I certify that Doctor H. H. Kingsley was under my care for chronic Rheumatic Gout and great Nervous prostration from June to November 1888 and that I insisted that he should have complete change of climate. Rest and freedom from all care - professional and otherwise. I advised him, at the peril of his life, not to remain in New York and continue his labors but to go at once to Europe and remain there until his health was completely restored.

I. I am the Defendant in the above entitled action, and reside in the City, County and State of New

II. In or about the month of July, 1888, I became very seriously ill, and on or about the 10th day of Novem-bach, of 22 West Forty-fifth Street, who is my family phy-several years; he having advised me that I was suffering from a very severe attack of acute rheumatic gout, and that for the benefit of my health and the alleviation of the said disease I should go abroad before the winter, and if possible pass the winter in a warmer climate than that of New York.

III. On or about the 19th day of November, I arrived in Paris, and owing to the unusual clemency of the season have since remained in Paris under the professional care of Dr. A. S. Clarke, M. D., the family physician of my brother Dr. Charles Kingsley of Paris, with whom I am at present staying. I am advised by said Dr. Clarke that I am suffering from an attack of rheumatic gout, that I am for the present unable to travel and that in his opinion I will be so for at least four weeks from this date; that it would be extremely detrimental to my health for me to return to so cold a climate as that of New York until, at earliest, the month of June, and that as soon as I am able to travel I should proceed to Algiers until the return of warm weather in this latitude. The said Dr. Clarke is a Graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of the City of New York, and of the Faculté de Medicine of France. I annex hereto, and hereby make a part of this affidavit, and mark "Exhibit A", a certificate to the said effect, signed by the said Dr. Clarke.

IV. In view of the foregoing advice and of my present suffering and greatly reduced state of health I am unable to return to New York, and I do not intend to return to New York until next summer at the earliest, except in the case of a speedier and more complete recovery than I now have reason to anticipate.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Norman W. Kingley

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. Before this action was instituted I had commenced a civil action against Norman W. Kingley for damages, which action was brought to trial on or about the 9th day of July instant and a verdict rendered in my favor for $5000 upon which judgment was duly entered in my favor. I was given by the Court in which the defendant could appeal. I am informed that the ~~defendant~~ <sup>defendant</sup> is abundantly able to pay such judgment. I have two reasons which induce me to recommend clemency - The 1st is that the defendant is now pretty well advanced on years and is said to be a man of great attainment in his profession and has hitherto borne a good character, and besides is a married man with a family of four daughters to whom I would not care to see suffer. The second reason is more practical. Some of my best witnesses are absent from the state.

particularly Oscar Fernandez, and Arthur J. Saucy. Both of whose testimony was taken before the Committee Magistrate. I have also had sight of several of the witnesses who testified in the recent civil case and I believe it would be impossible to put my hands upon them now.

Kate Berghime

As the attorney for the above Mrs. Kate Berghime in the civil action mentioned by her in her foregoing statement I have to say that I prepare such statement for her and believe that the facts set forth therein are true, and I am particularly cognizant of the facts that her witnesses have become separated and I believe it would be extremely difficult if not impossible to convict the said Norman W. Kingsley now, if brought upon the indictment against him.

The People vs
Kate Berolzheimer
Norman W. Kingsley

Kate Berolzheimer, the complaining witness, being duly sworn deposes and says: I reside at No 35 West 27th St. in the City of New York and occupy said premises as the tenant thereof under a written lease marked Exhibit A May 25 1888. from Alma W. Kingsley, who is the wife of the defendant, and in and by said lease there is reserved for the benefit of Dr. Kingsley, the defendant, who is a dentist, the office on the parlor floor for business purposes, and the laboratory, together with the right of way to the same; also the use of the parlor during business hours, the tenant being restrained during such hours from any use of the parlor which would annoy the occupant of the office. Aside from these reservations the defendant has no right in or to any portion of said premises. On the 25th day of January 1888, two men came to the house with a load of coal, one of whom came to the basement door and presented to me a ticket which was directed to the defendant. I informed the men that the defendant had no right to the use of my cellar, and that there was coal belonging to me under the coal hole which had not been removed. The men then went up the front stoop, rang the bell, and I heard the defendant direct the men to throw the coal on top of mine. One of the men then came into the house and tried to open the door leading to the cellar which I had previously locked. I went into the kitchen and found the defendant there, who asked who had locked this door, to which I replied that I had done so as it was my cellar. He then ordered me to open the door immediately, which I refused to do, whereupon he ordered the men to come with him.

In the yard, close under the kitchen windows, there is a passage to the cellar which is covered with a grating, and, upon reaching this place the defendant removed a piece of board and a carpet with which the grating was covered, whereupon I immediately stepped upon the grating and warned the defendant and the men with him, not to touch it as it was my property. The defendant then directed the men to take hold of the grating which they refused to do, and the defendant thereupon seized one end of the grating and pulled it off from the opening, and caused me to fall a depth of eight or nine feet through the opening into the cellar. I struck upon a chain which was directly beneath me as I fell, and was very seriously injured by it in my person, the tendons of my left foot were broken, my body was very much bruised and blackened, and I sustained injuries which may become permanent, as will more fully appear by the affidavits hereto annexed, of the physician who attended me. After I had fallen in the cellar, the defendant manifested an utter indifference to my injuries and said that I should not come out until I gave him the key of the cellar; that I was not hurt, but merely trying to get sympathy from my neighbors. This occurred in the presence of several people whose affidavits are hereto annexed, one of whom, a Mr. Arthur Sanchez, who has a room in my house, carried me out of the cellar; and while I was being brought out, the defendant came to me and put his hand upon my hip and told me to put my foot down and walk as I could walk as well as he could. Mr. Sanchez thereupon ordered him away and he immediately left the house. I recognize Exhibit A.

She asked to be excused and left the room. Shortly afterwards I heard screams and I went out and through the kitchen into the yard, and saw Mrs. Berolghini down in the cellar. I went round to 26 try to get in the cellar and to find the man to send for the doctor, when I met Mrs. Wilson. She then said that something had happened to Mrs. Berolghini. We then went into the yard together. Mrs. Berolghini threw up the key and I opened the door and went down in the cellar. Dr. Kingsley came down about the same time, and when I commenced to lift her I asked him to help which he did. particularly Oscar Fernandez, and Arthur J. Saucy. Both of whose testimony was taken before the Committee Magistrate. I have also had sight of several of the witnesses who testified in the recent civil case and I believe it would be impossible to put my hands upon them now.

Kate Berghime

As the attorney for the above Mrs. Kate Berghime in the civil action mentioned by her in her foregoing statement I have to say that I prepared such statement for her and believe that the facts set forth therein are true, and I am particularly cognizant of the facts that her witnesses have become separated and I believe it would be extremely difficult if not impossible to convict the said Norman W. Kingsley now, if tried upon the indictment against him.

Police Court Record No. 7

City & County of New York

Oscar Fernandez, being duly sworn, says: I reside now and did reside at No. 35 West 27 Street in the City of New York on the 25 day of January last. I am in the employ of Mrs. Berolzheimer as butler and have been with her about twenty months. About 2 or 3 o'clock in the afternoon of January 25th Dr. Kniggeley, who has a room for dentistry in the house asked me for the key of the door which leads to the cellar. I told him I did not have it, but Mrs. Berolzheimer had it.

That lady came out in the kitchen about that time and the Doctor asked her for the key but she refused to give it saying that the cellar belonged to her and he could not put any coal down in it.

The doctor then went into the yard accompanied by Mrs. Berolzheimer, a coal man, Mr. Burnie and myself. The doctor then pulled the board and a rug that covered the grating in the yard from off the grating, and Mrs. Berolzheimer stood on the grating and extended her arm saying "nobody must touch this grating as it belonged to her". The doctor spoke to the coal man and asked him to help him to raise the grating. The doctor was then about to take hold of the grating. The man did not help him. The doctor then seized the grating and pulled it toward him thus releasing her from the other side. Mrs. Berolzheimer was at once thrown into the cellar. After she had fallen, the doctor let go the grating and it fell into the cellar. I immediately said "shall I run for a policeman?" No one answered. The Doctor said to Mrs.

Berolghine: "What are you screaming for, you are 22 not hurt at all". I heard Mrs. Berolghine say "My foot is broken." I then jumped down in the cellar. Mrs. Berolghine told me to go for the doctor and I started at once. There was great excitement around and Mrs. Berolghine was shrieking and I do not remember all that was said.

 Fol 23 In the afternoon of the said 25th of January, I Shortly afterwards Mrs. Berolzhime came into the Mrs. Berolzhime talking together. Dr. Kingsley then went into the yard and was followed close by Mrs. Berolzhime, the coal man, Mr. Bernie and Oscar. I remained in the kitchen close by the

 I first saw the doctor remove the rug and board from the grating and then Mrs. Berolzhime stepped on the speaking as if to the doctor. I then saw Mrs. Berolzhime go down through the hole into the cellar. At that time the doctor had hold of the grating. I then went at once into the yard and the doctor still had hold of the grating. I saw it go out of his hand, but I could not say whether he threw it down or whether it slipped heard Mrs. Berolzhime speak and shriek. I then saw Toe 27 on the afternoon of January 25th last, as I was coming down stairs in said house I heard terrible shrieks.

I opened the windows in the hall and saw heads of people looking from windows in the neighborhood apparently at something in our yard. A projecting roof prevented me from seeing what it was. I recognized however at the time the voice of Mrs.

Berolghine and heard her say: "Dr. Kingsley is killing me" or "has killed me". I hurried down and on my way met Mr. Sanchez in the hall and told him that there was something the matter with Mrs. Berolghine.

We went together to the yard and I then saw Mrs.
 28 Berolghine in the cellar with her hands outstretched.
 She looked terribly. "I said some one take the woman out, she'll die down there." At that time there were in the yard Dr. Kingsley (Mr. Burnie stood near the kitchen door) and the coal man besides Mr.
 Sanchez and myself. Dr. Kingsley said I remember, "she is not hurt" and then called down to Mrs. Berolghine to stop her screaming. Other things were said but I do not recall them. Mr. Sanchez then got the key of the cellar from Mrs. Berolghine and went down in the at her residence No. 35 West 27th Street in this City,

Her left foot and ankle were exceedingly ligaments of the foot, injury to the nerves, and bruises on various parts of the body.

Upon the following morning, in connection with thigh and over the ribs under the left breast, excessive tenderness over the bladder and desire to urinate with pain accompanying the act, resulting from a laceration, and altogether she was in a very bad condition.

I have been attending her ever since, in Walter R. Gillette, being duly sworn, says: I am a practicing physician, and reside at No. 149 West 23rd Street in the City of New York.

On the 25th day of January, 1888, in the afternoon I was called in to see the plaintiff in this action at her residence, No. 35 West 27th Street in this City and found her suffering from all the symptoms of shock. Upon making an examination of her body I found that she had a badly contused wound on her left foot and ankle, and the ankle & foot were swollen <sup>so</sup> enormously and was so painful that no thorough examination could then be made.

She had also abrasions on her forearms, another on her left breast, and a wound between her thighs in the region of the perineum, which I ascertained by inquiring of her was produced by her having fallen astride of a chair.

She complained of great pain in the right iliac region, which for a time threatened to develop peritonitis, and which has not yet entirely left her, indicating that she has perhaps sustained some internal injury; and altogether she was in a very serious condition.

Since that time her condition has varied, being better some days and some days worse, and I cannot now possibly state what the result of her injuries may be, but it will however be several months before she will be able to use her foot; and it is a question whether she will ever be ~~able~~ entirely free and strong again.
