and one boy behind and of course my boss was in the cart and he fell on his head.

Q Who were the two boys that took out the cart?

A. That little boy was on the cart, and followed by himself.

By Counsel:-

Q What was the condition of Cartrell? A. He had two blows on his head at dinner time.

Q Were you driving the cart? A. Yes, sir; it was dinner hour -

Q You were driving? A. No, sir; he was driving himself; I hitched up the cart and I wanted to drive myself and the boss jumped in; I seen when he jumped in the cart.

Q How long before did you see him before he fell out of the cart? A. At the same point, when I noticed the cart, he went away -

By Mr. Lynn:-

Q What were you leading the horse for, by the way - what for? A. Because one of the reins was broken, and the horse had no hold.

Q Why was he in the wagon? A. He was doing some kind of work.

Q What was he doing in the cart? A. He was sitting in the cart.

Q He was just getting a ride, was he? A. No, sir.

Q Where were you going to drive him to? A. 53 Broadway; I was to get some ashes; it was a private ash-cart.

-----oOo-----

BENJAMIN PETERSON, July 27th:-

I live No. 10 Washington Street; I was in the cart that day with Castwell; he let the line go - the line broke -

By Mr. Lynn:-

Q He was a kind of drunk, was he not? A. Yes, sir.

Q Very full? A. Not very much.

Q Jolly? A. Yes, sir; he caught hold of me by the leg I had hold of the manger; I didn't want him to get dumped.

Q Who pulled the stick out? A. The first boy.

Q What is his name? A. Boesch.

Q What did he say to you? A. He didn't say anything.

I helded to him, Mr. Cantwell, they pulled out the dump.

Q And Boesch pulled the stick out? A. He pulled the pin out, the pin that keeps it from sliding in or out.

Q Did he say anything about it? A. No, sir.

Q Did he ever dump you there? A. No, sir.

Q He has been fooling with the old man? A. He used to call him names when he was going down Washington Street, he would see the boys and Boesch would hit him - would hit the old man on his back.

Q Club him on the back? A. Yes, sir.

Q And say hello there? A. Yes, sir.

Q Were they friendly? A. Yes, sir.

Q The old man didn't get mad about it? Did they ever get him arrested for fooling with him? A. No, sir.

Q Did the old man ever fool with the boy? A. No, sir, not much, only when the boys would fool with him.

Q How would he fool with them, say things at them, about things at them? A. Yes, sir.

Q And throw things at him? A. Yes, sir.

Q You had said Cantwell look out, he was going to get dumped? A. Yes, sir.

Q What did he say? A. Nothing at all.

Q What did Boesch do? A. He ran away with the stick;
he went over and put it behind the elevated post; I hung on to the manger.

Q Why didn't you keep the cart down - did you have to let go of the manger? A. Yes, sir.

Q And you went down with the old man? A. Yes, sir.

OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

Patricia Lee and Joseph Buda

THE GRAND JURY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, by this indictment, accuse Patricia Lee and

Joseph Buda —

of the crime of manslaughter in the second degree, —

committed as follows:

The said Patricia Lee and

Joseph Buda, both — late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the sixth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- one, — at the City and County aforesaid, in and upon one William Rantwell, willfully and feloniously did make an assault, and threw the said William

Rantwell, from and out of a certain cast, down into and upon the ground there, with great force and violence then and there wilfully and feloniously did cast and throw, by reason of which said casting of throwing of him the said William Pantwell, from and out of the said cart as aforesaid, the the said William Pantwell did then and there fall, with great force and violence, down into and upon the ground there, thereby the said Patrick Lee and Joseph Bush giving into him the said William Pantwell then and there, by the means aforesaid, in and upon the head of him the said William Pantwell, one mortal wound bruise, fracture and confusion, of which said mortal wound, bruise, fracture and confusion the said William Pantwell from the said sixth day of November in the year aforesaid, until the seventh day of November, in the same year aforesaid,

 at the City and County aforesaid, did Langquid, and Langquid did live, on which said last mentioned day he the said William Cartmell,
 at the City and County aforesaid,
 of the said mortal wound, bruise, fracture and contusion, did die.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say, that the said Patrick Lee and Joseph Rude, in the said William Cartmell, in the manner and form, and by the means aforesaid, willfully and feloniously did kill and slay, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Before Hon
Edward Hogan
Justice

May 18th, 1892
Max Steinert, Esq., appears for defendant.

Eliza Janentini, the Complainant, sworn, testified as follows (through Interpreter)

By the Court:

I am eleven years old.
I live in Brooklyn with my mother and sister.

Q When did you go to live out at 750 Sixth Avenue?

A Last Thursday.

Q What part of the house did you go to live in?

A First flight up in the rear.

$\frac{2}{1}$

Q With whom did you go to live?

A The defendant. My mother saw an advertisement in the paper for a domestic at ten dollars a month. The defendant said I wouldn't have much work to do. This conversation was in my mother's house in Brooklyn.

Q Did you accompany the defendant from Brooklyn to New York?

A Yes, I left the house with her and went to Sixth Avenue.

Q When you got there what took place?

A I was shown into the kitchen where there was a man. I was told to put my box and hat there. The defendant told the man that he would have a little girl that evening. Then the defendant showed me into another room where the windows and shutters were closed and told me to undress. I commenced to cry. Then the defendant locked the door on me. I was alone in the room. I found the door of the room was not locked and I got out. The door was closed, not locked. I got out of the room and went downstairs and found the door leading to the street locked. I saw the key on the floor and I picked it up and got out on the street. After I got out a man was passing and I spoke to him. The defendant followed me to the street. The man asked me what was the matter and I told the man the defendant slapped me in the face. A Policeman came along and a man who could talk French. The defendant told the Policeman I lived in Jersey. I said 'No, I didn't live in Jersey. I lived in Brooklyn. The Frenchman asked me if I had enough money to pay my fare. I said I only had five cents and he gave me two cents more for the Ferry to go to Brooklyn. The defendant afterwards went in and shut the door.

Q How many rooms did the defendant occupy in that house, if you know?

the matter and I told the man the defendant slapped me in the face. A Policeman came along and a man who could talk French. The defendant told the Policeman I lived in Jersey. I said 'No, I didn't live in Jersey. I lived in Brooklyn. The Frenchman asked me if I had enough money to pay my fare. I said I only had five cents and he gave me two cents more for the Ferry to go to Brooklyn. The defendant afterwards went in and shut the door.

Q How many rooms did the defendant occupy in that house, if you know?

5 darkened.

Q How many women did you see?

A One woman and this defendant.

Q How many men did you see?

A One

Q Did the defendant and the man who spoke about having a young girl that night, speak in English or French?

A She spoke in English.

Q How were you dressed when the defendant told you to take off your clothes?

A I had a blue skirt on without a dress and I had the same cloak on I have now.

Q Was it to take off your hat and cloak that the defendant wanted you to take off when she told you to take off your clothes?

A Undress myself entirely she made me to understand Q How any work shown to you that you were to perform?

A She didn't say anything about work.

Q Did you see any drinking
there?

A The defendant was drinking beer with one man.

Q Did you have any talk with the other woman?

A No, when I came in they all laughed at me.

Q How many persons were there altogether?

A Three

Q Did you see any act of an indecent character
there?

A No, sir

Q What did the defendant say to the man about a

2

young girl?

A "you glad to have a little girl to-night to sleep."

Q Was that to any one in particular?

A I didn't understand what she meant.

Q Have you told all you know about this case?

A Yes, sir.

Q What time did you arrive at that house?

A It must have been about half past eleven or twelve. I left Brooklyn about ten o'clock with the defendant.

Q What time did you get out of her house?

A I was about an hour in the defendant's house before I got into the street.

Q What did she say about a chemise?

A She told me to put on a nicer chemise than the one I had on and to put on cleaner stockings. She told me in about half an hour she would have a man for me.

Q Repeat again what was said about any man coming and what he was coming for?

A In half an hour a man would come. She didn't say why he would come. That was before she told me to change my chemise and put on other stockings.

Q Was there anything said about the two beds - who was to occupy the beds?

A There was a lounge with a mattress on it. There was a large bed in the room too. The defendant told me she was going to sleep with a man herself that evening in bed and she would have a man for me to sleep on the lounge.

Officer Gordon states that the Complainant has told all in Court that she told him in reference to the case.

Eliza Jarentini, called for the People, sworn, testifies as follows:

By the Court:

I am the mother of the complainant. I live at 54 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn. I am fifty years of age. I am married. My husband is living. I know the defendant. The first time I saw her was when she called on me. I wrote a postal card to her. She came to me last Thursday morning. She said she would mind my little girl like a mother. The girl was going to live with her to do light house work. She was to receive ten dollars a month. She was to live with the defendant at 750 Sixth Avenue. The girl left my house with the defendant. She said she wanted her right away.

I next saw my daughter the same evening when she came with Officer Gordon. That is all I know about it.

Janentini
vs.
Leonard

N.Y. May 19/92
Examination Continued

Harriet A. Millis, called for the People, sworn, testified as follows:

By the Court

I live at 20 Sidney Place, Brooklyn. I am single. My age is 22 years.
I know the complainant. I saw her first on Friday last,
I think, on the Sixth Avenue Elevated Railroad. I think it was about 8th or 9th. It was when I first noticed her. She was going towards South Perry. I saw her on the platform crying. I thought she looked lonesome and spoke to her. I did not see the defendant at the time. ~~She spoke~~. I spoke in English to the girl.
I went to Little Garden with 12 her and from there took her home to Brooklyn. She asked me to go to the Barge office and when she found I was going to Brooklyn she seemed to be happy. Mr Gorden paid her fare on the Ferry.

The Complaint, recalled, & examined by Mr Sternist.

Q How old will you be on your next birthday.
A Sixteen.

Q Did you state yesterday
you were eleven years old?
A I said I was fifteen.

Q When you left Brooklyn what clothing did you take along besides what you had on?

A. I had two skirts & chemise.
Q Didn't you have a paste board box?

13

A Yes

Q What was in that?

A A apron, a skirt and five chemise and three pair of stockings & six handkerchiefs. & a pair of slippers.

Q Did you have any conversation with the defendant from the time you left your mother's house until you got to this house in Sixth Avenue & she didn't speak to me at all.

Q Which room did you go into with this defendant when you first got into the hall?

A I first stood in the hall and put my box in the kitchen

Q Did you go into the kitchen?

A No, one lady was there

Q Was she ironing?

14

A No, she was reading the paper.

Q Who else was there besides that lady?

A One man; he was in the kitchen.

Q Did the man talk to you?

A No, sir.

Q Can you tell us one word that passed between the woman and the man that you heard?

A The woman said to the man he ought to be glad to have a little girl this evening. She said "you are glad to have a little girl this evening."

Q Did you go into the bedroom before the man left or after he left?

A After the man had left.

Q How long did you remain in the bedroom?

A Half an hour.

15

Q What were you doing this half hour?

A I was handling and furnishing my waist.

Q Did the defendant go out of that bedroom?

A She went out and closed the door.

Q How long did you remain in that room after this door was closed?

A Quarter of an hour.

Q When you started to go out of the room was the door locked?

A No sir.

Q What was you doing the quarter of an hour?

A I was crying.

Q Did the defendant object to your leaving the house?

A She told me to remain, as my mother had left me in her charge.

Q Didn't you say you wanted to go home to your mother before you had been in the place five minutes?

A. I was in the house an hour when I said I wanted to see my mother.

Q Did you have your box of clothing and hat when you went downstairs?

A No.

Q Who brought your clothing and hat down in the hall to you?

A A Policeman gave it to me.

Q Didn't this defendant come downstairs and ask you if you had your car fare?

A No sir. While in the hallway she asked me if I had ten cents in my pocket and I answered

17

I had five cents.

Q How long was it from the time you met the policeman until you got your clothes?

A. The Policeman went right away and got it.

Q Didn't the defendant go down in the street?

A Yes, came to speak to the policeman.

Q How long were you down before you met the policeman?

A He came right along as I was going out of the house.

Q Did you see the policeman go in that house?

A He didn't go in the house but he entered the hallway.

Q Did you tell the policeman this woman slapped you in the face?

1

A Yes.

Q When did you meet this man who gave you some money?

A It was the policeman that called the man?

Q Did you tell the policeman all this woman done to you?

A No, I only told him that she struck me.

Q How long have you been in this country?

A Five months.

Q Did you understand English before you arrived in this country?

A A little bit.

Q Have you ever lived out in service before?

A Two months in East New York, Mrs Perez in Cleveland Street, No. 153.

I lived there two months.

19

Q Did you leave or were you discharged?

A My mother came for me. My mother kept a candy store and she couldn't see very well - that is the reason she wanted me to come,

Q Do you remember going with Mr Groden before the Inspector of the Immigration Board on the 16th May and did you make a statement to an Interpreter there.

I went to the Barge Office and spoke to somebody that talked French.

Q Is that your signature to this paper?

A Yes.

Q And the man that spoke French did he read this to you? (Showing witness paper)

20
7

A Yes, the same man that wrote it. read it to me in French.

Q Didn't you tell that man that the woman employed you on Wednesday last?

A No, Thursday.
Q Did you tell this man that when you were in the room that was darkened you found two men and two women together?

A No.

Q Did you tell him the men were kissing and embracing the women?

A One man kissed a woman

Q Did you tell that man that you were kept in that house from nine o'clock in the morning until one in the afternoon?

21

A No.

Defts Counsel offered in evidence the statement made before ~~the~~ Superintendent of Emigration marked Defts Ex 1.

Q What did you do when the defendant told you to change your clothes?

A I pulled up my waist and then began to cry.

Q Why didn't you leave the room then?

A I saw the woman was going to strike me. She told me I shouldn't leave.

Q Did the woman strike you?

A Yes.

Q Did you tell this man who you met in the street that spoke French that the woman struck you?

A Yes.

Q In the presence of the Police Officer?

A Yes.

Q Did you see the policeman in front of this house?

A He was right near the house on the street.

By the Court.

Q When you left your mother's house were the wages and work you were to do satisfactory to you?

A I said No, I would rather take care of children.

Q Did you make any objection to coming to New York either to your mother or to the lady that employed you?

A I told my mother I was afraid of the woman.

Q Was that before you left home?

A Yes. My mother told me not to be afraid. I must go to work and earn a living.

73

Q You understand English fairly well?

A Yes, sir

Q You don't speak English very well?

A No, sir

Q Do you mean to say now that from the time you left your mother's house in Brooklyn until you arrived at the defendant's house in New York that you and the lady didn't talk together?

A No, sir; she only asked me to smell the flowers.

Q After you arrived in New York, how did you go to the house on Fifth Avenue?

A By the Elevated Road. He sat down in the cars, but not in the Ferry boat

24

Eliza Jarentini, the mother of Complainant, recalled:

By the Court:

The defendant was in my house in Brooklyn when she employed my girl about half an hour.

Q Was there any objection raised by your girl to going to work for that woman?

A No, sir. She was always anxious to work. She seemed a little afraid but the lady promised to be kind to her.

By Mr Sternist:

Q Didn't your girl tell you she would sooner take care of children than do house work?

A No, sir. When she was in Chelard Street with that lady she said she would 25)

rather do light house work than mind the baby.

Q Then she would sooner do light house work than tend the children?

A Yes, sir.

Q That is the reason you took her away from that house in Cleveland St?

A My eyes are not good and I opened a candy store and wanted her to help me.

By the Court.

Q The girl was not discharged?

A No, sir. I have a good reference home for her. They didn't send for me to take her away. I took her away because I needed her in the store.

No.

Abraham Brunner, called for People, sworn, testified as follows:
By the Court:

I am a Police officer attached to the 23d Precinct. I know the Complainant and defendant.
I saw the Complainant last Friday, about eleven o'clock in the morning on Fifth Avenue between 42^d & 43^d Sts. I saw the little girl standing in front of No. 750 crying.
I asked her what was the matter. She couldn't answer me. She said she was French. I hunted around and finally got an interpreter. She seemed to be afraid; she was nervous and shaking;
she kept very close to me.
The Interpreter asked her

27

in French what was the matter and she said the lady upstairs struck her in the face and pulled her arm. During that time Mrs Leonard came down in the street and threw her lot of clothes on the sidewalk. When the little girl saw Mrs Leonard she grabbed me by the coat and cried terribly. I told the Interpreter to ask her if anything wrong had been done to her. He couldn't get anything out of her. She said she lived in Brooklyn and wanted to go to Castle Gardens. I asked her if she had her car fare and she said 'yes'. The Frenchman took her to the Elevated Station and put her on the Elevated.

Q 26

No one in my presence said the girl lived in Jersey. The box was brought down about two minutes after I first saw the girl. That is all I know about the case.

By Mr. Sternist:

Q Do you know of any prostitutes stopping there in her house of your own knowledge?

A No, but I have been told there were two or three parties up there.

By the Court:

Q What is the reputation of the house from what you have been told?

A I think it is pretty good as far as I know I am not there in the evening—only day time

Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County of New York, ss:

Kate Sergi
 of No. 121 Ratter Street, aged 26 years, occupation Housekeeper being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 25th day of February 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

Good and lawful money of the United States consisting of Bank notes and bills of the value of One hundred Dollars.

the property of

Deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Vincenzo Liberto

(known) for the reasons appearing to wit, During the month of January 1892. deponent's husband abandoned her; said defendant came to deponent's premises aforesaid and stated to her that he defendant could have her husband returned to her as he was living with another woman. And that he defendant would "kill" the woman deponent's husband was living with, if deponent would pay him One hundred dollars and get such consideration deponent would get her husband back. And deponent thereupon agreed to pay defendant the said one hundred dollars if he would get her husband back for her. That during the latter part of January 1892 defendant's husband returned to her and has been living with her up to the present time. Dependent further says that on the 25th day of February 1892 defendant again called on defendant at the premises aforesaid and demanded of her the sum of One hundred dollars for securing to her the return of her husband. And when Dependent refused to give him said money defendant told Dependent that he defendant was in constant communication with the "Devil" and had got control ^{over} of him the "Devil" and that if she dependent failed to give him the said $100 dollars that he the defendant would go the "Devil" to burn up Dependent's house and herself and her children and kill them all. Dependent having a fear that defendant would carry out the threats said said defendant paid money. Dependent further says she is informed by her husband Carmena Vuzzi that the said defendant had never spoken to him concerning his return to his wife and that he did not know defendant and that he had not been living with any woman. Dependent therefor charges said defendant with having obtained said property by fear and with false and fraudulent representations and with the larceny of the property of aforesaid.

of the CRIME OF SELLING INTOXICATING LIQUORS AND WINES AS A BEVERAGE, ON SUNDAY, committed as follows:

The said

Andrew Lynch

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 27th day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-9, at the City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors, and certain wines, to wit: One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell, as a beverage to one Patrick H. Callahan and to certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Andrew Lynch
of the CRIME OF KEEPING OPEN ON SUNDAY a place licensed for the SALE OF STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, WINES, ALE AND BEER, committed as follows:

The said

Andrew Lynch

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, being then and there in charge of and having the control of a certain place there situate, which was then duly licensed as a place for the sale of strong and spirituous liquors, wines, ale and beer, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did not close and keep closed, and on the said day the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did then and there open and cause and procure and suffer and permit to be open and to remain open, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
