Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

Henry Stamm

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY, in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said Henry Stamm,

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the sixteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine, at the City and County aforesaid, being then and there the clerk and servant of a certain corporation

known as the Pioneer Milling Company and as such clerk and servant then and there having in his possession, custody and control certain moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said corporation, the true owner thereof, to wit: the sum of one hundred and eighty two dollars and thirty cents in money, lawful money of the United States of America and of the value of one hundred and eighty two dollars and thirty cents, the said Henry Stamm, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, did feloniously appropriate the said sum of money to his own use, with intent to deprive and defraud the said corporation of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof; and the same moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said corporation

did then and there and thereby feloniously steal, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

tenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, feloniously did forge, and cause and procure to be forged, and willingly act and assist in the forging a certain instrument and writing, to wit: a certain bond and written obligation,

which said forged bond and written obligation
is as follows, that is to say:

"Know all men by these presents, That Henry Hamm of 617 Park Ave. Bklyn and Katherine Rammel of 617 Park Ave Bklyn are jointly and severally held and firmly bound unto the Cooper Milling Company in the sum of Fifteen hundred ($1500.) Dollars lawful money of the United States of America to be paid unto the said Cooper Milling Company, its successors or assigns for which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves our and each of our heirs executors, administrators firmly by these presents
Sealed with our seals Dated this 10 day of October 1889
The conditions of the foregoing bond are such that should Henry Hamm of Bklyn, N. Y. who is about to enter the employment of the above named Cooper Milling Company as a salesman will faithfully and honestly conduct himself in such employment to the best of his ability, guarantee all moneys due upon sales made by him upon credit and accurately and honestly account for and pay over to said Cooper Milling Company all moneys by him received during such employment upon any account whatsoever and a just and true account to said Company of all matters and things touching such employment then this bond to be void otherwise to remain in full force and effect.
In witness whereof the parties hereto have interchangeably set their hands and seals the 10 day of October 1889. Henry Hamm Sealed and delivered in the presence of Katherine Rammel with intent to defraud, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity."

A When I took out my pocket book - when I went to bed I put the money in down into my drawers?

Q Did you examine it?

A I put the money - just changed it.

Q Did you count the money?

A No sir, I did not count it.

Q You cannot swear how much money was there could you?

A Fifty dollars.

Q How do you know that?

A I had it there. There was nobody else to take it from me before that.

Q Did you have the money

& when you paid for drinks?

0480

A That was outside - I had money over the $60.

Q When you went to bed did you go with this woman

A Yes sir.

Q What did you pay her?

A I had nothing to pay her. I looked in my pocket book and I did not have a cent to pay anybody.

Q What did you agree to pay her?

A One dollar and a half.

Q Did you not pay her any money?

A No sir.

Q You say when you woke up she was gone?

A Then you examined your pocket book?

A When I found she was gone I looked and found the pocket book at my feet outside of the bed. When I

Q Went to bed I put it inside

0481

my drawers.

Q Did you undress when you went to bed?

A I did.

Q Was the door locked?

A. The door was locked. There was a hook on

Q Could anyone enter the hook while you were asleep?

A I do not think they could.

Before Judge Martine

Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree.
William Barringer, sworn. I am the master of a vessel and live on Staten Island. I came to the city on the first of July. I met with the defendant that day on Seventh Ave-ue near Twenty Third Street; it was between twelve and one o'clock at night and on the street. I had never seen her before I had sixty dollars in my pocket book when I met her; the pocket book was in my side pocket of my coat. I went with the defendant to some house and we went into a room we went to bed. I had a five dollar bill changed and paid for the room. The money I had was all in five dollar bills except one ten dollar bill I took the five dollar bill to pay for the room from the roll of money in the pocket book; the defendant was there when I did it. I was in the house down stairs at the time I paid for the room and then I went up stairs with the girl. I took off my outside clothing my pants and everything but my under clothing. I took and put the pocket book in the leg of the drawers I had on. I went to bed and had intercourse with the woman and after that I went to sleep. It was early in the morning, day light when I was awakened. I could not say what time it was. I did not have my money when I awoke, but my pocket book was lying on the bed and the woman was gone. I got up and dressed and came down out of the place and I enquired around. I found the woman up town; a police officer went with me. I think it was in Twenty Fourth St. that I found her. The house to which I went with her first was in Thompson street. We found her in a house. I asked her if she had the money and she said she had not, and the officer said, he had a warrant to arrest her. What did she say to that, anything? She did not say anything - she only said that she did not have the money. Then he took her away to the station house. Did she say anything on the way to the station house? No sir, no more. Then I asked her if she would give me part of the money back again; she said she did not have it. Did she see you where you were standing when you put this pocket book down the leg of your drawers? She was in the same room at the time. Was she standing where she could see? I do not know as she noticed it at the time. I did not mean that she should notice it. I tried to put her in without her seeing it. It was my intention to conceal the money. That is all I know about it. She did not say anything more to me at the station house or at the Police Court. She denied all the time having the money or knowing anything about it.

Cross-Examined. I left my vessel that day about six or seven o'clock as near as I can tell. I came over to New York and went to Mr. Smith's at 7 Matt St. I went over there to see my brother and sat there a while and talked. Mr. Smith keeps lodges. he does not sell anything to drink there. I had a glass or two of beer there, they sent out and got it. A man named Valentine, who goes aboard the vessel with me was with me. He did not buy any drinks. I paid for them. I could not say what time I left there, it must have been along about half past ten. We went and walked up town; we went up Sullivan to West Third St. and then we crossed over to Seventh Avenue. Valentine and I were together; we went above Twenty Third street. I think we walked as far as Twenty Sixth street and turned around and came back again. Did you go into any drinking place up there? We went in and had something to drink on the way up. How many times did you go in to have something to drink? I don't know. I never kept any run of it.

By the Court. As near as you can tell?

Perhaps I went in three or four times.

By Counsel. Who was there with you? Mr. Valentine was with me. How many drinks did you have at those places? I could not say how many we had positively.

By the Court. Give us as near as you can how much drink you took from the time you left your vessel until you met this young woman; we have a right to know it? We had two down at Smith's, and I suppose we had three or four on the way. Three or four on your way up town?

Yes sir. In different saloons you stopped on your way up? Yes sir. Give your best judgment? I could not say. Did you have five or ten or two - you mentioned two - you had more? Yes. I had more than two. I would say positively five of beer; it was all beer. Did you have a drink of whiskey? No sir, not that I remember. Do you remember drinking anything that night except beer? A. Yes sir.

 By Counsel Q. You remember being examined in the Police Court, do you, you remember being examined before the Magistrate? Yes sir.
 You stated there that you went into a saloon about the corner of Seventh Avenue and Twenty Seventh Street - do you remember how many glasses of whiskey you had taken in that place corner of Twenty Seventh St. and Seventh Avenue - do you remember stating there that you had taken five or six drinks up there? I did not.

Q. Did you testify thus - Q. You say you had five or six drinks - were you intoxicated?
 A. I was not intoxicated. " A. I think I heard them ask the question.

By the Court Q. Do you recollect making that answer, that you were not intoxicated? A. I was not.
 Q. What do you say - were you or were you not intoxicated on that night?
 A. No sir, I was not. I left Seventh Avenue to come down town; it was after midnight, along towards morning I guess. On your way down town, did you stop at any place at all? I do not recollect stopping anywhere. I know that I offered to treat. Did you stop at several places and buy fruit, bananas etc. for the company you were with? Yes. I did. I bought lobsters and some things. I don't remember what - some thing that has been vendd along the street at the stand. I paid for it. Nobody else paid for anything. I got the defendant and a lady friend and Valentine and myself were together. After we got the lobster I don't remember stopping anywhere until we got to Thompson St. I do not remember that I stopped in a restaurant in Bleeker St. with them and had some thing to eat and remained there some time. I do not remember handling any money in Bleeker St. I don't know what room it was I rented in Thompson St., but I think it was No. 210, but I would not swear positively to that. I guess it was nearly day break when I got to the place where I stopped all night. I hired two rooms for the four of us and paid for them - fifty cents each for the room. I don't know on what floor the rooms were, it was up stairs, it was a lodging house. I guess we had one Kettle of beer in the room before we went to bed. Valentine was in the room before he went to bed, but he did not help to drink the beer, the other woman did not help to drink the beer in the room Valentine was in a room on the same floor across from me. I did not count my money at all in that house on that day. As near as I can tell I counted it about twelve o'clock mid day. I was in the room when I put the money in my drawers but was not in bed; the defendant was in the room. my drawers had no pocket. I took the pocket book with the money out, which was next to my naked knees. I saw the money in the pocket book when I took the five dollar bill out. I did not take any money out from that roll when I was in these various saloons. The first time I took the roll out was when I was in Thompson St. I am sure of that. As near as I can tell it was about seven o'clock when I left the vessel. I cannot tell what time I awoke in the morning, but I know the sun was up and it was day light. The door was open and I did not see any one in the room when I awoke. The first person I saw after I awoke was the man of the house walking back and forth on the same floor in the hall. I asked him if the lady (the defendant) had gone and he said she had but not very long. I went to Valentine's room and woke him up, the door was locked when I went to it and the woman was in the room with him. The woman who was with Valentine told me where I would find the defendant; she said she would show me where she lived and she went up town with me; she left us (Valentine and me) on the Avenue; she went up first to the defendant, I suppose, I could not say positively where she went but she came back and told me something. The next time I saw the defendant was in her own room in Twenty Ninth St. I went from there to the Station house; she was not searched in my presence. I don't know whether she was searched or not. I could not swear of my own knowledge that the defendant took the money, I was asleep at the time. There was no lock on the door, but I hooked it inside. How much time was it elapsed from the time you went to bed till you awoke and missed your money? I do not think it was over two or three hours. I had not seen anybody else, beside the defendant in the room from the time I entered until I missed my money. A juror was withdrawn and the defendant pleaded guilty to petty larceny.

0488

0489

John Higgins

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. The defendant and I have been warm friends for a long time, & do work together in the same place. He is a man of good character. He has a family depending upon for support. He has been in the Hospital for some time & only went to work this week. I do not feel the effects of the fight now.
