City & County of New York.
Jere H. Hassett
being duly sworn says:-

I have been employed by Mr. Wm. H. Minshull 214/216 Fulton Market for about one year.

I was first employed on a salary and during the three last months I was working on Commission, on sale of butters for Mr Minshull

On or about three months ago I called upon one Mrs Reider of No 366 Pearl Street (Restaurant) and offered to sell her butter.

She told me to call in a week and she would give me an order.

I called and she gave me an order for about 15 lbs of butter and I delivered the butter to her and she paid me. I went again to get another order from her and Mrs Reider said to me "Can you get some butter cheap so that ^{you} I can make some money". I said to her "what do you mean" she said "Take the goods from ^{your} ~~my~~ employer and bring them to me and I will buy them from you"

0445

I said "no I will not do that."
She kept on at me for two or three weeks to get the goods ^{wanting} me to steal the goods. Finally I did it for her, but in order to cover myself from suspicion
I got the goods out as she suggested on orders which were fictitious. I then began decip-ber goods on purported orders from various persons and took the goods every time to Mrs. Reider (the name of said persons or alleged persons being kept unrecorded marked A) and she took the goods from me and paid me occasionally a sum of money, which she would require me to take out in repairs and drinks at her place -

She kept these butter in the cellar at her place, and she informed me that she sold it to grocers about the neighborhood and got thirty cents a pound for it.

I delivered all these goods personally to Mrs. Reider and she was constantly begging of me to bring her more and more.

0446

I was influenced by her telling me that I should always have money for myself if I needed it, and because she gave me money whenever I wanted it. Always when I wanted money I could go to Mrs. Reider and get it.

About two or three weeks ago I stopped delivering Mrs. Reider any butter and have not seen her since. She keeps a bar room and eating place and I think she keeps boards.

. Whenever I called for money the husband of Mrs. Reider would hand it me for her at her direction.

I took to Mrs. Reider about $25 lbs of butter in all, which was stolen by me from Mr. Marshall's stand upon her demands. I would never have taken it but upon her constant solicitation and promises to give me money.

I am 19 years of age and reside with my parents at No. 47 James Street and never was guilty of any crime before this

I always took home all my wages and gave them to my mother and never stole anything before and would not at this time if I had not been urged by this Mrs Reider.

Some of the names given by me to Mr Minshull as the names of parties ordering butter were the names of real parties, but I used such names purposely and took the butter to Mr Reider in all cases.

I make this affidavit at the request of Mr Minshull and in the cause of justice

Mary J. Healey

Court of General Sessions. Part I.
 Before Judge Cowing. Sept. 20, 1888.
 Charles E. O'Connell sworn. On the 2nd of Sept. I had a double case gold plated watch, a gift from my father valued at about thirty dollars, I carried it in my pants pocket; the chain was hanging through my suspenders. I met the prisoner about half past eleven o'clock on Twenty fifth St. between Third and Lexington Ave; she went round to 255 East Twenty fourth St. with me, a stable where I work. I had connection with her. I was with her only a few minutes. After she went out I found my watch was gone and I found the ring of the watch on the blankets where we were together. I went out and reported it to the policeman on Twenty fourth St; and the next morning I went down to Twenty Second St. station and entered a complaint. I had my watch on my person when I went with her. Cross Examined. There was a man in the stable at the time I was there with the prisoner named Thomas Brady, who was asleep; he is an hostler. I did not observe any marks upon the woman that night. A gang of men in that stable did not outrage her and tear her hands and face.

0495

The watch has never been found and I do not know where it is. She was arrested in the corner of Lexington Ave. and 26th St. the next evening after the watch was taken. I went up to the Fifty Seventh St. Court. I have been an hostler all my life. I have worked at Monrovia, R.I. for John P. Holt. Harlem Ave. I came to New York last January and boarded in Fifty Second St. and Sixth Ave. I have worked in the stables of Kipp and Derr. I drank one glass oflager beer the night I lost my watch. I don't know the officer's name I spoke to on Twenty fourth St. Mary J. Healey, sworn and examined in her own behalf testified I live 213 East Twenty third St. I work at cigarettes for Norman Twenty Seventh St. and First Ave. I was working there until about the time of my arrest. I have heard the statement of the complainant. I did not take his watch. He met me in Twenty Fifth St. and he says, "Can I walk with you down towards Lexington Ave?" I say, No, I am not afraid, I am going home. I do not want to go up that street, it is a bad street. There was two men killed there before; she was taken out of an ambulance. "He said, no one dare lay a hand on you." When he came to the door he grabbed me into the stable. There was twenty men on the loft, and some of them came down when they heard me crying. Some of them were undressed and some had all their clothes on. Another man was lying on the bench opposite; he woke up with the screams. It was five minutes before I could catch my breath. He marked my face and held me down with his finger in my jaw. I gave a screech. I put my hand to the latch of the door; they cut my hands loose from the door. There is a mark on my nose. I was all scratched from my hips down. One held me and five had to do with me in this same stable. When they all had satisfaction one of them gave me a kick and called me out of my name. I threatened to have them arrested. I was going to get a warrant but I did not know their names. I halloed when I got outside. I have been twelve years in this country and have never been arrested in my life before. Cross Examined. I was going home this night through Twenty Fifth St. I was over on the West side with a girl that used to work with me in the shop; she was sick. I stayed with her a while. I met this man on the street. I was not violated by twenty men. There was three of them tried: they were holding me; they did not want to let me out when I tried; the complainant held me first. I would not tell any lies about it. I am ashamed of it. They abused and kicked me. I was arrested on Monday evening coming from the shop. If three men had violated you why didn't you make a complaint?

0496

I did not know their names. They sleep up there at night; they are so polished up you would not think they would sleep in a hay loft. I waited on the corner for an hour pinning the flounce on my other dress.

I could see no officer. Upon the evening of the arrest I did not tell the officer I had been with the complainant in the stable. I told the officer, the Captain and Judge Hermann that I had been entrapped and the Judge gave him

"fits."

George Kirtland recalled. When I arrested her I asked her what she had done with the young man's watch? She said she never had his watch. "Were you not with him in a stable the evening before in 24th St.?" She said, no, she had never seen him before; she made no complaint in the station house that she had been entrapped. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. She was sent to the penitentiary for six years.
