of No. Metropolitan Hotel Walter E. Hildreth Street, aged 35 years.

occupation Hotel Keeper being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 19 day of September 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in any time, the following property, viz:

One hundred dollars good and lawful money of the United States the property of Deponent and his partners and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Adolph Robertson (now here) for the reason that on said date - deponent is informed by Chas M. Keitt his clerk that the defendant now here presented the annexed check to the said Keitt and represented to him that the said check was good and requested the said Keitt to give him money for said check. Deponent the said Keitt believing defendant's statement to be true cashed said check giving him one hundred dollars for same. Deponent has deposited said check and it has been returned to him marked no account.  at a check, which I cashed at the time I was staying, next day I received another check, I think it was for $800.00 which I cashed also at the Hotel. I then continued to stay & lost heavily. About 3 o'clock came cashing for my the Cashier at the Hotel told me that they could not cash it - I was then at the Hotel & this sudden turn of affairs made me very nervous & I had no more money - I wanted the Cashier to hold those checks till tomorrow and I would make good the amount. He readily combined with my request & made the same money & made the checks good. I sold some of my savings

Sir,

In compliance with the request of the Hon. Randolph B. Martine Judge of the court of General Sessions for a report relative to past Criminal Career of one Adolph Robertson who stands convicted before his Honor of the crime of Forgery. I respectfully submit the following.

Adolph Robertson was employed with the firm of Seigel Bros. of Chicago. Ill. Cloak Manufacturers as a traveling salesman, and came to New York with a line of samples valued at $500<sup>00</sup> and stopped at the Metropolitan Hotel, shortly after his arrival here, he sold his entire samples to several persons in New York of which one is known as a professional receiver and with the proceeds left the city the firm sent one of its members to this city and several arrests followed.

of the men who bought the goods and nearly all the goods was recovered about 5 months after about the 10th of July 93 Robertson returned from the south where he had been arrested for passing worthless checks but discharged and he was arrested by <sup>Det Sergeant</sup> Heidelberg and myself on the warrant issued by Judge Tolson P. Smith on Oct. 6th 92. and immediately after we learned that he also passed several worthless checks in New York City before he went away. The firm of Hollander & Co. & the Metropolitan Hotel were victimized by him. He is also wanted at present at Savannah, Ga. where there is a reward of $50.00 offered for him for passing worthless checks.

To Recorder Smyth.

Dear Sir :-

I would respectfully submit the following report in reference to Frank Rodgers who plead guilty before you:-

At address he gave when arrested--243 West 10th Street--he is unknown. He was arrested by Park Officer Zwisler on July 6, 1893, for acting suspiciously in Union Square Park. He was taken to Police Headquarters where he was detained over night. When brought before the Central Office Detectives the following morning, they failed to recognize him. He was detained during the day, he being suspected as the party who had cut off the hair of young girls. Several of the young girls were called, but they could not identify khâm. Inspector McLaughlin informs me he was unable to find out anything relative to his antecedents.

Respectfully submitted,

N.Y. July 25, 1893.
